Blair county holds no Fair this year.
The people are all coming to Huntingdon.

A change of schedule has been made on the Broad Top railroad. See schedule in another column.

Mr. Jackson White has our thanks for a large present of hay in the comb. We hope his hay may never tire.

As we are to be a judge of poultry at the next fair, we want to see a large display, especially of the mixed or cross breeds, the most profitable stock.

On Tuesday last Miss Sarah Stuart living with Mr. Olmes, in Gaysport, Blair county, burst a blood vessel and fell over dead whilst milking the cow.

A man named William Finney, residing in Harrisburg, had to pay thirty-five dollars and cost of prosecution, for shooting a dog in the street.

On Tuesday last, George, a son of Mr. Uriah Lewis, of this place, was kicked on the arm by a calf, in a field below town. No bones were broken.

Blair county has now seven newspapers. What an appreciative community they must have. Singular to state all but three know no politics.
