☞The full Union Republican ticket is printed and ready for distribution.

☞Coffee has "riz" in some counties. Perhaps it is being used by Wallace's agents for the purpose it was last year.

☞The rich men don't use coffee, sugar and tea, according to Democratic calculations, now-a-days. They live on air pudding, we suppose.

☞The Grant and Colfax mass meeting in Philadelphia on last Tuesday night numbered fifty thousand voters. Philadelphia promises 10,000 majority for Grant and Colfax.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM.—We are informed that laborers from Maryland are hunting work in the "lower end" of this county. If they should be employed they will most likely leave again a day or two after the election.

☞"Have you heard from Colorado?"—Johnstown Democrat.

Yes. And by your count you have a gain of one. Have you heard from Maine? Only a gain for us of about ten thousand majority!

☞Remember voters, the issues this fall are the same as they were in 1864. Then the rebels in line cheered for McClellan and Democracy. Now you are called upon to defeat Seymour and Blair put in nomination by the rebel leaders.

☞The Peace Democrats in 1864 nominated McClellan and Pendleton in order to give the rebels all they wanted; in 1868, the rebels themselves nominated Seymour and Blair, and now they say they will get all they want when they are elected.

☞It is gratifying to every Union Republican to hear from every part of the district of the popularity of our nominee for the Legislature, Samuel T. Brown, Esq. He is one of the men for the times—honest—capable, and willing to discharge his whole duty as a member of the Legislature.

☞Democrats oppose D. J. Morrell because he is connected with a large iron manufactory in Johnstown. We will agree to support for Congress, or for President, any safe man who will establish such a manufactory in this place. Just such men as D. J. Morrell are wanted everywhere to build up towns and make work for the working people. We wish we had a few Morrells in the 'ancient borough!'

Why they would Tax the Bonds.

Gen. T. F. Bowie, a Democratic leader, said at a Seymour and Blair ratification meeting in Baltimore: "If there be any set of men I would sooner tax, it would be those men who furnished the means to carry on the most unholy war in history. I would not tax them as property, but I would tax them because I can read upon the face of these bonds a contribution to an unholy and wicked purpose."

Every Democrat must know that the Government bonds cannot be taxed; but this reason of Gen. Bowie as to why they should be taxed, is the most convincing proof of the speaker's honesty, and we take it that he speaks the sentiments of a goodly number, if not a majority of his party. We say Bowie is honest when he says that he can read upon the face of these bonds a contribution to an "unholy and wicked purpose." That purpose was to aid in the suppression of the rebellion, and without money the war could not have been waged as successfully as it was. It is knowing this that he and others want them taxed, although it would be an open violation of the Constitution, which says no "obligation shall be impaired," and in direct conflict with six decisions of the U. S. Supreme Court. He wants to tax the men who furnished the means to carry on the most unholy war in history.—There is candor for you, and we thank him for it. He hates the men who came to the help of the Government when it needed money to carry on the war against those who were trying to destroy it; and now they are to be taxed for the sacrifice they made.—Let Seymour and Blair be elected, and he with Wade Hampton, Semmes, and others, will have the bonds taxed to help pay the expenses of their nefarious plotting to destroy the best Government on earth; and the widows and poor men who hold the bonds will suffer the penalty of supporting the Government in its hour of need.

☞Voters, who made the heavy taxes, and the bonds, you hear the Democrats talk so much about, necessary? Why the same men who are now trying to defeat Grant and Colfax. The bonds and the heavy taxes were not in existence when the Democratic National organization 'smashed up' and tried to smash-up the Government. The heavy taxes and the bonds were made necessary that the Government could have strength to defeat the rebellion inaugurated by the Democratic leaders in their Conventions in 1860. The same leaders are now trying to inaugurate another war, and if they should be successful in the election of Seymour and Blair, they will either repudiate the whole National debt or double your taxes to pay off the Confederate debt. Rebels will have a controlling influence if Seymour and Blair should be elected, and it is fair to suppose that they will pay their own debts first before they trouble themselves about paying the debts of our Government made necessary that our men could be clothed and fed while they were fighting to crush the rebellion. Voters, when you hear a Democrat spouting his opposition to taxes and bonds, ask him who forced them upon the people and the Government. If he will confess to the truth he will say the rebels, the Democratic leaders, forced them upon you and your Government. For all the evils growing out of the war, those are responsible who inaugurated the rebellion and sympathised with rebels. Voters, be careful you do not cast your votes with rebels and their political friends.

THAT "BRUTAL OUTRAGE."—The last Monitor makes an unjustifiable attack upon Capt. Neely. It charges him with committing a "brutal outrage" upon a "crazy boy" at Shade Gap on the 31st of last month, by hitting him with a stone while he, the "crazy boy," was hurling stones through the windows of the Captain's dwelling into a room where his family were sitting. The "crazy boy" happened to be a crazy man, some 25 years of age, now confined in the mad-house of our county poor house, where we saw him some two weeks ago. Capt. Neely did what any other man would have done—defend himself and family as best he could from the attack of a "crazy boy" 25 years of age, and quite as stout and active as the editor of the Monitor. The political face of the Monitor article shows how anxious the editor is to hatch up something to defeat Captain Neely. Capt. Neely's vote at home, where he is best known, will tell a tale his enemies will not like to hear. The rebels who assisted in the nomination of Seymour and Blair, are the most bitter opponents of Grant, and we cannot expect those who act in harmony with the rebels to feel very friendly towards Capt. Neely who fought to defeat the rebels.

Read statement in another column made and sworn to by two Democrats and one Republican, neighbors of Capt. Neely.

☞The Democrats do not expect to defeat Hon. D. J. Morrell, our candidate for Congress, but they are anxious to have him 'cut down' from his former vote and majority. Mr. Morrell's popularity at home and in Congress is too well known to the voters to expect any cutting of his name by Union Republicans. He is one of the most useful and influential members in Congress, and his majority cannot be less than two or three thousand at the next election.

ONLY THREE WEEKS.

Union Republicans of Huntingdon county, three weeks from to-day, Tuesday, you will be called upon to vote either for Grant and Colfax or Seymour and Blair. Not for them, but for their friends, for State, district and county officers. Whatever your vote may be in October it will be counted as the strength of Grant and Colfax. The influence of that vote will be felt at the November election; it is important therefore that you poll every vote at the election three weeks from to-day, and poll them solid for every man put in nomination by the Union Republican Conventions. Are you making every effort to be ready for the contest on that day. Remember, if we win the fight clean in October we will have an easy fight and brilliant victory in November. Every election district in the county will be expected to do its whole duty—poll every vote for the whole ticket. Only three weeks—go to work if there is room to work. Perfect your township organizations and give Wade Hampton, Vallandigham, Wallace & Co., to understand that you are on guard duty and that their men cannot pass over into your lines to seek for aid and comfort. Only three weeks, remember.

☞The "Germantown Telegraph," which is not a political paper, thus refers to the present contest for the Presidency:—We never know a campaign which has opened with more spirit, conducted with more earnestness, or which promised more brilliant result than the present. The enthusiasm seems to have broken out all over the country spontaneously to an extent unlike anything we ever remember in any former Presidential contest. And there is a reason for it. The country, not even in 1861, was in more absolute danger. The leaders of the Democratic party, by their nominations and proclamations, formally coalesce with the leaders of the late rebellion, and declare their intention to overthrow the Constitution and Government of the country in the event of their success. This they unblushingly and defiantly publish to the world, and ask the people of the United States, who are now just settling down in peace, to help them to accomplish their infamous purposes. With such truths staring the people in the face will they do it? Not while they love the tranquility and good neighborhood which is now being permanently re established. Not while they love the great country and its old flag. No matter what party they belong to they will never prove false to these."

☞Union Republicans, you have a good county and district ticket. Be not deceived into the support of any part or single man on the ticket offered you by the friends of Seymour and Blair. It should be enough for you to know that every candidate on the Democratic ticket is a straight-out for the success of Seymour and Blair and opposed to Grant and Colfax. If you vote a complimentary vote to please a Democrat, you vote against Grant and the success of his friends. Be sure you count the cost of a vote you may give a Democratic candidate. The Democratic organization includes the leading rebels who are ready when opportunity offers to again plunge our country into war. Will you, by a single vote, support a man who is in sympathy with such an organization? When you make up your minds to fight rebels, make up your minds also to fight all who associate with them.

THE CONTEST IN OCTOBER.—Keep it before the people that the contest on the second Tuesday in October will decide the question whether General U. S. Grant or Blair and Seymour shall be President.

Keep it before the people that he who votes for the Democratic ticket at the October election, while he pretends to be a Republican, casts two votes against Grant and Colfax.

Keep it before the people that a triumph of the Democratic State ticket in Pennsylvania, if it is only by the smallest majority, will secure the State for Seymour and Blair.

Keep it before the people that to vote for any Democrat at the first election, no matter how small the office may be, is giving aid and comfort to the common enemy.

☞It has been reported over the county that there would be a volunteer (Republican) candidate in the field before the election for Sheriff—to aid in the defeat of Capt. Neely. It matters but little whether there is or is not a Republican willing to run as a volunteer candidate to take votes off Capt. Neely. All the votes a third candidate could get wouldn't pay for the trouble of running to defeat a worthy man and a brave soldier. Capt. Neely was fairly nominated as the Union Republican candidate, and he will be honorably supported and elected by the party.

☞Generals Hartranft and Campbell, our State ticket, will not be forgotten by the loyal men of Pennsylvania. They deserve a re-election and they will receive it by a heavy majority if Union Republican voters do their duty. Old Huntingdon must give them an old fashioned majority—not them alone, but for the whole ticket to be voted for in October.

☞Vote for Hartranft, Campbell, and the Republican ticket.

Do You Want More Taxes?

The Democratic speakers, the Democratic papers, and Democratic politicians everywhere, of all sizes and colors, continually cry out against taxes, taxes—and yet we find the 4th resolution of their platform as approved by the Convention that nominated Seymour and Blair reads as follows:

"Equal taxation of EVERY SPECIES OF PROPERTY according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities."

Tax every species of property! What do you think of such a proposition, poor men? Tax "every species of property according to its real value!" Every farmer, every mechanic, every poor man with but little, will have his taxes increased if the Democrats should be successful in electing their President and a majority in Congress. Now the man who can afford to have a piano must pay a tax for it. The man who can afford to have a cart or a wheelbarrow pays no tax for either—but adopt the Democratic platform and its candidates and the cart and the wheelbarrow will be taxed according to their value. Think of it, farmers and working men generally—you will be called upon by the tax collectors for tax assessed upon every species of property not now taxed. "Go in" for the Democratic reform party if you want to be taxed for every species of property—even down to your hen coop and chickens.

WHO ARE RESPONSIBLE?—The people complain of heavy taxes. Who are to blame? If the Democratic party in 1860 had not divided,—had not smashed-up—Abraham Lincoln might not have been elected. Had the Democratic party submitted to the will of the majority, there would have been no rebellion. Had the Southern Democrats not forced their States to secede and take up arms against the Government, the government would not have been compelled to tax the people to pay the expenses of the war to crush the rebellion. Now the same Democratic organization—North and South—ask to be placed in power, that the leading rebels may again have an opportunity to hatch treason, and again inaugurate rebellion. The voters who want more war, more bloodshed and more taxes, should vote for Seymour and Blair. The voters who want peace and prosperity should vote for Grant and Colfax. To secure this State sure for Grant and Colfax in November, vote a solid Union Republican ticket in October.

☞"Ah!" say the Democrats, "you have Gov. Brown and Gen. Longstreet in your party." Well, we know we have and are glad of it. But do you hear these men saying like Gov. Vance, "What the Confederacy fought for will be won by the election of Seymour and Blair," or like Wade Hampton, "The cause for which Stonewall Jackson fell cannot be in vain, but in some form, will yet triumph." We are ready to take a host more such men as Brown and Longstreet, if they show a proper spirit to abide by the laws that are framed for their government, but when the majority of the rebels are rampant and still waiting a chance to secede or run the government themselves, the Union men must be alive to their own interests, and blockade the first opening to an unconditional surrender of all that was fought for during the war.

☞Let every voter picture to himself the circumstances attending the campaign of 1864, and see if they do not resemble the circumstances attending the campaign of 1868. We have the same issues to fight for in peace, as we had in the war, and we have the same leaders to fight against now as we had then. Hampton is as conspicuous for Seymour as he was at the head of his legion. Vallandigham is as strong for Seymour as he was for McClellan in 1864; and all the same Democratic politicians and the rebel Generals are opposing Grant now, as opposed him when at the head of the army.

☞The Democrats talk about their gain in Maine. Now let us see the figures and compare. The highest vote ever given in Maine for a Democratic ticket was that of 51,378 in 1860; the highest votes ever given in that State for the Union ticket were 69,469 in '60 and 69,716 in 1866. The vote of Monday a week last did not vary one thousand from 55,000 for the Democrats, and 78,000 for the Union, in round numbers, a Democratic increase from their highest previous figure of less than four thousand, and a Republican increase of about nine thousand. Over two to one. We can stand such proportions—if they can.

☞What the rebels want Seymour and Blair elected for can be told in a very few words. They expect to get in Congress, and rule over loyal men; they expect to be paid for all losses they sustained in the rebellion; and they expect to have their debt paid. Is it any wonder they are trying so hard to gain a victory now after they were so badly beaten by Grant and the boys in blue during the war. We want Grant at the head of the nation to beat them again.

☞The Grand Union Republican Mass Meeting to be held in this place promises to be a monster affair. Get ready for it and come by hundreds from every direction. Some of the ablest speakers in the State will be on hand to address the crowd. The meeting will be on the 7th of October.
