Cholera pills: green apples.

A refreshing rain fell yesterday. Skating, it is said, will be better next January than it is now.

There are about four hundred guests at Bedford Springs.

Almost a dog-fight in the Diamond on Saturday.

Somebody says that lawyers belong to the files and are not to be taken out.

See change in the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad Schedule.

The building now being put up by Mr. S. Smith will be the largest in town.

National Hall had a good run on Saturday night to six o'clock.

Several more new houses going up in West Huntingdon, and board walks on every side.

Admired by everybody: the new styles of wood wall paper at Lewis' Book Store.

Carry a damp handkerchief, or a cabbage leaf, not a brick, in your hat these hot days.

It is said New York absorbs 20,000 kegs of soda water and 40,000 ditto of lager beer.

Will be in town next week: the few candidates for office and many of their friends.

Numerous berry hunters and fishing parties. They nearly all meet with success.

Going still higher: Grant and Colfax stock, and the number of new subscribers to the Globe.

We have plenty of room for more.

Miss Sailer of Altoona, the young lady who was shot by Markle, is in a fair way of recovery.

S. M. Woodcock, nominated for District Attorney by the Democracy of Blair, has tendered his resignation. It's just as well.

A rattlesnake, measuring over five feet in length, and sporting various rattles on his back, was killed in Centre county.

Fishers' mill commenced operations again on Thursday last. The new machinery works well.

Mr. Goodman, who was badly injured some weeks ago by the cars, was well pleased to see again on his feet a few days ago.

Quick sales and small profits. Another arrival of prime dried beef and sugar cured hams at Lewis' Family Grocery.

It is an interesting sight to see a young lady with both hands in soft dough and a morquio on the end of her nose.

Court commences next week. We expect to see a big crowd in town, and to receive the calls of many of our friends.

Some thieves stole about two hundred lbs. of meat from the smoke house of Mr. George Smouse, in Susque Spring twp., Bedford co.

A member of the Methodist church went here on his preacher on Friday last and was baptized in the Juniata.

A fire occurred in Oil City, Venango co., on Friday last, destroying $200,000 worth of property in houses and oil. Several hotels and stores were destroyed.

Several ladies had very valuable dresses ruined in consequence of a fire which broke out in the city of Ebersburg.

The delegate elections for the Republican Convention on Tuesday next will be held on next Saturday evening. Read the call of the Convention in to-day's paper.

Our Band was out in full blast on Saturday evening and gave the public the benefit of a round trot of excelsior music. Did it more time, boys, our people like it.

Local political convention will meet in Huntingdon next week. The Republican on Tuesday, and the Democratic on Wednesday. We hope both conventions will put up good tickets.

The citizens of our town were out en masse on Saturday evening last to see the lofty tumbling of a traveling top walker in front of the National Hall. It was a fine exhibition, of course.

The Local Accommodation east struck a cow on Tuesday afternoon last near the coal wharf above town, and killed the cow and wrecked the engine. The wreck was soon cleared away and the trains passed as usual.

A Democratic soldier had a dream on Sunday night. A good spirit asked him how he could vote against Grant. He didn't give him his answer, but perhaps he may yet feel like voting as he likes it.

The five spans of the Susquehanna bridge, near Harrisburg, that were destroyed by fire on the 17th ult., have been rebuilt on the original plan, and the train commenced running over it on Wednesday last.

Workmen are engaged in rebuilding and enlarging the Huntingdon dams. Piper's dam is also to be extended and the locks enlarged. We hope the dams will be repaired with a view to allowing shad, etc., to pass according to law.

It is stated that a general movement will be made in the next State Legislature to increase the pay of jurymen. This is very proper, as no set man serving in an official capacity, receive less money for services rendered than jurymen.

The fare on the Pennsylvania railroad has been reduced about one-half cent per mile to all persons purchasing tickets at the ticket office; all who pay in the cars will be required to pay the old rates. The reduction is about fourteen per cent.

The notice given of Nagency's cave in Mifflin county, has recalled attention to a much more extensive one in Tristler's Valley, in the same county, and preparations are being made to explore it. Isn't there danger of our sister county saving in some day?

The men employed at the coal wharf of the Pennsylvania railroad have demanded an increase of wages, and on Saturday they quit work, the Company being obliged to part on the following day. We understand that the men have been working for $35 per month, and they ask for $40.

The completion of the Conellville railroad from Conellville to Cumberland, in twenty months, is now regarded as absolutely certain. The gross cost will be about $1,000,000. The road will be not only to us, unless the Broad Top railroad by some means or other, made to run to Cumberland, which may or may not be the case at some future day.

An eight-hour-a-day man, on going home the other evening for his supper, found his wife sitting in her best clothes on the front porch, reading a volume of novels. "And how is this?" he exclaimed. "Where's my supper?" "I don't know," replied his wife, "I began to get breakfast at six o'clock this morning, and my eight hours ended at 2 p. m."

We would advise persons working about potatoes, to be very careful in handling the bugs that are often found on the vines. Within the past few weeks we have noticed quite a number of serious cases of poisoning caused by these insects, and in St. Paul, Minn., one lady who threw them into a stove inhaling the poisonous fumes, fell to the floor in an insensible condition and died in ten minutes.

The wheat crop of this county has all been harvested. The yield is thought to be a good one. The grass crop is excellent and the farmers have taken in a great deal during the past two weeks. If we only have a little more rain, the crops yet in the ground will also give a fair yield, and the farmers will be happy that year 1868 has brought a blessing to them.

We have received from S. W. Gehrt, of Centre, this county, three numbers of the Huntingdon Globe, dated respectively March 20, 1845, April 9, 1845, April 23, 1845. We will have occasion soon to reproduce some of the items of interest published in these numbers. Mr. L. G. Mytinger was the editor and publisher in those days, and the appearance of the paper convinces us that he knew how to do things.

The editor of the Lewistown Democrat says he went traveling recently and stopped at Gratton, West Virginia, over night, where he was villainously vile regurgitated a dollar some in his pocket-book, which he alleges was all the change he had. Perhaps he thinks now that some of those fellows down South are well reconstructing, but anyhow he ought to have known better than to be so far away from home with so much money.

A Dictionary of the Bible, Comprising its Antiquities, Biography, & Natural History with numerous Illustrations. Edited by Wm. Smith, L. L. D. Published by Messrs J. B. Burr & Co., Hartford, Connecticut.

No book has been issued from the American press for a long time that deserves so universal a circulation as this. It is edited by Dr. Smith of the London University, and is the most eminent lexicographer of the English speaking world. Having conceived the plan, he associated himself with over seventy of the most eminent scholars of this country and Europe, in all departments of Biblical learning and research, and prepared a comprehensive Bible Dictionary, which should embrace the results of Christian research and scholarship of centuries.

Having finished this great work, Dr. Smith then prepared an Abridgement, (the work being in three massive octavo volumes, was too large and costly for the public generally,) which should include all that is best adapted to the needs of Christian families and Sabbath school teachers. This is the work now re-published in this country whose title we have given, and we do not hesitate to say that it should go into every dwelling where there is any desire to read and study the Bible intelligently and with profit.

This invaluable work is now being sold by our young friend Frank M. Higgins of this place, who is studying for the Ministry at the Lewisburg College, and while he remains with us during the vacation, he expects to meet with the liberal patronage of the public of which we deem him in every way deserving. We have seen the book and can testify to its merits.

Pittsburg Female College. We once more call the attention of our readers to the claims of this really excellent institution. Its recent catalogue shows an attendance during the past year of three hundred and forty-seven young ladies, gathered from 12 States. Though but thirteen years have elapsed since it was first opened for the reception of pupils, it has already gained a national reputation and Pittsburg justly boasts of an institution which has no peer in the State and but few equals in the land. Its admirable location, on one of the most beautiful and quiet streets of the city, and yet within ten minutes walk of nearly every important point; its superb buildings; its unusually large, able and accomplished Faculty of twenty-two teachers; its unsurpassed facilities in all the solid and ornamental branches; its thorough training; its wholesome discipline, and withal, moderate prices, compared to all who have daughters to educate. This latter item is worthy of special notice. The charges are scarcely one half the amount established for private gain, but to meet a public want, and the single aim of all concerned has been to put a finished education, of the highest grade, within the reach of all worthy young ladies. The Fall term commences September 2. Send to Rev. C. P. Parsling, for a catalogue. Let his halls be crowded.

The Johnstown Accident. In the case of Gillis vs. the Penna. R.R. Co. which was tried before Judge Taylor at Ebersburg and taken up to the Supreme Court of this State, Justice Sharswood concluded the opinion of the court as follows: "However much to be lamented was the sad occurrence which occasioned this suit, and however much sympathy may be felt for those who were injured, and the families of those who lost their lives, we are of the opinion that the circumstances of the case were not such as to cast any pecuniary responsibility on the Railroad Company, and that the learned Judge below was therefore right in directing the jury to find a verdict for the defendants. Judgment affirmed.

A freight train west on the Penna. railroad ran off the track between Greencastle and Gettysburg, on Sunday night, and some five or six cars were wrecked. Two men who were stealing their way were buried in the wreck, but fortunately escaped serious injury. The next morning at Wilmore station the same train came in collision with the pusher of the local freight cars, which was on the western track, and the result was an serious injury to the engineer of the train, David Randolph, and the Bremen, John Flanagan, as well as the almost total demolition of four of the cars and the engine attached to the train. Both the injured men were taken to Altoona where they reside.

MARRIED. In Morrison, Illinois, June 30th, '68, by the Rev. George S. Young, Mr. B. F. STEWART, of Dixon, (formerly of Sinking Valley, Blair County, Pa.), and Miss GINEVRA G. PHILLIPS, of Dixon, Illinois.

DIED. July 18th, at 124 P. M., 1868, Mr. ALBERT HANCOCK, of Lillias A. Hamer, of Hannibal, Mo., formerly of Williamsburg, Blair County, Pa., after a protracted and painful siege of bronchial affection, resulting in consumption and death. Aged 41 years.

Mr. Hamer was a good, peaceable, and religiously minded man, who was well known here. He leaves behind him a wife, aged from 12 to 17, to mourn their loss; but their loss was evidently his gain, for though he desired to live for his wife and children, he was ever ready to "depart and go with Christ," which he felt to be his duty.

Many years ago he united with the M. E. Church in Pennsylvania, and during the few years of his life, he was not only gainful and resigned, but joyous and triumphant, knowing assuredly that though the earthly things he had, he had a "building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

Funeral services were held at the residence of his wife on Monday, July 20th, at 10 o'clock, A. M.
