To THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to cease wearing the beautiful styles now so prevalent, or dress less elegantly, because the rebel Jost. Davis, was captured in Fashionable Female attire? One moment's calm reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sense to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, because they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Rebels, the Devil. Can you err in following the example of Angels? Then having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of rebelacts, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to farnish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Urgo your fath, ers, husbands, brothers, neighbors and children to visi the same store. A KISS Let me kiss you for your mother— For your siste:—cousin—aunt— Or for somebody or other Whom I long to kiss and can't. I could wish my love beside me As I've you beside me now; But the pleasure is denied me, So I'll kiss you anyhow.

I adore the lady dearly
(I assure you that I do.)
Can you understand me clearly
That my kiss is not for you?
In your keeping I may leave it,
As another's—not your own;
So I beg you'll not receive it
As a gift, but as a loan.

You have silken, yellow tresses, While my love's are black as night;

It was because we took hold of the slavery question in good carnest that we won only, and we never did win until we did take hold of it in that way."

Referring to Presidential matters, Mr. Wade said it had loaked to him for a year past as if the Republican party would take Grant up for President, and run him in with a therah. He was sorry to see that disposition, and believed no good would come of it. "The trouble with Grant is," said he, "you don't know where be stands, I seems very singular that a man could have lived through this terrible war without identifying himself with any party, and that men pretending to be Republicans should try to rush him into the White House without asking him single question as to where he stands on the 'great isques now before the country. The mere fact that a man is obliged to the most I know, but then again he may be all wrong. If he wants to be President by my voice, and the voice of the men I act with, he must not only be right, but he must prove that he is."

I inquired of Mr. Wade what proof he would require from General Grant before supporting him as a Presidential candidate. Would a letter indorsing the Radical policy do?

"No, it won't. We must have his word backed by some official act showing him to be in sympathy with us, and in favor of the doctrines we advecate. We won't take any man's word after what we've gone through. Grant must come out and show his hand as a pronounced Republican or he can't get my support.
