Our Carrier will be on hand with his address, on New Year's morning.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. will give excursion tickets from Monday, December 28d, to Saturday, January 4th.

Wall papering can be done as well in the winter as summer. Beautiful new styles just seceived at Lewis' Book Store. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

have just erected a fine frame warehouse, with ticket office and passenger room therein, at Mapleton station, this county.

nen A German woman on the emigrant train gave birth to a child be-tween Newton Hamilton and Mount Union, one day last week. The mother stopped with the little passenger at a hotel in Mt. Union. It lived only George Nose two days.

Before purchasing articles for use and present during the holidays, we would suggest to our readers to consult the advertising columns of this paper. It should be the object of every man, woman and child, to patronize home trade and industry. tronize home trade and industry.

Good Things for the Holidays. Everybody can find something good at Lewis' Family Grocery. Dried Fruits, Canned Fruits, Vegetables, Oysters, Cranberries, Candies in great variety, &c., &c., &c. Also toys for the children.

The town was well crowded last week with sleds and sleighs. Everybody appeared to enjoy the snow. The Teachers Institute was a grand success-the best ever held in the county. Mr. Tussey, Superintendent, deserves and receives great praise for the industry and labor in making it a success.

The Rev. A. J. Barrow will preach in the Episcopal Church, this place, on Christmas night, a sermon suitable to the occasion, at 71 o'clock. There will be services on the following Subbath, morning and afternoon, at the usual hours. The Church has been decorated for the occasion.

Sudden Death. We learn that a gentleman, who was recently married in the town of Delphi, Indiana, came to Bloody Run, Bedford county, on a wedding tour. He was there only a few days, with his wife, when he was suddenly attacked with typhoid fever, and died. On Friday last his corpse was taken in a coffin to his relatives. How truly can we say:
"In the midst of life we are in death!"

Circulating Library. . It affords us pleasure to announce that J. C. Fast Piece of Business. . "A subscriber" in Alexandria sends us the following item, which may be of interest to shoemakers hereabouts and elsewhere: I have been told by Dr. G. W. Hewitt that D. S. Henderson, of this place, one day last week, commenced cutting out a pair of boots for him (Dr. Hewitt) at guarter past two o'clock, and made and finished them by half past nine of the same day-making them in seven hours and a quarter. Can that be beaten in the cordwainer ring?

Our town is again infested with Gibboney Joseph, gentleman, Barres thieves, and the consequence we have Goodman Jacob, farmer, Brady to chronicle some bold robberies committed by them. On Saturday night Johnson Geo. W. merebant, West last a party of them made an attack upon the grocery of Mr. John Hagey, on Washington street, but after battering the door, they found entrance impregnable and left. Either they or another set made a more successful entry | Marlin, James T., currier, Clay the same night into the shoe shop of Mr. Lewis Richter, from whence they decamped with several pairs of boots. We would caution our citizens to be on the look out for the thieves, and McCahan James, laborer, Henderson McLaughlin Wm, merchant, Mt Union give them a warm reception.

Huntinglon, Oct. 39, 1867.

N IMPROVEMENT IN LIGHT!

We take pleasure in putting before the public a LAME for burning fat, lard or tailow, which is superior to any of the kind ever introduced. It differs from all others, as it does not require the fat to be melted before lighting. It heats the fat by a copper pipe, which conducts the heat under the fat and melts it immediately. Thousands of the lamps have been sold and no complaints have been imade. All Lamps warranted to give general satisation, or the money refunded.

A rare opportunity is offered in any person or persons that may wish to engage in the business. Huntingdor, and Mifflin counties will he sold in townships at reasonable terms to, sujf purchasers. A sample lamp will be forwarded to any person or receipt of relativing the forwarded to any person or necessary of the property of the sold in the sample lamp will be forwarded at my exposes.

Will either sell territory or pay agonts by the day or place. Agents art making from $5 to $15 per day, for they soil very fast. They are what every person needs. All tetters will receive prompt attention.
