

HUNTINGDON, PA.

Wednesday morning, Sept. 25, 1887.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Local Advertisements. Advertisements (puffs or notices) published in local columns at ten cents a line single insertion, counting seven words to a line.

To Subscribers. Those subscribers receiving a paper marked with a † before the name will understand that the time for which they subscribed is up. If they wish the paper continued they will renew their subscription through the mail or otherwise.

New Advertisements in this Issue. Notice to Landowners, Miners and others. The Lambert candidate for Senator.

Brief Items. Preaching in the Episcopal Church, on Sunday morning and afternoon. A telegraph line is now being erected between Tyrone and Lock Haven.

Charley Arley, a son of Mr. Daniel Arley, fell off a bridge and severely injured, but he is now recovering. We have received from Mr. James Terry, of this borough, a basket of the largest tomatoes we ever saw, for which he has our thanks. They will bear off the palm, we think, at the fair.

S. M. Ault, proprietor of the City Hotel, Tyrone, accidentally fell through an open hatchway and was struck at that place, on Thursday last, and dislocated his right shoulder.

All the fairs of the neighboring counties of Bedford, Centre, Clearfield and Indiana, are to be held on the 21, 23 and 4th of October. Huntingdon has the same days.

The Brethren of Veranda Lodge I. O. of O. F. No. 532, Altoona, visited Junata Lodge in this place on Friday evening last. They had a general good time and returned home in the morning.

If politicians and office-seekers want the use of our columns they can be accommodated upon the same terms as other persons who want to make money. Our advertising rates can be found in another part of our paper.

Every day (Sunday excepted) for two weeks past, from twenty to fifty, (more or less) squirrels, have been brought to town by hunters fond of the sport. They are numerous this year, and the squirrel hunting fever runs high.

As every body will be in town next week we hope those indebted to us will give us a call. Those who are square or in advance upon our books we will also be pleased to see, and we hope they may have a pleasant time generally during the Fair.

The Fair grounds are being handsomely fixed up for an extensive exhibition, and we predict a grand success. Everybody talks of bringing something for exhibition—the right talk, and we hope they will not fail to be on hand in good time on the first day.

Folly, of the Tyrone Bulletin, says in his last: "We once went down to Susquehanna on a raft, and we think we can't see clear of a shoal and scrag political." He should remember that he has a more gossamer-like vessel to steer than a huge and cumbersome raft on which he "went down" (how?) the Susquehanna.

The candidates for office will be in town during the Fair, and we suppose they will want to be seen by all the voters. We propose that they have themselves entered and properly labelled, and answer no questions, or if they prefer to make pledges, to make only such as they intend honestly to adhere to.

We have received a "photo" of "Our Home on the Hillside," a water cure institution, pleasantly located at Danville, Livingstone county, N. Y. This is one of the largest institutions of the kind in the world, and has met with good success in the treatment of the sick. Rev. James C. Jackson, M. D., is the Principal.

Our guardian-like city dailies will no doubt be gratified to learn that there is no diminution of the zeal of the gallant knights of the Tourney to make the affair at the Fair a grand success. Their remarks have only tended to redoubled activity, for which we feel thankful. May those dear editors be here to see.

The Republicans propose to hold meetings at Cassville on the 24th, at Peterburg on the 25th, at McAlister's Fort on the 26th, at Orbisonia on the 27th and at Huntingdon Furnace on the 28th, to commence at 1 P. M., each day. The Democrats, we understand, do not intend to hold any public meetings.

The Tournament which came off in this place last week has been roughly attacked by some old fogey in the Philadelphia Inquirer. Whether it is a Southern amusement or not, we want to see it repeated. The parties engaged in the amusement are quite as loyal and respectable as the editors of the Inquirer or any of its patrons.

New Goods. It would be well for the farmers to call at Cunningham & Carmon's before disposing of their marketing as they get a shade higher for all kinds of marketing than any other House in town, and at the same time, they sell all kinds of goods lower than any other establishment in the County. They have just returned from the East with a very large stock of fall and winter goods which is, by odds, the best selection we have seen this season. Farmers, when you come, call and see their stock of Muslins, Calicoes, Dress Goods, Sugars, Coffees and especially their choice Syrups. All of which you can get in exchange for marketing.

Boarding wanted for a gentleman, wife and three children. Address Box 514, Pittsburg, Pa., P. O.
