The Globe.

Thoughts for the Farmer. The Bright Side.

The wise man rever stops to brood over evils real or imaginary. Many persons suffer all their misfortunes in double or triple magnitude by merely nursing their wrath. Oftontimes they endure all their pains of death in giving rein to their imagination. A cheerful heart that in the screet afflictions reflects Low much better things are than they might have been, is a priceless treasure to its possessor. A certain good natured old Vermont farmer was once noted for possessing his equanimity; no matter what happened to disturb it, and the following anecdote is related in illustration of his enviable faculty:

from the effects of the plague. One of Iron, Steel, Nails, Spikes, Railroad and his men entered the house, bearing the news that one of his red oxen was dead. "Is ho?" said the old man, "well he was an unruly case. Take off his hide and carry it down to Fletcher's; it will bring the cash." In another hour or so the man came back with | Coal Oil Lamps and Lanterns, the news that the "lime-backs" were both dead. "Are they?" said the old man; "well, I took them from B----to save a debt that I never expected to get; it's lucky it isn't the brindle. Take their bides down to Fletcher's-they'll bring the cash." After the lapse of an hour more, the man returned to tell him the brindle was dead. "Is he?" said the old philosopher; well he was a very old ox.-Take off his hide and take it down to Fletcher's; it's worth the cash, and will bring more than any two of the others." Hereupon, his wife, taking upon herself the office of Eliphaz, reprimanded her husband severely, asking him if he was not aware that his loss was a judgment of heaven upon him on account of his wickedness. "Is it?" said the old fellow; "well if they will take the judgment in cattle, it's the easiest way I can pay it."

CANNING FRUIT .- First-Can the fruit the same day it is gathered. More than half the secret of having fine preserved fruit lies in this simple direction.

Second .- Never can fruit without adding as much sugar to it as you would to prepare it for the table. -This is imperative, else your fruit will inevitably be leathery; cook it in, I should say, at the rate of one-quarter of a pound to every pound of fruit, at least; but taste and try, as I did, and when it suits your palate cease from all saccharine matter.

And now for the modus operandi:-Pare and extract the pit; cut into halves and plunge into cold water until ready to cook, else your peaches will be black; this, of course, does not apply to other kinds of fruit. Place your SASH-CORDS, &C., &C. cans in any vessel where they can stand at least half way up in boiling MINING AND MINERS' GOODS. hot water, which keep so until sealed. I usually take a large dripping-pan and put it on the top of the stove at one side, while my preserving kettle is on the other. Make your syrup and when it comes to a boil, put in your peaches and let them cook (if clings) until you can pierce with a piece of broom corn; if free stones, when the syrup boils up over them the first time, skim out and put into the cans. When the latter are full of peaches, fill up with boiling hot syrup, wipe off the tops with a rag wet with cold water, being careful that no juice remains on them, then put on the covers, Randell's First Premium MORSE PITCHFORK, remove from the water to the stove hearth, and seal.

THE DILIGENT WOMAN .- She riseth in the morning betimes, and as the lark singeth to his mate, so she maketh a joyful noise in all her house.

She maketh up her bed; and beateth the pillows thereof; and like as an eagle stirreth up her nest, so she stirreth up the feathers, and speadeth out the sheets, and layeth the blankets The exclusive right to sell which is rested in us. Soud for apart.

She layeth her hand to the wash-tub rubbeth upon the board, making clean the fine linen; her hands take fast hold of the wringer, and by turning the crank the water thereof is pressed

She clotheth her family with puro garments, when she has made them smooth with a hot iron, and by reason Thereof her husband is made comely when he sitteth among the chief men, FURNISHED AT MANUFACTURERS' or walketh in the market-places. She kneadeth up her dough and baketh a goodly cake for her household, and to every one she giveth a piece of bread and butter of kine.

She provideth her dinner in due season, and supper faileth not when the good man returneth at the end, of the day, weary with his labors and the strife of men. She looketh well to the ways of her house, and scorneth the idle woman, with her delicate hands, who lieth in bed and calleth a servant. ner Twelve quarts of soot in a hogs-head of water will make a powerful liquid manure, which will improve the growth of flowers, garden vegetables, or root crops. In either a liquid or solid state it makes an excellent top-dress ing for grass or cereal crops.

It takes 250 bushels of potatoes to make a ton of starch.

I propose to check, and effectually dissipate more acho and usin, and to accomplish more perfect equilibrium of all the circulating fields in the human system, than can be effected by any other, or all other methods of medical aid in the same space of time.

THIS POPULIAR REMEDY is fast coming into use, for the fact that I cure, tree of charge, all these complaints whenever there is an opportunity to do so. As soon as it is applied it almest mireculously kills the pain. I do not ask you to huy before you are certain of its efficiency. If you have an acheor pain, it is warranted to do all it purports on the labe!

I do not propose to cure every discase—only a cluss named by my directions. My liminent operates on chemical and electric principles, and is, therefore, appliable, to the cure or natural restorative of all organic derangoment arising from an improper circulation of the nerve vital fluids.

Prof. J. H. McEntyre's INDIAN COMPOUND acts directly on the absorbents, reducing glandular and other swellings in incredible short time, without any possible danger from its use under any possible circumstances.

This is an internal and external medicine—composed of roots, herbs and barks, such as our forefathers used.— There is a bountiful supply on earth to cure all complaints if we only know what they were.

This has been a great study with the Medical Faculty for many years, to find out the kinds best adapted to the above complaints—low to put them together, and what proportions to use.
