

	E. HUDEN LOVELL,	er's style. All this I gathered at a	How washing to the contents of	fut woman 'who contracted for this oc	party. Ito says Susan, my dear, Mrs.	take an the put out : Contound you :
TT ROMAN,	District Attorney of Huntingdon County,	glance. Stepping up to them, I said :	illammable nature of the contents of	fat woman, who contracted for this oc-	S. gives a German to-night; let us	as if you always had a pin in your
Dealer in Ready Made Clothing, Hats and Capa,	HUNTINGDON, PA.	"Why, Jones, what in the deuce are	lightning like vanidity and before 1 o'	casion only to the dimensions of the double door. To them shortly enter	go."	back. But it was all the same ; wheth-
P. GWIN,	OFFICE-In the Brick Row, opposite the Court House jan.1.1867	you doing with this girl ?"	clock had burst out through the roof	Zuruby Hannam, the Circassian girl.	him as if he had been guilter of east	er you had or not, cry you would, and
Dealer in Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Queens.	······································	and an it a next	It was found impossible to save the	whose hair radiated with more than	boligm and with the air of an ining of	tion for these about you Do you'for-
Dealer in Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Queens- kare, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, &c. Hunting Ion	JOHN SCOTT, BANUEL T. BROWN, JOHN M. BAILEY	self on the seat. "See here, stranger," said the fellow,	I building, and the firemen directed all	usual self-assertion, and the lat boy	Woman cowa.	and how you stamped and fore and
C F HENRY & CO Wholesale and	The name of this firm has been chang-	"you are a mite mistaken; my name	their attention to the adjoining prop-	who was emptied into a tub and brought	"And leave Henry Augustus Grear	bellowed in the days of your short
E. HENRY & CO., Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, ucensware, and Provisions of all kinds, Huntingdon.	ed from SCOT1 & BROWN, to	Inin't Tanon "	erty, which was greatly endangered.	in on the shoulder of four men.	Jenkinson? Teave our "first haby ?"	frocks? How often you have heer
Jucensware, and Provisions of all kinds, Huntingdon.	SCOTT, BROWN & BAILEY,	"When Tanan " and T throw containing	t The building occupied as the Museum	Two pelicans were alterwards con-	Oh how can you Charles William	Soutin a compan" with a obair before	· .
	under which name they will hereafter conduct their practice as		loxtended to Mercer Street, in which	verea to the same haven: a stuned	think of such a thing when the help	from which wown little foot had tried to
THE GLOBE	ATTORNEYS AT LAW, HUNTINGDON, PA.	and tried to palm yourself off for a	I portion of the building the stage was	i nwn soon arrived, and the exiled curi-	has had each a time to get those front	kick down? How you have thrown
JOB PRINTING OFFICE.	PENSIONS, and all claims of soldiers and soldiors' heirs	lateral and the second se	situated. As soon as the fire reached	osities ranged themselves against the	teeth too? Oh ron arual arual normant.	that little hade of yours upon the one	,
IOB FRINTING OFFICE.	manist the Government, will be promptly prosecuted. May 17, 1865-tf.	1 AT A HE SHOW THE SHOW THE PART	the scenery and stage, the flames gain-	Wall, and poured their gries into one	you are not fit to be the father of such	pet. and kickod and sprawled, and
		Harper. It never was Jones—'tain't	led a new innerits and nirst out of the	Tanother's bosoms to their own solace.	an angel."	roared, as if you wished to deafen
THE "GLOBE JOB OFFICE"	A C. CLARKE, AGENT,	going to be, nuther."	A all the street side of the pulling with	iousnope, and any how, to the extrav-	A terrible torront of tenne como in	averybody while your parent with a
the most complete of any in the country, and pos- esses the most ample facilities for promptly executing in the best style, every variety of Job Printing, such as	Wholesale and Rotail Dealer in all kinds of	I merely shook my head and passed	fearful violence, the body of flame reach-	agant delight of a number of small	at this point and Charles William the	face on well on your own and your
		on to another seat to see the rest of the	ing across the street and setting fire to	boys who flattened their noses against	miserable narent, withers into noth.	nurse, with fingers itching to slap you,
IAND BILLS,	SECARS & TOBACCO,	fun. About the time the couple got	I the buildings on the opposite side of the	the front windows, and exulted exu-	ing.	have tried every means to compose
CIRCULARS,	HUNTINGDON, PA.		narrow street. The flames also extend-	berantly in the possession of "a beat	In fact, there is no denying it, that	you, and have oven filled your disten-
BILL HEADS,	-	Gregg. Walking up to Harper, he ac-	led to the building No. 537, adjoining.	on Barnum." But the griefs of the	the first beby walks into the effection	dod jawa with sugar to no minned?
POSTERS,	Next door to the Franklin House, in the Diamond. Country trade supplied. ap17'67	control him with	Which is occupied by a number of vari-	curiosities shall be more sacred to us	(figuratively speaking) of the hitberto	How mony nots of current felly have
BALL TICKETS,	······································	"Why, Jones, you here? How did	ous parties, and also to the building on	than to them. Altogether, curiosities,	devoted wife, and husband is obliged	been wasted upon you to keep you
	CLEO. W. SWARTZ,	you leave your wife and babies ?"	tho upper side, No. 543.	Reepers, attenuants, and watchmen.	to go out in the cold and discuss the	aviat? How many times have you
ARD'S,	DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF	"Now see here, stranger, you ain't	At this time a rumor was started	Lacro were from thirty to forty people	relative parts of "emil mills" "	inched and constand your brotherd
PROGRAMMES,	DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF	the fust man that's called me Jones to-	that the Prescott House was on fire,	who lodged in the bluseum, and are	cow's milk," "skim milk," "chalk	and sisters? How often have you
BLANKS,	internet in a state of the state of the state	day, an' I reckon I must look awfully	and on examination the rear of tho	made homeless by its destruction.	mile" & Hafinda a populiar abaym	town the unhanny kitten nearly in half
LABELS, &C., &C., &C	&c., &c., opposite J. A. Brown's Mammoth Hardware store. #3 Watches neatly repaired and warranted. Huntingdon, Sept 18, 1867-6m	like him, but I ain't Jones, and more'n	I building was found burning. When	The scene in Mercer street was	in regarding all the almanage of the	an triad wown hast to null out han tail
CALL AND EXAMINE SPECIMENS OF WORK.	Huntingdon, Sept 18, 1807-0m	that, you mustn't call me Jones. I	the fact became known, a scene of great	searcely less wonderful than that in	vear that treats of Gremedy for colic "	by the roots? Tell me that and you
LEWIS' BOOK. STATIONERY & MUSIC STORE.		hain't got a wife nor babies either; but	with of the browless and	Broadway. From the Spring street	iniants teetning, chicken pox, nursing,
······································	A SPECIALTY.	this are get and me is going to online	rush of the boarders and guests of the	cutrance to the Prescott House there	sore month measels be And though	TTomo more normalized the law of
NOTICE TO ALL.	⊿—s. tear a 1,005 terra (100 k 11 0) 	and then you can talk about my wife,	ware almost choked up by the daries	formed a distracted crowd of women, and as timid men. Dress, unless that	the urchin won't wear shoes for	a table, or to the banisters, when they
	I TIDAD AND THILL LORGE THE CHART OF	land I wouldn't wonday but what in	wore almost choked up by the neeing	and as timed inch. Dress, unless that	months to come Pe daily examined	the second se
HILL STREET MARKET.	A LARGE AND WELL ASSORTED STOCK OF
	LADIES' AND GENTS'	babies, too; but you musn't call me
OPPOSITE THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK.	DADIES AND OBUIS	Jones 1"	in still maring forestly and it is formed	from the cutting blast of the winter's	caliskin. Well, let the happy parents	sulky and sullen, with a book in your
C NORREGUN	TITENTSTITNA GOODS	This retort brought forth vociferous
G. MORRISON respectfully in-	FURNISHING GOODS,	laughter from the spectators, and it	i tuato boyorari autoronari bununings win	fored is money group. This get these	Dies." But While loving and tending	ing an housin vain to got a mord out hat he continues the meat market business in all its va-	AT REDUCED PRICES,	also brought blushes to the face of the
ous branches, and will keep constantly on hand	AT REDUCED PRICES,		Who Museum proper comprised Ner	the observer. The dens that surround Morcer, Greene, Wooster, sent forth	mother not to forget that while she is	rascally knuckles into the nose of one
Fresh Beef, Pork, Pudding and Sausago, salt Beef and Pork, Canned Fruit and Vegetables,	Just received at	"Ab, Jones," said Gregg, you'll re-	520 and 511 Preadmost and man	their representatives dissolute men	devoting herson to sour baby, she	of your schooltellows for a marble (
Spices of all kinds, Catsups and Spuces, Teas, Soaps, Cheese, Salt Lard, & c, & c.,		gret this in the future. I pity your	od such after the destruction of the	and abandoned women. The ribald joke was here the loudest. Barnum	must not neglect to give a struy, lov-	Did you never needlessly quarrel with RUDOLPII'S	wife and this poor girl."			by father	the girl that dearly loved you, and
All of which he will continue to sell at reasonable prices The highest prices paid for hides and tallow. Thomas Colder, at Alexandria, and March & Bro., at Coffee Run,	TEMPLE OF FASEIION	"So, Mr. Harper, your real name is			Faithfully Yours,	whose heart was pierced by your un-
Colder, at Alexandria, and March & Bro., at Coffee Run,	I BUILDE OF FROMUON	Jones, is it? and you've been fooling me, have you? Well, we ain't spliced	tions of the police and citizons but	iee Mermaid, the woolly horse, afford-		kindness, to gratify your temper and the my agents to purchase at their places. Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of	LADIES' DEPARTMENT.	yet, and I don't think we shall be very		ed subjects for the least objectionable	-Rochester Union.	show your power? Did you never	•
R. G. MORRISON. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867.		anon " antich the study and have average		sneer.		nake your wife miserable, and afraid to look at you? Did you never thump
	In this department, which will at all times receive my strict attention, I have a well assorted display of	Acabed free	cases of stuffed animals, the electrical	Mr. Barnum's Museum, which occu.	A WAR INCIDENT During Price's	your child for the tricks you have of-
OOD NEWS FOR MOTHERS.	•	"Jane, Jane!" said Harper, "don't	machine and a small proportion of the	pied the site of the new Herald build-	raid into Missouri in 1864, a skirmish	ten performed yourself, oh? Tell me
Mothers, are you oppressed with anxiety for your little as? Are your Alumbers and hearts broken by their ies? Do your anwake in the morning unrofershed and ap- rehensive? If so, procure at once a bottle of Dr. Loou's aftant Remedy and you will have no more weary hours watching and anxiety.	Dress Trimmings, Cloak and Sacque Trim- mings, Dress Buttons, Gloves, Vails, Zephyr Knit Shawls, Nublas, Hoods, Sontags, Iand- kerchiels, Fall Hats, Hat and Bonnet Frunes,		animale ware got out Mr Barnum's	ling, was burned down July 13, 1865.	t = 1
ies? Do you awake in the morning unrofreshed and ap-	Knit Shawls, Nubias, Hoods, Sontags, Hand-	ain't a darned drop of Jones blood in	loss may be estimated at probably reliensive? If so, procure at once a bottle of Dr. Leon's	Velvot Ribbons. Corsets, Hosiery, and latest				Confederates was left on the ground	gross.
watching and auxiety.	Velvot Ribbons. Corsets, Hosiery, and latest style Sacques from $5 to $30.	Atthe mount Taff Taslenon Dill	surance, as Mr. Barnum resides out of	energetic Barnum puonsneu his pro-	dencenenaly wounded in the near-	8
R. LEON'S INFANT REMEDY.	GENTS' DEPARTMENT.				While in this condition Miss Sarah J.	is likely, but you are silent and char-
The short the test of money Themanula of money and		of course, their attention was called to	The persons who slept in the building	very short time anorwards ne opened	Smith, a school teacher in the vicinity	is his of an area with in antionnoil
Ins stood the test of years. Thousands of nurses and nothers bear witness that it never fails to give relief if	Hats and Caps, all styles, from 50 certs to $10, Shirts, Drawers, Gloves, Neck Ties, Col-	Thatpet by his loud tailing. They	escaped in their night clothes, and lost			Toll you the same things of another.
sed in season. It is a mild, yet sure and speedy cure for	lars, Hostery, and every article kept in a	stepped up to him, and said-	all their wearing apparel and other		woulded man, buy wone up to min	and what will YOU SAY LUOD (YOU use stood the test of years. I accounties of nurses and nothers beer willness that it nover fails to give relief if resed in season. It is a mild, yet sure and speedy cure for Jolk, Oramps and Windy Falas, and is invaluable for all complaints incident to Teething. Sold by Druggiets throughout the United States. Ad-	first class Furnishing Store.	"Why, Jones, what is all this fuss	property.	perior to the first. A new and commo-	and stanched his wounds, probably	will be virtuously indignant and justly	• tress all orders to	By making my business a specialty, I hope to meet with such patronage from the public as will enable me	about?"		dious theatro was built on the year let	saving his life. She remained with	sovere. You will try to deceive your.
ZIEGLER & SMITH.	to keep continually on hand a large and well selected	This was more than Harper could	as the Chinese Assembly Rooms, and were valued at $40,000. The owner	A short time affarwards he purchased	him until near nightfall, when he re-	self, and "thank heaven you have nov-
SOLE PROPRIETORS, 2.27-1y No. 137 Nth. Third Street, Philad'a.	to keep continually on hand a large and well selected stock of first class goods. Whilst keeping up to the fushion in overy atticle, I will also sell cheaper than the	stand. He loaped upon a seat.	and insurance could not be ascertained.		quested her to leave, as his compan-	er done the like." But there are those cneapest.	"Now," said he, my "name is not	The police of the Eighth, Fourteenth,	was constantly adding rare and strange	ions would probably como at night	you cannot deceive, and before whom
OTTUEDIG WAGIT DOWNED I	ttr to bitcher her
DILVER'S WASH PHWDER! 1	W. P. RUDOLPH, Opposite Leister's New Building.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that	and Riftoanth Proginate mana present	articles.	and take him away. It not, she would	you could not, for very shame, deny
SILVER'S WASH POWDER!	W. P. RUDOLPH, Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is."	and Fifteenth Precincts were present	al 01010D.	find him there in the morning, living	it. If of the male part of the commu-
SAVES TIME TABOD MONEY	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and	in full force.	Nearly the whole of these are lost.	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY.	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1807. TO THEFT R. ADIES	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and	in full force. The collection of animals belonging	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon-	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1807. TO THEFT R. ADIES	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and	in full force. The collection of animals belonging	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way.
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon-	Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THEFT I. ADIES W. B. ZEICLER	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested	The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Amburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky.	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity; you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet-
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon-	Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THEFT I. ADIES W. B. ZEICLER	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Amburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the con-	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer	find him there in the morning, hving or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was pose.	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others though all court the re-
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon-	Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THEFT I. ADIES W. B. ZEICLER	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Anburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the com- try. The collection was not particu-	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gergeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked	find him there in the morning, hving or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern-	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THELE: L.ADIES , W. B. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, where he has pur- chased a large stock of guoda almost	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed	The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Amburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith know nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago,	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity; you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth that others may profit (and
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH,	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THELE: L. A.DIERS , W. B. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, where he has pur- chased a large stock of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Amburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns.	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times says, Miss	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way." Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemists and Wholesale Druggists,	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THELE: L. A.DIERS , W. B. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, where he has pur- chased a large stock of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in-	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Anburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh-	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity; you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth that others may profit (and	·
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemists and Wholesule Druggists,	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1857. TO THETER RADIESS . W. B. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphin, where he has pur- classed a large stock of goods atmost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Fance and plain Dress Thimmings, Ladies' Under Garmenty, Version Versis and Dranarg. Corests. Balmich	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. 'We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Anburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Broadway	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad-	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults.
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemists and Wholesule Druggists, NOV.27.13 No. 137 Nth. Third Street, Philada,	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THELE L.ADIERS . W. B. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphin, where he has pur- chased a large stock of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Fance and plain Dross Timmings, Ladies' Under's garmenty, Morino Vesis and Drawrs, Corsets, Balmo- rub. Hoon Skirts, Shawis, Scare, Hoolt, Muit	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced."	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Anburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Broadway and Houston streets, and that he in-	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times' says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borbood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in-	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults.
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERTWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemiets and Wholesale Druggists, ov.27.1y No. 137 Nth. Third Street, Philads, TO THE LADIES.	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THELE L.ADIERS . W. B. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphin, where he has pur- chased a large stock of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Fance and plain Dross Timmings, Ladies' Under's grumently, Morino Vests and Drawrs, Corsets, Balmo- riet, Hoog Skirks, Stawies, Scaries, Hold- f vations styles and patterns, Ladies' and Children's Stuckings of all styles and colors,	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced."	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Anburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring to the Central Park Commission at $100,000, and was refused though a	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Broadway and Houston streets, and that he in- tended to commence the crection of a	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in- forming her that she was named in the	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults."
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemiets and Wholesale Druggists, nov.27-Jy No. 137 Nth. Third Street, Philads, TO THE LADIES. The best associment of	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THELE L.ADIERS . W. B. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphin, where he has pur- chased a large stock of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Fance and plain Dross Timmings, Ladies' Under's grumently, Morino Vests and Drawrs, Corsets, Balmo- riet, Hoog Skirks, Stawies, Scaries, Hold- f vations styles and patterns, Ladies' and Children's Stuckings of all styles and colors,	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced."	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Anburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the coun- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring to the Central Park Commission at $100,000, and was refused, though a short time afterwards a much larger	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Broadway and Honston streets, and that he in- tended to commence the creation of a new museum very soon. The disaster	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.) Times says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in- forming her that she was named in the will of the deceased as the legates of fifty theusand dollars, in consideration	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults."	·
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemists and Wholesale Druggists, nov.27.1y No. 137 Nth. Third Street, Philada, TO THE LADIES. The best associment of	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THELF: L.A.DIERS . W. E. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladles of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, where he has pur- chased a large stock of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladles' Furnishing Goods, Fauc and plain Dress Timmings, Ladles' Under' garmenty, Morino Vests and Drawrs, Corsets, Balmo- rict, Hood Skirks, Stawis, Scarie, Hood, Kuit of various styles and patterns, Ladles' and Children's Stockings of all styles and colors, Alvo, Dress Goods, Prints, Delaines, Pinids, Al- pac.ex, Oinghams, Bryn and Bleached Mus- lins, dc.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, allas Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced." EDT Well, Jim, how did you make it down South?" "First-rate. Made plenty of money." "What did you do	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Anburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the coun- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring to the Central Park Commission at $100,000, and was refused, though a short time afterwards a much larger sum was offered in Boston, but declin-	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole hord of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Broadway and Houston streets, and that he in- tended to commence the erection of a new museum very soon. The disaster to day will only inspire the indomita.	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times' says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in- forming her that she was named in the will of the deceased as the legates of fifty thousand dollars, in consideration	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults.
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemists and Wholesale Druggists, nov.27-19 No.137 Nth. Third Street, Philada, TO THE LADIES. The best assortment of PLLLIPTIC SKIETS, Inst received this day from New York and for rate at the MARCH & BRO.	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1857. TO THETER READIESS Would respectfully inform the Ladies of funntingion and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphin, where he has pur- classed a large stock of goods atmost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Fance and plain Dreass Trimmings, Ladies' Under germenty, Mori Newsland Dreases, Cortes, Balmi- r, The Stockings of all styles and colors, Alico, Dreas, Bolyn and Bleached Mes- ins, Ac. Gents' Undershirts, Drawers, and Stockings.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. 'We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced." ED" Well, Jim, how did you make it down South?" "First-rate. Made plenty of money." "What did you do with it?" "Laid it out in houses and	The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Amburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring to the Central Park Commission at $100,000, and was refused, though a short time afterwards a much larger sum was offered in Boston, but declin- ed by the proprietors, as the summer	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Breadway and Houston streets, and that he in- tended to commence the erection of a new museum very soon. The disaster to day will only inspire the indomita- ble manager to hasten his intended	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in- forming her that she was named in the will of the decoased as the legatee of fifty theusand dollars, in consideration of her having saved the life of his	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way." Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults."	·
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemists and Wholesale Druggists, av.27.1y No.137 Nth. Third Street, Philads, TO THE LADIES. The best assortment of DILLITTTC SKIETS; hist receired this day from New York and for rate at the MM. MARCH & BRO. A splendid assortment of	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THELF: L.A.DIERS . W. E. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladles of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, where he has pur- chased a large stock of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladles' Furnishing Goods, Fauc and plain Dress Timmings, Ladles' Under' garmenty, Morino Vests and Drawrs, Corsets, Balmo- rict, Hood Skirks, Stawis, Scarie, Hood, Kuit of various styles and patterns, Ladles' and Children's Stockings of all styles and colors, Alvo, Dress Goods, Prints, Delaines, Pinids, Al- pac.ex, Oinghams, Bryn and Bleached Mus- lins, dc.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced." #D""Well, Jim, how did you make it down South?" "Firstrate. Made plenty of money." "What did you do with it?" "Laid it out in houses and lots." "Where?" "Every place I	The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Amburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring to the Central Park Commission at $100,000, and was refused, though a short time afterwards a much larger sum was offered in Boston, but declin- ed by the proprietors, as the summer	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Broadway and Houston streets, and that he in- tended to commence the erection of a new museum very soon. The disaster to day will only inspire the indomita- ble manager to hasten his intended enterprise.	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times' says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in- forming her that she was named in the will of the deceased as the legates of fifty thousand dollars, in consideration of her having saved the life of his nephew and only heir, the H. C. Mc- Donald named in connection with the	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults."
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemiets and Wholesale Druggists, nov.27-Jy No. 137 Nth. Third Street, Philada, TO THE LADIES. The best assortment of SILTIE TTC SKIETS, MM. MARCI & BRO. A splendid assortment of LADIES' DRESS GOODS,	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THELE LAADIES , W. E. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladles of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, where he has pur- chased a large stock of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladles' Furnishing Goods, Fauc and plain Dress Timmings, Ladles' Under' germenty, Morino Vests and Drawrs, Corsets, Balmo- riet, Hoog skirts, Stawks, Scark, Hood, Kuit of various styles and pratterns, Ladles' and Children's Stockings of all styles and colors, Alto, Dress Goods, Prints, Delaines, Pinids, Al- pac.ex, Gioghams, Bhyn and Bleached Mus- lins, 4. Gents' Undershirts, Drawers, and Stockings. Altgoods sold at the lowest cosh prices, and as cheap as the cheapest.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced." EST"Well, Jim, how did you make it down South?" "First-rate. Made plenty of mongy." "What did you do with it?" "Laid it out in houses and lots." "Where?" "Every place I have been where there wore any."	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Amburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring to the Contral Park Commission at $100,000, and was refused, though a short time afterwards a much larger sum was offered in Boston, but declin- ed by the proprietors, as the summer travelling season was about to begin.	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Broadway and Houston streets, and that he in- tended to commence the erection of a now museum very soon. The disaster to day will only inspire the indomita- ble manager to hasten his intended enterprise.	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in- forming her that she was named in the will of the deceased as the legates of fifty thousand dollars, in consideration of her having saved the life of his nephew and only heir, the H. C. Mc- Donald-named in connection with the	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults. Ber-Printers' devils are generally great ladies men, notwithet, anding they have a very bad name. Some time ago one of those hard' named fellows and his lady-leve were taking an ev- ening stroll, and as they were walk- ing along contained the source the source of the sou
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemiets and Wholesale Druggists, nov.27-1y No.137 Nth. Third Street, Philada, TO THE LADIES. The best associment of ELLIPTICS KIERTS, MARCH & BRO. A splendid assortment of LADIES' DRESS GOODS, FANCY TRIMMINGS AND BUTTONS	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THELFL READIES Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, where he has pur- classed a large stock of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Fauc and plain Dress Timmings, Ladies' Under's gruments, Morino Vests and Drawrs, Corsets, Balmo- rich, Hoog Skirks, Stawis, Scarles, Hold, Kuit of various styles and pratterns, Ladies' and Children's Stockings of all styles and colors, Alto, Diess Goods, Prints, Delaines, Pinids, Al- pac.ex, Onephanns, Buyen and Bleached Mus- lins, &C Gouts' Undershirts, Drawers, and Stockings.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, allas Harper, followed her. 'We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced." BERWEIL, Jim, how did you make it down South?" "First-rate. Made plenty of money." "What did you do with it?" "Laid it out in houses and lots." "Whére?" "Every place I have been where there were any."	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Anburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring to the Central Park Commission at $100,000, and was refused, though a short time afterwards a much larger sum was offered in Boston, but declin- ed by the proprietors, as the summer travelling season was about to begin, offering better inducements than the proposed sale. A very extended tour	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Broadway and Houston streets, and that he in- tended to commence the erection of a new museum very soon. The disaster to-day will only inspire the indemita- ble manager to hasten his intended enterprise.	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times' says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in- forming her that she was named in the will of the deceased as the legates of fifty thousand dollars, in consideration of her having saved the life of his nephew and only heir, the H. C. Mc- Donald-named in connection with the incident of 1864.	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults. Sor-Printers' devils are generally great ladies men, notwith thand they have a very bad name. Some time ago one of these hard named fellows and his lady-love were taking an ev- ening stroll, and as they were walk- ing along chatting briskly upon the numerous topics of the day, she sud-
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemists and Wholesale Druggists, and Wholesale Druggists, DOUGHT, No. 137 Nth. Third Street, Philada, TO THE LADIES. The best assortment of SILLIPTIC SKIETST, instructored this day from New York and for rate at the MARCH & BRODS, FANCY TRIMMINGS AND BUTTONS Dast received this day from New York and for sale chemp	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TCO THELES LAADIERS , W. B. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, where he has pur- chased a large stock of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Fance and plain Dross Timmings, Ladies' Under's grumently, Morino Vesis and Drawrs, Corsets, Balmo- ries, Hoog Skirks, Stawks, Scarks, Hood, Kuit of various styles and patterns, Ladies' and Children's Stockings of all styles and colors, Allo, Dress Goods, Prints, Delanes, Pinids, Al- pac.eu, Oinghams, Bhoyn and Bleached Mus- lins, G. Gents' Undershirts, Drawers, and Stockings. All goods rold at the lowest cosh prices, and as cheap as the cheepest. OPPOSITE THE FIRSY NATIONAL, BANKC, Huntungdon, Nov. 6, 1867.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced." Der" Well, Jim, how did you make it down South?" "First-rate. Made plenty of money." "What did you do with it?" "Laid it out in houses and lots." "Where?" "Every place I have been where there wore any." "Coffee houses and lots of whiskey."	and inteenth Precincts were present in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Amburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring to the Central Park Commission at $100,000, and was refused, though a short time afterwards a much larger sum was offered in Boston, but declin- ed by the proprietors, as the summer travelling season was about to begin, offering better inducements than the proposed sale. A very extended tour had been plaaned for this summer, and	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole hord of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Breadway and Houston streets, and that he in- tended to commence the crection of a new museum very soon. The disaster to day will only inspire the indomita- ble manager to hasten his intended enterprise. BCD Never hesitate to open an ac- count with a pugilist. You can rely on it that it will not be long before he	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in- forming her that she was named in the will of the decensed as the legates of fifty thousand dollars, in consideration of her having saved the life of his nephew and only heir, the H. C. Mc Donald named in connection with the incident of 1864.	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way." Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults."	·
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemists and Wholesale Druggists, av.27-19 No.137 Nth. Third Street, Philada, TO THE LADIES. The best assortment of SILLIPTIC SKIRTS, dist received this day from New York and for sale at the MARCH & BKOPS, PANCY TRIMMINGS AND BUTTONS Dast received this day from New York and for sale chemp at [may7] WM. MARCH & BRO.	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1857. TO THELES REALIZED Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, where he has pur- chased a large stock of goods atmost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Fance and plain Deress Trimmings, Ladies' Under germenty, Morino Vests and Printers, Holder, Kinter rick, Hoog Skirks, Shawlas Certes, Halmes' nick thoory site head plaines, Prints, All- ger, Courte Underskings on all styles and colors, All goods sold at the lowest cosh prices, and as cheep as the cheepest. Optice The FIRST NATIONAL, BANKE, Huntingdon, Nov. 6, 1867.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, allas Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced." BER Well, Jim, how did you make it down South?" "First-rate. Made plenty of money." "What did you do with it?" "Laid it out in houses and lots." "Where?" "Every place I have been where there were any." "Coffee houses and lots of whiskey."	and Fitteenth Freehets were present in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Amburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very completo, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring to the Central Park Commission at $100,000, and was refused, though a short time afterwards a much larger sum was offered in Boston, but declin- ed by the proprietors, as the summer travelling season was about to begin, offering better inducements than the proposed sale. A very extended tour had been planned for thissummer, and arrangements had been made to show	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole hord of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Breadway and Houston streets, and that he in- tended to commence the crection of a new museum very soon. The disaster to day will only inspire the indomita- ble manager to hasten his intended enterprise. BCD Never hesitate to open an ac- count with a pugilist. You can rely on it that it will not be long before he	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times 'say's, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in- forming her that she was named in the will of the deceased as the legates of fifty thousand dollars, in consideration of her having saved the life of his nephew and only heir, the H. C. Mc- Donald named in connection with the incident of 1864.	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults." Der Printers' devils are generally great ladies men, notwithet, adding they have a very bad name. Some time ago one of those hard named fellows and his lady-love were taking an ev- oning stroll, and as they were walk- ing along chatting briskly upon the numerous topics of the day, she sud- denly caught his hand, and looking.	·
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemists and Wholesale Druggists, av.27-19 No.137 Nth. Third Street, Philada, TO THE LADIES. The best assortment of SILLIPTIC SKIRTS, dist received this day from New York and for sale at the MARCH & BKOPS, PANCY TRIMMINGS AND BUTTONS Dast received this day from New York and for sale chemp at [may7] WM. MARCH & BRO.	Opposite Leister's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TCO THELES LAADIERS , W. B. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphia, where he has pur- chased a large stock of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Fance and plain Dross Timmings, Ladies' Under's grumently, Morino Vesis and Drawrs, Corsets, Balmo- ries, Hoog Skirks, Stawks, Scarks, Hood, Kuit of various styles and patterns, Ladies' and Children's Stockings of all styles and colors, Allo, Dress Goods, Prints, Delanes, Pinids, Al- pac.eu, Oinghams, Bhoyn and Bleached Mus- lins, G. Gents' Undershirts, Drawers, and Stockings. All goods rold at the lowest cosh prices, and as cheap as the cheepest. OPPOSITE THE FIRSY NATIONAL, BANKC, Huntungdon, Nov. 6, 1867.	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced." EST Well, Jim, how did you make it down South?" "First-rate. Made plenty of money." "What did you do with it?" "Laid it out in houses and lots." "Where?" "Every place I have been where there were any." "Coffee houses and lots of whiskey." het. Pleasure is seldom found where it is anneht. Our brightest blazes of	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Amburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring to the Contral Park Commission at $100,000, and was refused, though a short time afterwards a much larger sum was offered in Boston, but declin- ed by the proprietors, as the summer travelling season was about to begin, offering better inducements than the proposed sale. A very extended tour had been planned for this summer, and arrangements had been made to show the collection throughout the country.	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gorgeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Breadway and Houston streets, and that he in- tended to commence the creation of a new museum very soon. The disaster to day will only inspire the indomita- ble manager to hasten his intended enterprise. Ben Never hesitate to open an ac- count with a pugilist. You can rely on it that it will not be long before he "squares off."	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) 'Times' says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in- forming her that she was named in the will of the deceased as the legates of fifty thousand dollars, in consideration of her having saved the life of his nephew and only heir, the H. C. Mc- Donald named in connection with the incident of 1864.	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults." ESP-Printers' devils are generally great ladies men, notwith that and is lady-leve were taking an ev- ening stroll, and as they were walk- ing along chatting briskly upon the numerous topics of the day, she sud- denly caught his hand, and looking smilingly into his face, asked: "Do
SAVES TIME, LABOR, MONEY. Makes Washing a Pastime and Mon- day a Festival. SOLD EVERYWHERE. TRY IT! Address all orders to the Manufacturers ZIEGLER & SMITH, Chemists and Wholesale Druggists, and Wholesale Druggists, DOUGHT, No. 137 Nth. Third Street, Philada, TO THE LADIES. The best assortment of SILLIPTIC SKIETST, instructored this day from New York and for rate at the MARCH & BRODS, FANCY TRIMMINGS AND BUTTONS Dast received this day from New York and for sale chemp	Opposite Leiste's New Building. Huntingdon, Oct. 30, 1867. TO THELES R. A.DIEES , W. E. ZEICLER Would respectfully inform the Ladies of Huntingdon and the country generally, that he has just returned from New York and Philadelphin, where he has pur- chased a large stork of goods almost EXCLUSIVELY FOR LADIES AND CHILDREN. Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Fanc and plain Dress Timmings, Ladies' Under gurmently, Morino Vests and Drawors, Corests, Balmo- rids, Hoog skirts, Shawis, Scaris, Hood, Kuit of various sit les and patterns, Ladies' and Children's Stockings of all styles and colors, Aleo, Dress Goods, Prints, Delaines, Pinids, Al- pacars, Oughams, Brym and Bleached Mus- lins, C. Gourds Undershirts, Drawers, and Stockings. Altgoods sold at the burset cash prices, and as cheap as the cheepest. DPPOSITE THEFIRST NATIONAL BANK. Huntingdon, Nov. 6, 1867. DEST BLIEACHED M U S L I N Dalways on hund at CUNNINGHAM & CARMON'S .	Jones, an' I can lick the fellow that says it is." By this time we had got to II., and our friend Fred came into the car and got Harper to keep quiet. The girl that wouldn't be "spliced" requested Fred to help her on the train that was going back to S., which he did, and the notorious Jones, alias Harper, followed her. We learned, afterward, that he proved himself to be Bill Harper in- stead of Bill Jones, and he and his gal Jane got "spliced." ED="Well, Jim, how did you make it down South?" "First-rate. Made plenty of money." "What did you do with it?" "Laid it out in houses and lots." "Whéro?" "Every place I have been where there were any." "Coffee houses and lots of whiskey." RED -Pleasure is soldom found where it is sought. Our brightest blazes of	in full force. The collection of animals belonging to Messrs. Van Amburg & Co., Mr. Barnum being one-third owner, was unquestionably the finest in the conn- try. The collection was not particu- larly noted for its size, but was very complete, and embraced some very rare specimens. Several additions had been recently made. It is understood that the entire lot was offered last spring to the Contral Park Commission at $100,000, and was refused, though a short time afterwards a much larger sum was offered in Boston, but declin- ed by the proprietors, as the summer travelling season was about to begin, offering better inducements than the proposed sale. A very extended tour had been planned for this summer, and arrangements had been made to show the collection throughout the country.	Nearly the whole of these are lost. A week ago a new stage was built in the theatre expressly to bring out a gergeous spectacle which has been some time in preparation, but the cul- mination this morning, was a sublimer yet sadder spectacle than was looked for, with red and yellow fire enough to fit out an whole herd of white fawns. It is well known that Mr. Barnum owns the lot on the corner of Broadway and Houston streets, and that he in- tended to commence the erection of a new museum very soon. The disaster to day will only inspire the indomita- ble manager to hasten his intended enterprise. Men Never hesitate to open an ac- count with a pugilist. You can rely on it that it will not be long before he "squares off."	find him there in the morning, living or dead. He said that he was known by the name of Tucker, but that his real name was H. C. McDonald, and that he was from Louisville, Kentucky. Next morning McDonald was gone, and Miss Smith knew nothing concern- ing him afterward. A few days ago, the Glasgow (Mo.,) Times says, Miss Smith, who still resides in the neigh- borhood, received a letter from the ad- ministrator of H. C. McDonald, Sr., in- forming her that she was named in the will of the deceased as the legates of fifty thousand dollars, in consideration of her having saved the life of his nephew and only heir, the H. C. Mc- Donald-named in connection with the incident of 1864.	it. If, of the male part of the commu- nity, you have done all that has been described; if the "softer sez," you have done as much only in a different way. Who has not done it? Who is there bet- ter than others, though all court the re- putation of being so? Better confess the truth, that others may profit (and may be ourselves if we are not too far gone) by the exposure of our faults." ESP-Printers' devils are generally great ladies men, notwith that and is lady-leve were taking an ev- ening stroll, and as they were walk- ing along chatting briskly upon the numerous topics of the day, she sud- denly caught his hand, and looking smilingly into his face, asked: "Do	