Brief News.
The Monitor office has been removed to Hill street, a few doors east of the First National Bank.
The Lewistown Gazette is apprehensive that a law has passed the Legislature taxing dogs, for the use of public schools.

A bull aged 3½ years, was killed in Millin county the other day which weighed 1700 lbs. That's a bulky weight, we consider.
The new license law, which we published last week, goes into effect when temperance people choose to enforce it.

—Horse-bills printed in the best style at the Globe office. For particulars see bills, or call at our office and examine specimens.

—Now is the time to select your Wall Paper. Call at Lewis' Book Store, where you can select from a very large assortment of the newest styles.
—We neglected last week to notice the fine improvement in the first National Bank. Gentlemen of taste had something to do with it.

—Works beautifully—the Patent Atmospheric Butter Maker, now on exhibition by Capt. J. Thomas, at the Franklin Hotel.

—Some scamps entered the smoke-house of Dr. Nott on Friday night last and helped themselves to a full supply of provisions. They need catching.

—A gentleman who has been taking the trouble to count, says there are forty-two stores in the borough of Huntingdon. This speaks well for a population of three thousand.

—Mr. John Westbrook has removed his store opposite the National Bank to the room in the Diamond, where he will be happy to receive calls from old and new customers.

—The Fakir of Vishnu, not yet forgotten by our people, advertises for a partner. He intends to enlarge his entertainment. Quite necessary, we think, for variety's sake.

—A man named Cornelius Feeley used a knife rather feebly on three persons in a beer house in Lewistown, and as a consequence was put in jail, and it is hoped he will feel what the law is.

—Dr. Bumbaugh has removed from his former residence on Montgomery street to the brick on Washington street, a few doors east of the Catholic Church. His office is still on Hill street.

—The Presbyterian Church of this place is to be enlarged for the accommodation of the congregation, by the erection of side galleries. Proposals will be received by G. W. Garrison, Sec. of the congregation.

—Those persons who have moved or intended moving should not forget to call at Lewis' Book Store, and purchase their Wall Paper, Window Shades, &c. A house with rooms neatly papered is a thing of beauty and a joy forever.

—As Court commences next week, those of our country patrons who are in arrears for subscription, etc., will have a good opportunity for squaring up accounts with us. Our books are open for the reception of new subscribers.

—The fittings in this place were as numerous as in former years.—Those of our town subscribers who have changed their residence will notify the carrier or call at our office. Those who desire to take the paper will do likewise.

—Twelve quarts of chimney soot in a hoghead of water is said to be a valuable liquid manure to improve the growth of flowers, garden vegetables or root crops. We thought that some good use would eventually be made out of this formerly castaway nothwithstanding.

—Mr. Theophilus Cisney died at his residence in Hill Valley, Shirley township, on the 20th ult., at the ripe old age of 104 years. Mr. Cisney was born near Shippensburg, Pa., in 1763. He removed to Huntingdon county in 1793, where he has been ever since.—He was able to manage the affairs of his farm until he reached the age of 94.

—The family of John Young, containing seven members, residing near Altoona, were all poisoned recently by eating a lot of biscuit, in which three mistake the oldest daughter had used tartar emetic. The physician thinks there was also some arsenic in the cakes. The family is recovering.

—Township Auditors are required by law to audit the bounty accounts of every district, prepare a condensed statement of these accounts, and publish the same, at the cost of the district, for three successive weeks, in two papers. A penalty of fifty dollars is imposed on each Auditor who fails to comply.

—Gen. Wm. D., the former assessor, has now engaged extensively in the horse business. By his industry he has collected about three tons of bones, and received the pay for them. Upon seeing him recently going his daily rounds behind his wheelbarrow, we have thought of the proverb, "See thou a man diligent in his business; he shall stand before kings, and not before mean men." and we have wondered whether Fortune was not smiling upon poor, neglected Billy.

The Borough Election.

The election on Monday for Burgess, Council and Constable was well attended—to the voters turning out more generally than usual at such elections. Some three hundred and nine votes were polled. The contest was a mixed one—with some it was your party blind—with others bull or no town ball, etc. Two tickets were run—for constable Levi Westbrook and Wm. H. King were upon both—Mr. King was re-elected. The tickets were as follows, with the vote for each:

Burgess.
T. H. Cramer, 132 Graffus Miller, 130
Council.
W. Cunningham, 149 Frank Hoffright, 170
Daniel Artley, 176 D. P. Gwin, 136
N. B. Corbin, 144 A. A. Colitt, 144
Constable.
William King, 216 Levi Westbrook, 91

Lamentable Occurrence.

On Saturday afternoon last, while a little girl named Jennie Murphy, aged about nine years, was engaged in throwing down hay from the mow of her mother's stable, somewhere in the neighborhood of Lilly's Station, this county, the roof of the structure suddenly gave way in consequence of the heavy weight of snow upon it, and falling in, buried the unfortunate child in the ruins. The noise of the accident attracted the little girl's mother to the spot, who had the unspeaking anguish to find her daughter, though still living, suffering most intense torture. Unable herself to rescue her child, the distracted mother hastened with all speed to a neighbor's house, but only to find the occupants absent. Hurrying onward in her search for assistance she secured the aid of other neighbors, some two miles distant from the scene of the accident, but when they arrived upon the spot it was too late—the poor child's life was extinct.

Good News.

The prices of goods, but especially dry goods and groceries have rapidly declined during the last two weeks.—Should the decline be permanent, and we hope it will be, many folks can afford to make purchases which they have been postponing for months. If they wish to know where and from whom they can purchase to the best advantage, let them go to Johnston & Watson's, who have received a large stock of all kinds of goods, and are selling them at very low prices. Go and see them.

A Hint to Lads and Lassies.

A want has long been felt in this community of some store for young ladies and gentlemen to get just what they wanted in the trimming and furnishing line. We are pleased to state that this want is now supplied by our young and genial friend W. P. Rudolph, who has opened a Ladies' Trimming and Gents' Furnishing Store, on the North east corner of the Diamond.—It also has a complete assortment of Hats and Caps. Go to his store and see the latest styles. Advertisement next week.

Wanted.

Men from town and country, to call at the Franklin Hotel, Huntingdon, and see the Patent Atmospheric Butter-Maker. Churns every day from sweet milk in five minutes. Any one, by investing a few dollars, can make from $25 to $50 a day. It costs only 30 cents and sells for $3.

County rights for sale by J. Thomas, Agent, Huntingdon, Pa.

—The first of April has come, and brought with it its usual migrations, and many are thrown out of homes, who still have a desire to stay with us. Those who built temporary dwelling houses last year are not troubled, and we suggest that those who are now homeless do the same. There should be at least fifty new houses every spring, to meet the demands of our increasing population. Would't a building association "pay"?

Carpet Weaving.

Valentine Gemrote respectfully informs the people of Huntingdon and vicinity, that he is prepared to weave Carpets in the best workmanlike manner. His stand is on Moore street, nearly opposite Miller's Brewery.—He invites the patronage of his former customers and others.

Another Big Opening.

O. D. Lewis will open out on Monday next, his store in Leicester's new building. Our friend John McLaughlin, the accommodating clerk, will always be at his post, ready to furnish goods of the best style, and at reasonable prices. The stock consists of Dry Goods, Groceries, etc., etc.

Removed.

The Post-Office was removed yesterday from the Broad Top corner to the room nearly opposite Lewis' Book and Stationery Store. Ash Miller is still Postmaster, notwithstanding the removal. The post office is now in a good location for the community at large; we do not say this through any jesting spirit.

Religious.

There will be services in the Episcopal Church of this place on Friday evening, also on Sabbath morning and evening next.

There will be preaching in the German Reformed Church on Sunday morning next.

Wanted.

Dr. William Brewster has removed to McConelltown. His town patients will still receive calls.

New Justice's and Constables' Fee Bills for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

Localizing.

Almost everybody has an idea of his own how a local newspaper should be conducted, but however they may differ on other items, they almost invariably coincide in one opinion—that a newspaper should be mostly made up of local items. They do not seem to think that a local editor is not omnipotent; nor that the proprietor can afford to keep a "local" on every street corner; nor that either of them cannot be poking his nose into other people's business all the time, asking questions for which he feels he should be rebuked. To effect the grand result desired by everybody in a local paper, each member of the community should be under obligation to contribute his mite of news, with the understanding that every other member do the same. Thus an editor would be merely a scribe, and the printer the multiplier of the records made.

A Gentleman reports to us that a few days ago he discovered a very valuable deposit of galena or lead ore, in Middle Woodbury township, Bedford county, some four miles from the town of Woodbury. A party visited a cave in that neighborhood, and in one of the chambers some mineral substance seemed to fill the crevices of the rock, and upon examining it, it was found to be a lead vein. Subsequent searches disclose the fact, that the surrounding rock contains some excellent veins of this mineral. The owner of the land whose name we believe is Wagner, refuses to allow parties to attempt its development. He has been offered a good price for his land or leases, but refuses either to sell or lease.—Hollidaysburgh Leader.

Beautiful New Styles of Wall Paper.

All who intend to do papering in the spring or summer should measure their rooms and select their paper early from the large and splendid stock just received at Lewis' Book Store.

Window Shades.

Splendid Gilt and Oil Shades, and Gilt, Satin, Plain and Pattern Paper Shades, just received and for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

Second-hand Frame Work of two houses for sale.

Apply at Broad Top Railroad office, Huntingdon, Pa. April 3.

Buckwheat Flour and Corn Meal, for sale at Lewis' Family Grocery.

MARRIED.

In Altoona, on the 28th ult., by Rev. J. S. McMurray, Mr. E. W. Thomas, of Huntingdon, to Miss Eva W. Wright, of Petersburg, Hunt. Co.

The above happy couple will please receive the thanks of the printers for their handsome present, and also their best wishes. The musical Professor is lucky in getting a fair help-meet, and we hope he will find the pleasures of married life exceed his most sanguine expectations, and may the music of a happy and prosperous family ring melodiously in his ears. Having married (Wright), we trust his course will be ever right, upward and onward.

DIED.

At Shirleyburg, March 30th, WENHAM K., infant son of F. H. Luo, aged 11 months.
