

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Wednesday morning, Oct. 21, 1868.

WM. LEWIS, HUGH LINDSAY, Editors.

The "Globe" has the largest number of papers of any other paper published in the county. Advertisers should remember this.

OUR CANDIDATES:

"WE WILL FIGHT IT OUT ON THIS LINE."

FOR PRESIDENT, ULYSSES S. GRANT.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, SCHUYLER COLFAX.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

Wm. Lewis, Hugh Lindsay, George W. Brown, James M. Smith, etc.

The official vote of Vermont is as follows: Page, Republican, 42,615; Edwards, Democrat, 15,289. Page's majority 27,326.

PROBATION—"Your President I cannot be," said Seymour when nominated. Who would have thought he was so good a prophet.

Shall it be 1200? Yes.

The Union Republican majority in this county on the State ticket is 975. Shall it be 1200 in November? It can be if every Republican falls into line and does his whole duty. Front face—and forward! and the total will be at least 1200!

BUT TWO WEEKS.

Tuesday the 3d of November is near at hand. Grant men you have but two weeks to work. To work them in earnest, and have every vote out. The opposition, though defeated and disheartened, will make a strong effort to overcome our State majority.

Hon. D. J. Morrill is re-elected to Congress from this district. His opponent was a good soldier and a perfect gentleman, but Mr. Morrill's popularity was too heavy to overcome.

Samuel T. Brown, Esq., of this place, and Ames H. Martin, of Milltown, our nominees for the Legislature, have both been elected by handsome majorities. Mr. Brown, we are sure, will be honest and a working member of the House, and will not deceive his constituents.

We are happy to state that Valandigham was running against Gen. Shant for Congress in Ohio, has been beaten. Footloose, that other Democrat, we are sorry to state, is elected to Congress from Indiana. When will the Democratic party learn to put aside such men.

The Democrats elected their Mayor, District Attorney, and other officers in Philadelphia, but we understand the seats will be contested, and perhaps Republican candidates will have the largest number of legal votes, will be declared elected and take charge of the offices.

Would-be Vice President Blair is not backward in making public his atrocious sentiments. In a speech in St. Louis on Friday night last, speaking of the probable election of Grant, he said:—"a military dictatorship would be established, and Grant would never leave the Presidential mansion attic." So, then Gen. Grant is to be assassinated. Well, well, well that.

COVODE PROBABLY DEFEATED.—John Covode is probably defeated in the district composed of the counties of Westmoreland, Fayette and Indiana, by Henry D. Foster. The majority against him in the district is 41 votes. He intends to contest the seat. He alleges that he can have thrown out over five hundred illegal votes in the counties of Fayette and Westmoreland.

The Slanderers Rebuked.

The vote for Captain Neely by the true friends of a brave soldier should be a lesson long to be remembered by the men who made themselves prominent in the circulation of low slanders against him. Captain Neely is elected—and he will soon be a citizen of our town—and we feel very confident that he will prove himself to be quite as good a man and citizen as any who attempted to blacken his character.

Glory Enough for One Day!

Old Huntingdon did well!

975 MAJORITY!

She Can and Will Do Better!

EVERY MAN NOMINATED BY THE UNION REPUBLICAN PARTY TRIUMPHANTLY ELECTED!

It is with peculiar pleasure we refer to the Union Republican vote of Old Huntingdon. The so-called Democratic organization was perfect in every district. It was a unit. The will of one man was the will of every member of the party. It worked solid, and presented a solid front to reduce our party majority, and a solid front to defeat a portion of our ticket. It failed in reducing our party majority—it failed in defeating Capt. NEELY, the best abused man up for election. While Captain NEELY did not receive the full vote of his party in every district, he received a handsome majority—a majority much larger than any member of the opposition party would agree to could have. Where he was "cut" can be seen by referring to the table. Perhaps some of the "cutting" was unintentional, as the opposition had spurious tickets freely thrown around at the polls in every election district, and many of them may have been voted without first carefully examining every name upon them. Some of the districts done much better than we expected they could do, while two or three fell short of what we expected. As a whole, they all do nobly, and we feel sure every district will do better in November.

RETURN FROM THE STATE.

Table with columns: COUNTY, VOTES FOR GRANT, VOTES FOR SEYMOUR, VOTES FOR COLFAX, VOTES FOR OTHERS.

CAN THEY BE KEPT IN LINE?

The news from every State in which elections were held last week has completely demoralized the Democratic party—completely outflanked the rebel leaders and their army of followers. Those most anxious for success, as soon as they learned the result in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, struck for a new programme by which reinforcements could be secured. They demanded the withdrawal of Seymour and Blair and the nomination of new candidates. But in this, thus far, they have met with heavy opposition from many of the most prominent leaders of the defeated party. The so-called Democratic journals everywhere are sorely perplexed at their situation; they want to, and they don't want to, surrender to the demands of the moral loyal of their party followers. With Seymour and Blair they feel that all is lost, but to come down to a change of candidates, would seem to them to be surrendering to the masses—the people of their party—a class they never considered to consult in putting up candidates. The so-called Democracy in the North only consulted the rebel leaders and their warm sympathizers in the New York Convention when Seymour and Blair were put up as candidates, and now that they are up half the leaders will hold on to them to the end no matter what the efforts may be to remove them. It matters little to the loyal Grant army what the opposition may or may not do to try to make their rough road smoother—the verdict of the people has gone forth, and Grant and Colfax will be elected over Seymour and Blair or any other candidates those working in the interest of the Rebels may put up.

"CARPET BAGGERS."—The Southern people, or their leaders rather, don't like Seymour men to settle in their midst. They call them "carpet baggers," "scalawags," etc., and their Northern friends on the Democratic side have taken up and use the same terms. The same men used to call the Northern people "mudills," "greasy mechanics," etc., but those same "mudills" gave them a sound thrashing not long ago, and the time is coming when the "carpet baggers" from the North will go down South in larger numbers than they do at present, and they will smother all semblance of treason and secession. We don't mean that they will go to fight them; oh, no; but they will emigrate and settle there, and by their example they will teach the recent slave holders that labor will reap its own reward, and that the manufacturing interests of that portion of our country can be fully developed. But we can not expect such a reign of peace and prosperity unless Gen. Grant is elected. No "carpet baggers" will be permitted to go South if Seymour is elected, and unless the "carpet baggers" and "scalawags," so-called, are allowed to live among the Southern people, we candidly believe that peace will not be established, and they will have no one to teach them humility and advancement.

Frank Blair's Opinion of Democracy.

As much good is expected from Frank Blair's tour through Pennsylvania, it would be well for the Democracy to have Frank's opinion of them when he was a soldier. Here it is: "The Democratic party of the present day is Democratic in name and nothing else. The old Jefferson and Jackson's principles have been abandoned. THE MAN WHO DID NOT ISSUE THE ORDER BY THREE HOURS IS THE AUTHOR OF ALL TO WHICH THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF THE PRESENT DAY SUBSCRIBES. It has not one single principle of truth Democracy to animate its career."

General Schofield to Grant.

"I have always believed that the Union could be fully restored only by the man who put down the Rebellion. Your election to the Presidency will be the end of our political troubles, as your accession to the command in chief of the army was the end of the Southern Rebellion."—J. M. Schofield, Brevet Major General.

Congress and the Legislature.

We have not received the official vote of the districts for either Congress or the Legislature, but enough is known to give us Morrill, Brown and Martin by handsome majorities.

"Let us Have Peace."—GRANT

THE ENEMY ROUTED!

The "Democracy" Unhappy!

PENNSYLVANIA RIGHT SLIDE UP

10 THOUSAND MAJORITY!

SHE WILL DO BETTER!

We give below a table giving the official returns from nearly all the counties in the good State of Pennsylvania, showing a handsome majority for our State ticket. It will be doubled in November if every county will do as well as the Grant army in old Huntingdon intend she shall do.

ADDRESS OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

ROOMS OF THE UNION REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, PHILADELPHIA, OCTOBER 14, 1868.

Republicans of Pennsylvania: Yesterday you achieved a triumph at the polls scarcely less important in its results than the victory of arms on the field of Gettysburg. The verdict thus pronounced will be recorded by the American people in November next in a most emphatic denunciation of the party false to the country in the hour of its peril, false to liberty and the rights of man. Every lover of peace and good order congratulates you on your achievements in stripping such an organization of all power or to inflict future injury on the country. Henceforth it must sink under the same obliquity that rests upon the Tories of the Revolution and the Federalists of 1812. Entrusted with power, it wielded it for the dismemberment of the Republic. Confided in by its devotees as the guardian of the perpetuity of human bondage, professing reverence for free speech and freedom of the press, it has been guilty of the crime of a revolver wherever it had supreme control. Assuming to be the guardian of the rights of man, it became the champion of slavery, and, with blood hounds, with bayonet and with sword, it returned the fleeing fugitive, and at last, dissatisfied with the result of a fair election, it set its hand against the life of the Republic, and, Sumsen-like, would have buried itself in the ruins of the grandest temple of liberty ever reared by human hands. It is appalling that a party scarred by such a record should die at the hands of the people whose sense of justice it has outraged, and whose darkest rights it has trampled in the dust. Republicans of the Keystone? Your brethren throughout the Union have watched the struggle through which you have just passed with intense interest, and its result gladdens every patriot heart. Let not your victory dampen your ardor or relax your energy. Let us march on with closed ranks and solid columns to complete your victory in November.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Proclamation by the President—Thursday November 26, the day appointed. A PROCLAMATION. In the year and art, the skill and the labors of the people of the United States have been employed with greater diligence and vigor, and on broader fields than ever before, and the fruits of the labor have been more abundant than ever. We are permitted to hope that the long protracted political and sectional discussions are at no distant day to give place to the peaceful and fraternal affection throughout the Republic. Many foreign States have entered into liberal agreements with us, which heretofore have been far off, and which heretofore have become our friends. The annual period of rest which we have reached in health and tranquility, and which is crowned with many blessings, is by universal consent a convenient and suitable one for cultivating personal piety and practicing private industry.

I, therefore, recommend that Thursday, November next, be set apart and observed by all the people of the United States, as a day of public prayer, thanksgiving and praise to the great Creator and Divine Ruler of the Universe, by whose over-watchful, merciful and gracious Providence we have reached the present day of peace and tranquility, and in which we have become our friends. The annual period of rest which we have reached in health and tranquility, and which is crowned with many blessings, is by universal consent a convenient and suitable one for cultivating personal piety and practicing private industry.

HOOFLAND'S BITTERS.

Hoofland's German Bitters is well known to the invalid. For many years it has been in use, and its reputation is unimpaired. It is not claimed for it that it is competent to perform miracles, but there are many diseases and disabilities which it can reach more readily than any other known remedy, and in all such cases it is an excellent remedy. Dyspepsia, and diseases resulting from a disordered liver, or a derangement of the digestive system, come within its scope, and persons suffering from such diseases have great relief from a fair trial of this celebrated Bitters. This remedy is not alcohol, contains no rum or whiskey, and cannot make drunkards. Its reputation is backed up by testimonials from many eminent Physicians and others.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, orange, and &c. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases when an Alcoholic Stimulant is necessary. It is a preparation of rare medicinal value, and most agreeable to the palate. Sold every where by Druggists and Apothecaries. Oct 21—
