HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC, Prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON,

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into his country from Gormany, during which time they have indoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffer-ng humanity to a greater extent, than any other reme-tice known to the uniter

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Handships, Exposure, Evers, dec.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remodies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, tood is enjoyed, the stomatch digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion, becomes sound and heatthy, the yellow tings is cradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and heatthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE. And feeling the band of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BIT TERS, or the TONIC, an clair that will instil new lite into their veins, tostete in a measure the energy and arof of more jouthful day, a find up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

MOTICE.

It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the only mentol good heatit; or, to use their own expression, mover feel well; of all energy, extremel, and have no appetite. To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, sespecially recommended. WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN, Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies they will care every case of MARAMUS, without fair. Thousands of contilicates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia Pattor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson.—Dear Sir: I have been itequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my approprint espinere, and I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various lustances and particularly in my own tannily, of the usefulness of Br. Hoot hand's German Bitters, I deput for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debiting of the system, and espically for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fall; but usually, I dout not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Selection of Meats.

In selecting meat, avoid that which is of a pale pinkish color, as well as that which is of a deep purple tint.—

The pink color is indicative of disease, internal organs, is hard and sucty and is never wet, whereas, that of the diseased meat is soft and watery; often wet that it is technically called wet. meat smells faint and cadaverous, and to redeem the home from its present disorder, disease, and death. If you can find a red haired girl with a large limb, pop the question at once.

The short lady should always pos; sess a slender limb; the tall lady should nossess a large and ample ong. No doubt these bints are reliable, and the prevailing fashions make them quite practical and available.

Of all the strange sights in Paris, none is more curious than the snailing seller. He trundles a large and shallow hand-cart through the streets, covored with hugo snails crawling all over the sides of the cart, with horns extended and house on back. A dozeni en can be purchased for the small sum's of two sous; you can select them your solf, and carry them away in a paper : bag. Some people eat them raw, like oysters; others roast them with savory herbs. The best snails come from Burgundy in the autumn, and are fattened on the vine leaves. Those now selling are gathered in every ditch out- /side the city, the several cometeries yielding the largest supplies.
