> At Jacksonville Illinois last summer, a young lady tools a vial of chloroform to her bed with her one night, to quist the toothache. Next morning she was found apparently dead, and after, the lapse of the usual time was buried. A few days ago the remains were ex-humed for removal to another cemetery. On opening the coffin the corpse was found turned over, both hands full of her hair, the grave clothing torn, and all appearances indicating that the unfortunate lady had awak-ened from a trance to find herself buried alive.
