

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Wednesday morning, April 7, 1869.

WM. LEWIS, Editor. HUGH LINDSAY, Editor.

The "Globe" has the largest number of readers of any other paper published in the county. Advertisers should remember this.

President Grant is sending in long lists of nominations to the Senate. The gallitine has at last been set to work.

George Barle, of Maryland, late law partner of Postmaster General Cresswell, has been appointed First Assistant Postmaster General vice G. S. Skinner.

Retrenchment and reform is the order of the day under the new administration. The people were impinged, they look for it, and it is now being carried into execution.

The orders for the consolidation of the infantry regiments, creates quite a furore in military circles. Six hundred and four officers will be placed on waiting orders.

Secretary Boutwell has just given official notice that the interest on bonds payable on the 1st day of May next will now be paid on presentation at the proper office, upon a rebate of interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

Four colored men nominated to office by the President, two of them to be justices of the peace in the District of Columbia, a third to be assessor of internal revenue in New Orleans, and the fourth to be postmaster in Columbia, S. C.

It is not probable that Congress will adjourn until the middle of April or the 1st of May. The disagreement over the Tenure of Office bill has kept back legislation, and much yet ought to be done before the session is brought to a close.

Another effort is being made to induce Gov. Geary to grant a reprieve to Gerald Dixon, sentenced to be hanged to-morrow, for the murder of Timothy Heonan in Philadelphia in June last. Although the documents submitted were not signed by eleven of the jury that convicted Dixon.

California sends a frightful batch of news. New discoveries of silver; great excitement; rush of miners; frightful storms; roads lined for miles with broken and stalled teams; mad dogs; pneumonia; small pox; attacks from hostile Indians; earthquakes. Such details are calculated to produce nervous shocks at least.

It is rumored in Washington that Senator Sprague contemplates the purchase of the old National Intelligence newspaper, and that he intends to give it a new lease of life in engineering a new political movement in behalf of Chief Justice Chase for the Presidency. Sprague has the money to "make the mare go," but we have doubts about the success of the movement.

The entire mass of applications for situations under the Government, ministers, consuls, &c., have been classified and arranged at the State Department, and placed in regular order, according to the weight of recommendation appended to each. The appointments will be made from them, so as to give to the several States their due proportion of them. All due regard is being paid to the strength in the Department in all cases.

The terms of eleven State Senators expire with the present Legislature. Their names and districts are as follows: William McQuinn, D., 1st; John C. Harbaugh, D., 2d; George D. Jackson, D., 3d; George D. Jackson, D., 4th; George D. Jackson, D., 5th; George D. Jackson, D., 6th; George D. Jackson, D., 7th; George D. Jackson, D., 8th; George D. Jackson, D., 9th; George D. Jackson, D., 10th.

We learn from a friend who visited Washington that week that the "Globe" is not so well as it should be. It is not so well as it should be. It is not so well as it should be. It is not so well as it should be.

The Democratic State Central Committee met at the Bolton House, Harrisburg, on the evening of the 30th ult. After a long discussion the Committee agreed to call a Convention for the nomination of a Governor and a Judge of the Supreme Court, on the 14th of July, at Harrisburg. It is claimed that this delay was secured by the friends of Gen. McCandless, who claim that it is that time they can show the hands of Gen. Cass and the Hon. A. S. Parker, with reference to certain legislation that has been presented before the present Legislature, and which was detrimental to the interests of Pennsylvania.

Decoration Day.

We are greatly pleased to notice that extensive preparations are being made throughout the country to celebrate, in a becoming manner, the first anniversary of "Decoration Day."

That all of our readers may properly understand what is meant by "decoration day," it being a new feature in the history of our country—one which we hope will become a national, in its character, as the Fourth of July, or the 22d of February—we will state its object as we understand it. "Decoration Day" occurs on the 30th day of May, and is set apart for decorating the Soldiers' graves with flowers.

About a year ago General Logan, Commander in Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, issued an order that the 30th of May should be consecrated to this patriotic day, with the intention and in the hope that the custom might become permanent and the day a national holiday. The order of the A. R. was discontinued with an appeal to the patriotic people of that organization to aid and assist in the ceremonies. The suggestion was well received by the country, and the appointed day was celebrated with appropriate ceremonies in every part of the land.

The graves of the Soldiers of Huntingdon county were beautifully and appropriately decorated with wreaths of flowers artistically and ingeniously wrought together by the ladies, and under the auspices of the G. A. R. a large concourse of people assembled in our Cemetery, where the flowers were strewn upon the graves of our departed heroes and a feeling and appropriate address was delivered by one of our most eminent distinguished citizens. How beautiful, to thus annually consecrate one day in each year to bedeck the graves of our friends with flowers, — they who gave up their lives for our country might live. We know that the members of G. A. R. of Huntingdon county will not fail to perform the sacred duty assigned to them, and we know that the ladies, always patriotic, will second them, earnestly and heartily in the noble work and contribute their full share toward appropriately and fittingly performing the sacred and holy task.

Confession of George S. Twitchell.

George S. Twitchell, Jr., who is sentenced to be hanged to-morrow in Philadelphia, for the murder of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary B. Hill, made a confession on Saturday last, in which he charges his wife with the murder for which he is condemned. He says that on the night of the murder he went to his room and instead of going to bed lay down on a lounge in the room and fell asleep. His wife was in bed at the time; he was aroused at her repeated calls, and ran down to the dining-room, where he found her much excited and saying: "I have had a quarrel with mother, and killed her; together they threw the body of Mrs. Hill out of the window to make it look as if she fell out; he then went to the hydrant, washed his hands and face, went to his room, undressed and went to bed; his wife followed him and also got into bed; they were in bed for twenty minutes, he says that he made a solemn vow to eternal God that night, that he would never reveal it; he made the vow to save his wife, and he now makes the disclosure that he may have peace with God."

Such is the confession almost word for word, and we are free to admit that you believe it to be a fabrication, got up for a purpose. Mrs. Twitchell has been tried and acquitted, and is therefore safe for the present, again being tried for the murder of her mother. All efforts to obtain pardon from the Governor have failed; and Twitchell gets up this "false story" in order to escape, especially in his wife, and to give color to the confession.

About the time it makes its appearance, Mrs. Twitchell leaves her home and does not know whither as though the whole story were correct and she fears the law will again take hold of her. In our opinion; the whole "confession" is a perversion of facts manufactured to "save" the life of the man who murdered Mrs. Hill.

Decorations Proposed. The dedication of the Mexican Soldiers Monument at Harrisburg, which was to have taken place on the 30th of May, and for which the most extensive preparations had been made, has been indefinitely postponed by the committee charged with the matter, on account of the delay in the shipment of the statue from Italy and the failure of the Legislature to appropriate sufficient money to defray the expenses incident to the dedicatory ceremonies.

Secretary Boutwell is largely reducing the clerical and printing forces in the different bureaus and printing establishments of the Treasury Department. Retrenchment is the order of the day under the Grant administration in all the departments of the Government.

The leading officers of all the associations and societies working for the Freedmen have memorialized Maj. Gen. Howard, earnestly requesting him, if possible, to withdraw his resignation as Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, and to continue to direct the work to the end of the year.

The Tenure of Office Law.

The Tenure-of-Office question which has long been a bone of contention, and a dead-lock in the removal and appointment of officers, was finally disposed of on last Wednesday. A new bill was reported by a committee of Conference, which was passed by both Houses, and reads as follows:

Sec 1. Be it enacted, &c., That every person holding any civil office to which he has been appointed, or hereafter may be appointed, and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and who shall have become duly qualified to act therein, shall be entitled to hold such office during the term for which he shall have been appointed, unless sooner removed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, or by the appointment, with the like advice and consent, of a successor in his place, except as therein otherwise provided.

Sec 2. And be it further enacted, That during any recess of the Senate the President is hereby empowered in his discretion to appoint any civil officer appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, except Judges of the United States Courts, until the end of the next session of the Senate, and to designate some suitable person, subject to the resignation of another, to perform the duties of such suspended officer in the mean time, and such person so designated shall take the oath, and give the bonds required by law to be taken and given by the suspended officer, and shall, during the time he performs his duties, be deemed to be the officer suspended, and it shall be the duty of the President, within thirty days after the commencement of every session of the Senate, except for any office which in his opinion ought not to be filled, to nominate persons to fill all vacancies in office, which he may, at the meeting of the Senate, whether temporarily filled or not, and so in the place of all officers suspended, and of the Senate during such session shall refuse to advise and consent to an appointment in the place of such suspended officer, then, and otherwise, the President shall nominate another person as soon as practicable to said session of the Senate for said office.

The language of these sections is somewhat ambiguous, and is differently construed by different parties. Mr. Butler, who was for the repeal of the old bill, and was Chairman of the House Committee of Conference, says that the new bill gives the President, free scope to do as he pleases in the matter of appointments and removals, and is equivalent to an unconditional repeal of the law. Mr. Trumbull, who was opposed to the repeal, and Chairman of the Senate Committee of Conference, contends that the revised bill gives no such power; but the Senate, under its provisions, may reinstate an old officer removed during a recess; by refusing to confirm his successor. This latter view is undoubtedly the correct one. It is not probably, however, that any occasion will arise during President Grant's administration to test the law in this regard. The Senate will hardly refuse to confirm any of President Grant's appointments unless for a very good cause, and the President is not likely to remove an officer except for the same reason, or to press an obnoxious person upon the Senate.

Spare the President.

Scarcely five weeks have rolled around since Grant took hold of the rudder of the good old ship of state, yet he has already broken down under the "pressure." A contemporary says that he "may owe something to the leading politicians who supported his election; but he owes far more to the People, who would have him for their President, and would not hear of any one else as a substitute." And that "People, with great unanimity, insist that he shall save his health and strength for the four years' work devolved on him by their vote, and shall neither resign, nor be impeached, nor, in the contest in his vicinity, to satisfy of face-seekers, bow down, greedy or clamorous, before his indignation; Gen. Grant advised many friends that he had resolved to have Cabinet officers of his own choice, and to do away, on their respective, the labor and responsibility of searching and passing upon the claims or merits of rival candidates for office. "This was a wise and brave resolve, and we regret that it has since been overruled to the detriment of the President's health. In behalf of the great body of the People, who expect no office and seek none, we implore the President to recur to his original wish, and just resolve, now it is before him, and to stand by it."

A Chicago "advertiser" prints a statement to the effect that a half-witted boy has confessed to having murdered the Hon. Murray McConnell of Illinois. The boy says he had a dispute with Mr. McConnell about $11, and becoming enraged, struck him on the head with a hammer. The boy is left handed, and it is asserted that the blows which "provoked" him, must have been struck by a left handed person. Mr. Robinson, who is a "elder" at the place, is charged with the murder, and is a prisoner for having struck the boy, and confessed that he will be able to establish his innocence.

The miners in the Nevada White Pine region presented the first-born baby in the district, with silver hair, and several thousand dollars. Quite a star is in the world. It is good to be born as the pharisee, with a silver spoon in your mouth, but better to be born as the child, with a silver spoon in your hand, or several of them, in that natural cavity.

The youngest couple known are in Goltzow, N. H., the groom being 10 and the bride 11 1/2 years old.

HURRYGRAPHS.

Latitude—like a clothes line—stretches from pole to pole. A man in Pittsburgh has a beard 8 feet long. A Shanghai rooster killed a small child in Kentucky the other day. New Hampshire, Vermont and Massachusetts have their fast day on the 8th of April.

Eight wagons have been going through Harrisburg carrying stores in full blast during the past cold weather. Six bridesmaids and six groomsmen is the correct thing now. The poor bridegroom must go it alone. The donkeys in Japan loosen the teeth by blows from a mallet, and then pull them out with their fingers. (Ood! thousand English) spartans have arrived in Philadelphia, and will reside in the public squares of that city.

In Bulgaria, when a person dies, they wear mourning for three days, and express their grief by tearing their clothes inside out. Young gentlemen may be pleased to learn that it is becoming fashionable for brides to live one year with their parents.

Awful accounts of the peach prospect are beginning to circulate, in order to accustom the people to high prices before the time arrives. Concerning counting, Billings blows, that the more advice you undertake to follow, the less amount of good counting you will be obliged to do.

An English astronomer has discovered that the temperature of the moon varies alternately from that of molten lead to that of frozen mercury. The inauguration of General Grant was celebrated at between 80 and 90 places in Germany. The best poets of the Prussian, recited poems on the occasion.

The Salt Lake papers are making every year a fight in the household of Mormonism, but they are being overpowered by a series of "ragged wives." It is estimated that the snow in Truckee's Ravine, in the White Mountains, is 1,000 feet deep. Hopes are entertained of a magnificent snow winter this summer.
