Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been itequently requested to connect my mane with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, and I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hooft in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hooft in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hooft in the convention that, for general debitty of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

removed, the undivided power of the government would fall into the hands of the party convicting him during the course of the coming political campaign. In view of the unreconstructed position of the Southern States, many party men boldly declare such a course to be an absolute necessity for the safety of the country. And they regard what they are pleased to suppose the ultimate safety of the nation to require, as rising in its demands above any strict operation of judicial logic. To fail to convict the "illustrious respondent," they argue, would insure the downfall of the party, and that would insure the downfall of the party, and that would insure ty in the land.
