In another column will be found the list of retailers in Huntingdon county, with the amount of tax paid by each.

It is hardly necessary to state that the figures present a larger total than at any previous period in the history of Huntingdon county.

A landslide occurred on Tuesday night last near Wilmore, Cambria county, on the Pennsylvania railroad, and threw the fast line from Pittsburg off the track.

Our borough can congratulate itself upon having an energetic and enterprising set of Councilmen.

We flatter ourselves with the assurance that before their administration comes to a close, they will do much in improving the public property.

And this is right; for private individuals can contribute their share in making the town show to advantage, why can't the public authorities do the same.

A haversack, containing photographs, gold and steel pens, a diary, a conductor's account book, a yearly pass on the Penna. Railroad issued to John C. Beverlart, $200 in U. S. bonds, and some small change, was picked up in Half Moon Valley, not long ago.

Some of the articles have been identified by Mr. Ewing of Franklinville, this county, from whose store they were stolen.

The Base Ball Notes.

The season for this game has again opened, and we may expect the usual complaints from persons who have young men and boys in their employ.

Amusement and exercise should be encouraged, but when base ball playing is "run in the ground," as was the case almost everywhere last year, it becomes a nuisance.

Meeting of the Huntingdon Bar. There was a full attendance of the members of the Huntingdon Bar, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Monday the 23rd of April, to pay the usual mark of respect to the memory of ANNE W. BENEDICT, Esq., who died from his wife's hands; full of years and full of honors, when John G. Mize, Esq., was called to the chair, and R. Bruce Petrikin, Esq., was appointed Secretary.

On motion of John Williamson, Esq., the chair appointed Samuel T. Brown, R. M. Speer and Wm. P. Orbison, a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the object of the meeting, who made the following report:

Recognizing in the sudden death of ANNE W. BENEDICT, Esq., a severe, social and professional loss, and bowing in sad submission to this stroke of Providence, we do Resolve;

First, That the Bar has lost in the death of Mr. Benedict, a courteous and able member, and society a useful and upright citizen.

Second, That we will cherish the memory of our deceased brother, whose warm and generous impulses made him the friend of every member of the Bar, and whose public spirit as a citizen, and manly straight-forward conduct in practice is worthy of all imitation.

Third, That we tender to his sorrowing and stricken family, in their sore bereavement, our sincere sympathy, feeling that no words of ours can lighten the grief of this sad affliction.

Fourth, That we will attend the funeral in a body and wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Fifth, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished the family of the deceased, and be published in all the newspapers of the county.

On motion of Mr. Dorris, the resolutions as reported were unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. Speer, J. Sewell Stewart, Esq., was requested to prepare for publication an obituary of said deceased. JOHN G. MIZE, Pres. R. BRUCE PETRIKIN, Sec.

Change of Schedule. HUNTINGDON AND BROAD TOP RAILROAD. Train will arrive and depart as follows:

Read on the Cows. We have always thought that of all the useful animals, the cow should be permitted to live the longest, and go down to its grave in peace; but it seems that Fate decrees otherwise, at least, it would appear so from the events of the past three weeks.

We learn that during this time no less than six cows in this locality have been struck by locomotives, four of which were killed, and the others seriously injured.

Why the cows go on the railroad, is hard to divine; and surely it is not that they want a ride, as the realization of a ride into eternity is not so pleasant as the anticipation of a ride to some place where the grass is longer.

At this time of the year the grass makes its appearance sooner along the railroad, than at any other place, (so it is said,) and the cows which are turned out of the stable to hunt their feed, will instinctively go where the grass grows soonest.

The cows which have been lost in this manner were valuable, and the owners may expect compensation from the Company. We believe this will not be forthcoming, as the said Company have frequently notified owners of cattle that they will not be responsible for any accidents that may happen. Therefore, the best thing that could be done would be to dig ditches, or effect other arrangements which will prevent cows from taking to the tracks and being so suddenly taken off to cow heaven.

Acknowledged. It is generally acknowledged by every person that they can buy goods at A. L. Lewis' Store, Leister's new building, Huntingdon, cheaper than any other store in the county.

Resigned. Our jovial friend Mr. John C. Carroll, who, for two years past has been employed in responsible positions on the Broad Top Railroad, and latterly as Conductor, has resigned, and we understand, has been employed as brakeman on a passenger on the Pennsylvania Central.

We regret to part with John, but we hope that his most sanguine expectations in the way of success will be more than realized, as he is in every way deserving. We expect to hear from him often, which announcement will please many readers who admire his literary productions.

Mr. John Rahm has been appointed Conductor in lieu of Mr. Carroll.

It don't pay to buy the cheapest—so many say who buy the best articles at fair prices at Lewis' Family Grocery.

Additional Pay for Officers. Late officers of the army are entitled to an additional pay of five dollars per month for each servant kept by them from the 1st day of May, 1864, to the 31st day of March, 1865.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF GOOD TEMPLARS.—In 1861 this temperance organization, now so popular and so wide spread, had an obscure origin in one of the small towns in Western New York.

For a few years after it was instituted little was heard of the society, but for the past twelve years its progress has been steadily onward, until it now has Grand Lodges in all the States of the Union but five, and also in all the British Provinces, with upwards of one million members, all pledged to total abstinence and prohibition.

As an instance of the growth of the Order, we may mention that in 1863 there were less than thirty Lodges in Pennsylvania, now there are three hundred, and there are but six counties at present in our State without any Lodges, and to these the Grand Lodge lecturers have been directed to go and organize Lodges, so that the annual session of the Grand Lodge, which is to be held in Allegheny City, commencing June 13th, the Grand Lodge officers be able to report the Order established in every county.

Rapid as has been the increase of the order in Pennsylvania, it has been equally successful in other States from Maine to California.

The next session of the Grand Lodge will call together not less than five hundred delegates from the various Lodges of the State. Every Subordinate Lodge is entitled to send one representative, and every Lodge having one hundred members on the 30th of April two, one for each additional fifty members.

The coming Grand Lodge session, owing to the great increase of the Order during the past year, will be one of great importance.

On motion of Mr. Speer, J. Sewell Stewart, Esq., was requested to prepare for publication an obituary of said deceased. JOHN G. MIZE, Pres. R. BRUCE PETRIKIN, Sec.
