A concerns officer was once askod to execute a writ against a Quaker.
On arriving at his house, he saw the Quaker's wife, who, in reply to the inquiry whether her husband was at home, said he was, at the same time requested him to be seated, and her husband would speedily see his sufferage, but that was withheld ontil it cood be definitely ascertained whether there is a majority up the nigger votes or not. Ef a majority up the niggers did reely vote the Democratic ticket, it was decided that they shood be recognized as our ekals—of not, we'd see cm d—d fust.

BEAUTY. - Emeline Palmer says :hat is beauty, after a makes it for itself. You think Smith's lady-love raw-boned and hard-featured He calls her a "magnificent woman," and wonders what you see in your little angel with her baby face and stature. So it is the world over; and yet, we would each give something to be beautiful after our own fashion. How. the powders and lotions which are to bestow upon poor bilions mortal's skins of satin and snow, and the hair-dyes and pomades, and cosmetics of all sorts, sell. we need not mention to prove the facts. In France, old ladies are even being made over, at the cost of half-their fortunes. Heaven keep me from ever catching a glimpse of one of those enameled, dyed and miserable old creatures after the renovation by the way. Yes. we all want to be beautiful: and, if only our ideas of beauty were what they should be, we might accomplish our desire easily. Meekness and love make all faces pleasant. Were we good we should be beautiful.

We all feel this. There are plain dren, have determined to have the features so charming with the spartempt was made to perform the opera-intolerable braying, especially toward morning, as to render sleep impossible
