Gen. Grant and family were at Chicago on Saturday and Sunday on a visit to a brother.

"Pennsylvania is a doubtful State." It may be if Union Republican voters remain from the polls.

With Gen. Grant as President we would have a man who would know how to teach the rebels the allegiance they owe to the Government.

In 1860 the Southern fire-eaters threatened secession if they failed. In 1868 they threaten revolution if they succeed.

The Democratic-Legislative Conference met at Lewistown last week, and nominated John S. Miller of this county, and John Taylor of Mifflin county, to be beaten by Messrs. Brown and Martin.

Hon. D. J. Morrell has our thanks for an Almanac for 1869, the reading pages of which are devoted to interesting articles on American industry. The Almanac should have a general circulation.

The Vermont State election takes place to-day, Tuesday. John P. Page is the Republican candidate for Governor, and J. L. Edwards is his Democratic opponent. The Republican majority last year was 20,184.

The daily papers are filled with murders, assassinations, and crimes of all kinds—not alone confined to the Southern States. Bad men and women are to be found everywhere, and it seems that crime is on the increase.

We are gratified to learn that our candidate for County Commissioner, or Simon Wright, Esq., is considered by all men, Republicans and Democrats, as men acquainted with him, to be one of our best men for the position. County Commissioner is an important office—and we believe we are safe in saying that Squire Wright is just the kind of man the tax-payers want elected.

Going THROUGH THE MOTION.—The Democrats in putting Mr. Linton in nomination for Congress against Mr. Morrell can't expect to do more than go through the motion of voting for him. They don't expect to elect or come anywhere near an election. Mr. Linton is a very clever gentleman and made a popular member of the Legislature last year, but he can't go to Congress just yet.

Our Ticket Complete.

The Union Republican Representative Conference of this District met at Lewistown on Wednesday last and nominated the following gentlemen:

SAMUEL T. BROWN, of Huntingdon. AMOS H. MARTIN, of Mifflintown.

These gentlemen can be elected by handsome majorities if the Union Republican voters in the District give them a united support, and we know of no reasonable excuse for refusing to give them such support. Mr. Brown is known to be one of the best men in the District, honest, competent and worthy.

Mr. Martin is said to be an excellent man, very popular in his own county where he is best known. He has been elected to public positions two or three times in his county, and always ran ahead of his ticket, the best evidence that he is a good man.

Our ticket is now complete—and it is now the duty of every honest party man in the Union Republican ranks to go to work in earnest to secure its success by a handsome majority.

Some of the candidates were not the first choice of a number of our voters, but they were the successful applicants for nomination and they are now entitled to the support of every man who respects party organization and party nominations.

Anything short of an harmonious solid vote this fall will give room for "cutting" in future elections when the "outs" may be "in." A strong pull and a pull altogether will make the success of our whole county and district ticket easy. Look neither to the right nor the left, but go forward to victory with what party usage has given you.

Disappoint Them.

The Democrats are trying to make themselves believe that a large number of Republicans in this county will "cut" their ticket this fall. They count on running Mr. Miller and Mr. Africa far enough ahead of their party vote, with the assistance of Republicans, to elect them. Mr. Brown should have at least five hundred Republican majority in the District, and we believe that will be his majority if he is treated fairly, and as he should be by the Union Republican voters.

Capt. Neely's party majority should be not less than one thousand. He cannot be defeated. He is fully competent for the position—and worthy as a citizen, soldier, and party man. While Mr. Africa may be a good man, in every respect, we claim for Capt. Neely the same, and we cannot imagine why Democrats pretend to claim success in the face of a heavy party majority against them.

We would advise the Democratic candidates in this county not to expect much—they can get down easier after the returns begin to come in. They are very clever gentlemen, but they are on the wrong side of the fence with poles too short to knock down the perambulators. Grant, Colfax and Victory is the battle cry this fall—a party failure in October would not strengthen our cause in November.

ALL WORK TOGETHER.—The encouragement we are daily receiving from active friends throughout the county, makes our labor for the success of the Union Republican party cheerful and much easier than it would be if party friends were less active. At no time within twenty-three years of the existence of the GLOBE has it been more liberally supported by the people of the county. Union Republicans must approve of our course or they would not so earnestly work with us. We desire to work, and we desire to have cheerful and willing hands, and heads and hearts, to work with us—the more numerous the better—and the more zealously all work together, the more complete will be our victory over all opposition. Our numerous friends here our thanks for their assistance.

No Union Republican voter in Huntingdon county should fail to be active in the support of the whole ticket for the October election. A vote lost by the Republicans for the October election will be so much lost in the weight of public opinion on the side of Grant and Colfax. Old Huntingdon must do her duty—poll every vote solid—refuse to "cut" or "stretch" to accommodate Democrats who will stick to their ticket from beginning to end. Remember, Republicans, you cannot be defeated in any one of your candidates if you stand together and prevent your ranks from being broken. In Union there is strength—in union there is victory, and a cheerful victory in October will influence a heavy majority for Grant and Colfax in November.

Work, work, work.—"blowing" won't win. See your neighbors—see that they are not deceived by the Democrats—see that they are supplied with at least one good Union Republican paper. Give them something to read and think over. One good live county paper is worth a cart load of "donments." Work with the fresh political news and arguments. Work, work, work—every voter can work and help to swell the majority in Huntingdon county, and save the State from going for the Vallandigham Democracy. Work, work, to the full extent of your abilities and influence, and the result will be satisfactory to every true Union man.

Go to work, Union men. Do not let victory be lost by inactivity.

Congressional Conference.

HUNTINGDON, PA., August 20, 1868. The Congressional Conference of the 17th District of Pennsylvania, composed of the counties of Cambria, Blair, Huntingdon and Mifflin, met here, this day, at the residence of Mr. Green, of Huntingdon county, President, and Samuel M. Camant, of Blair county, Secretary.

The following named gentlemen appeared as conferees, viz: Cambria county—George Fritz, C. T. Roberts, James Conard. Mifflin county—Abm. Ruthrook, A. P. Gibbony, Augustus Broxell.

Huntingdon county—John Scott, S. Alfies Green, Hayes Hamilton. Blair county—Samuel M. Camant, Jas. Conard, Peter Van Devender.

Resolved, That the Union Republican party is in favor of paying the debt of the Government according to the letter and spirit of the law under which it was created, in opposition to the idea of substituting any promise of the Government for another.

Resolved, That, to enable the Government to do this, American Labor must be protected against the competition of low-priced foreign labor; our Domestic Industry properly encouraged; the Internal Revenue system so adjusted and administered as to meet the interest of the people, and be the principal of the annual debt, and if this be done the debt can be paid and the national honor sustained.

Resolved, That the power of Congress to impose terms upon rebellious States before their re-admission to the privileges of States in the Union must be maintained, and any attempt by an executive officer to treat the Reconstruction Acts as void will of itself be equivalent to a new rebellion.

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the course of our representative in Congress, Hon. D. J. Morrell, and in again presenting him to the voters of the District, we present a man whose eminent business qualifications, industry, practical sagacity and sound patriotism, and his personal knowledge of the wants of the people, and his laborer, from his personal intercourse with the hundreds of them employed by him as a manufacturer, commend him as a most suitable representative of our interests.

Restoration of the "Lost Cause."

"Everything for which the South fought will be won," said Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, in his address to his neighbors after he returned from the New York Convention. He was invited to inspire his fellow citizens with hope of the election of Seymour and Blair, and speaking of the results which would follow that event, the chief of which was that it would, after all, make the rebellion a success. He did not say that the election of the Democratic candidates would merely put them in a better condition than they had been since their rebel armies were captured and their Confederacy swept out of existence, but that "everything for which the South fought will be won."

Gov. Vance is not an idle declaimer, but a man who means what he says; and the key to his meaning is found in the words of Frank P. Blair, who in his letter to Col. Broadhead says among other things equally true and important, "The man who must have a President who will execute the will of the people by trampling into the dust the usurpations of Congress known as the Reconstruction Acts. I wish to stand before the Convention upon this issue, and I am sure that I shall stand before that Convention, and upon that issue he was put in nomination for Vice President almost by acclamation. He and his letter were both accepted and endorsed by that body, and upon its carefully considered propositions is the issue between the two great parties joined. Will my Governor Vance talk as he does, for what he says is true.

There are some people who think that these and other similar declarations are made hastily, as an intimation by men whose blood had become intolerably heated in the enthusiasm of putting a great party into battle array, and that they said more than they really meant. But don't be deceived. Upon this issue the South is not to be divided, and the will of the people, to taken it upon himself to nullify the laws of Congress and disperse the governments of the reconstructed States. Bear in mind it is not proposed to repeal these laws, but to "keep them on the books" and to "let them stand." If those men are permitted to carry out their programme, as boldly and openly declared by themselves, it puts an end to this government; it makes a military dictator of the "President elect," and the laws of Congress are null and void; that the legislative and judicial departments shall be abolished; and that the President shall be an irresponsible autocrat.

Had Frank Blair, written that letter after the nomination we might have supposed that the combined effects of his elevation and strong drink had turned his brain and made a mad man of him. But the letter had been written and published before the Convention met, and so far from damaging his prospects, it was the very thing that carried him through. The rebel wing of the party were delighted with his nomination, and the democratic nomination made that letter a part of the Democratic platform. There is no getting over it, and what is more, there is no intention of getting over it. If Seymour and Blair should be chosen, the instructions laid down will be carried out to the letter; and it will be claimed that it is done in obedience to the will of the people. And the worst of all, that the claim cannot be gained for it, with all these promises and declarations of purpose put forth by the rebel-democracy before them, the people of the nation shall cast a majority of their suffrages for that ticket, the President elect will be bound to take up at their instructions, for he can't do Blair's programme as endorsed by his Convention and re-endorsed by the people; and the rebels will take care that he does it.

These rebels have managed to bind their facile fellow Democrats of the North as firmly as ever they had their negroes. They can make them do as they please, and they have done it. They have succeeded in making Democracy and treason and rebellion identical terms, trusting to the strange potency of that much-abused party name to drag their "lost cause" out of that "last ditch" in which Grant and our brave soldiers buried it. They know as well as we do with what billions upon billions of the people of the North adhere to that word Democracy, and they now hope that the same unreasoning love of a more name will give them a majority. And we know that nine out of ten—perhaps ninety-nine out of a hundred—all the votes that will be cast for that traitorous and destructive ticket will be given for no other reason than that it bears the label of Democracy. Take off that label, and every honest Democrat would recoil from it with indignation and horror!—Pittsburg Gazette.
