

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Wednesday morning, Jan. 22, 1868.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Local advertisements section containing various notices, notices to subscribers, and general information.

The Meeting of the County Temperance Union.

Report on the meeting of the County Temperance Union, including details of the proceedings, resolutions, and the presence of various officials.

The Blue Coats, and how they lived.

Historical account of the 'Blue Coats' and their experiences during the war, including their hardships and the impact of the conflict.

Ladies Dress and Boys Clothing.

Advertisement for a clothing store specializing in ladies' dress and boys' clothing, listing various styles and prices.

BELLS!

Advertisement for sleigh bells, highlighting their quality and availability at low prices.

J. C. BLAIR, BOOKSELLER, STATIONERY AND WALL PAPER.

Advertisement for J.C. Blair's stationery and wall paper business, listing various products and services.

THE PLACE TO BUY NEW AND CHEAP GOODS FOR FALL AND WINTER.

Advertisement for W. March & Bro., a clothing and goods store, promoting their wide selection of merchandise.

MARKETS.

Market report section listing prices for various commodities such as wheat, corn, and other goods.

STAMPS AND BLANKS.

Advertisement for stamps and blank documents, listing various types available for purchase.

THE LADIES.

Advertisement for ladies' clothing and accessories, including dresses and hats.

REAL ESTATE AGENCY.

Advertisement for a real estate agency, offering services for buying and selling property.

REAL ESTATE.

Advertisement for real estate services, including property listings and sales.

FOR SALE.

Advertisement for various items for sale, including land, tools, and household goods.

THE PLACE TO BUY NEW AND CHEAP GOODS FOR FALL AND WINTER.

Advertisement for W. March & Bro., similar to the one at the top of the page.