It needed no Convention to nominate Grant-he was already the choice of the people. He and his brave comrades ended the war, and the people everywhere recognize him as the best man for the position of President, and they will try to elect him by a triumphant majority.

If Wade Hampton, the rebel General, wants to see Seymour and Blair elected because the Southern Confederacy will be recognized, Phil. Sheridan, the Union General, and a host beside, want to see Grant and Colfax elected, because the Union will he restored on a sure foundation.

The Journal & American editors | November 3, say they don't know any good service the Democracy ever had an opportunity to render to the country. They might as well say sinners never had an opportunity to repent.

When For- a more moderate tone and that the rest, Vance, and the other rebels in the prominent rebel leaders for the bake of New York Convention rallied to his prudence be kept somewhat in the support, it was no transitory emotion background. The Charleston Mercury that influenced them, but it was the expresses itself as follows: development of long years of friendship and good understanding. Mr. Seymour never was a hearty supportin the Constitution for the suppression of attempts at secession, and he persistently threw every obstruction in tho way of a vigorous and successful prosecution of the war. At the Convention of the Democrats held in Tweddle Hall, Albany, on the 21st of January, 1861, when the rebels were commencing their war for the destruction of the Union, Mr. Seymour made a speech in which he furiously assailed the men who were trying to save the Union, but had no words of condomnation for the traitors. He argued that successful coercion by the North was no less revolutionary than successful secession by the South. A few weeks after that meeting, Mr. Seymour declared to Judge C. H. Ruggles that he Shad read the Confederate Constitution, and it is preferable to the Federal Constitution. Now, why not avoid all trouble by ourselves adopting the not to appear in public as the advo-Confederate Constitution?" Thus was cates of Seymour and Blair, if we had Mr. Seymour in favor at that time of President. In 1862, when the people despaired of the success of the effort to put down treason from the inefficiency of M'Clellan and other officers of his character, Seymour ran for Governor of New York, and was elected. No one can forget the joy with which the rebels hailed his triumph. IF A HUMBUG.

But the cry
Is always humbug,
Men of science
Full of lies.

People know that liminents composed of Cayenne pepper, turpentine, hardslorn, ether, &c., will produce inflammation and pain. To purchase such trash to stop Pain and inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop Pean and inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop
Pean and inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop Pean and inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop leat; a dumb brute shaus the heat, and knows enough to wade in a pend of water, when wounded, to reduce, cool, and cure Inflammation and Fever.
Pimps and gamblers try to look honest, but folks can read the face too plainty. Some try to persuade the ignormat that pilis, physic, &c., cleanse the blood, purge the system, and do a hundred other things equally alsurd.
Everybody knows that it is false, and that no medicine can purify or increase a drop of blood. Food makes flood, bone, and muscle, and ye is 18th of Life. Every does of medicine swallowed is rejected, and hurried out of the system as quick as possible. It is an eneary; yes, a dendly foo. Constipation, ill health, and weakness, are the result of dosing, dosing, dosing the stemach.—
The iviting system has enough to do without working hosself to death in expelling and kicking out the pernicious neatrums poured down the threat. Food she wellear and plysic needs it; yan, asks for it. Let pill-macious neatrums poured down the threat.
