Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so wadely and so deeply upon the produce of manifold, Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and the higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and the higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and the higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and the control that the same of the lungs and throat, have made it known as reliable proviect grains and to young children, it is not given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be lept on hand in every family, and indeed as all abould be provided with this antidote for them. Although settled Consumption is thought incirable, still great numbers of cases where the discass scened settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Rectoral. Secondary is its mastery over the discass of the Lungs and Throat, that the made continues of them yield to it. When nothing the continues in the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Rectoral in small and frequent doses. Se generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.
