Young Men's Christian Association, meets the first and third Tuesdays of each month, in the room of Post No. 33, A. F. & A. M., meets third Monday of each month in Court House.

Worship, meets the first Friday evening of each month.

Worship, Free, of course.

Improvement is again the order of the day.

The Herald denies that the Tyrone schools have stopped for want of funds.

West Huntingdon is benefited by a nightly fire concert.

Thirty-six trains pass over the Penna. rails every twenty-four hours.

Sighor Blitz is traveling with his show.

Sorry he don't stop here.

An elephant went over the rails to Philadelphia the other week.

Blair county is organizing militia companies, and is therefore ahead of Huntingdon.

John Mudd has been released from Dry Tortugas to take up his habitation on our streets.

James McGuire, of West townships, has a sale advertised for the 8th inst. See ad.

"We could not get along without the Philadelphia Evening Star," says Tyrone Herald.

Not the Globe either, Eb.

The Blair County Gazette publishes a column of political news which will bring the young men of S. C. to us.

A rare dish in the sandwich island is roast jackson. It is said to be repeatable turkey. "Thank you, we'll take turkey."

Joseph Forster, of Chamburg, broke his leg while trying to ride a velocipede. Bring him your bone-booster.

We are sorry that the editor of the Watchman has suffered from reading some of our puns. How about this bad boy? Come now.

Our Methodist friends and the reading public generally will be interested in perusing the article on Lay Delegation, on the first page of this paper.

A. Mr. Simon Fresh, of Cambria County, was swindled out of all his money in Chicago, a few days ago. He must have been a fresh traveler.

We were mistaken in saying last week that Rev. James Orson, who has returned from India, was a son of Wm. P. Orson.

He is only a brother.

Mr. Zach Yenter and Mr. Sam'l T. Brown have commenced the raising of the old buildings on their lots in Huntingdon, preparatory to erecting three story bricks.

A compromise has been made between long and short dresses. The latter are to be worn by ladies with small feet, while the others are to be allowed to sport trails.

If you go into a store and find boys lying on the counter asleep, you may just bet your bottom dollar that the proprietor of your advertiser.

Some villains entered the Union church in Fayetteville; Franklin county, and completely demolished the chandeliers and lamps, and tramped upon the pews.

Thieves still flourish in Lewistown, and have the benefit of a half column, notice in the papers. A notice in the court proceedings would be less to their liking.

Nothing adds more to the appearance of a town, or to the public comfort of its inhabitants, than fine shade trees along the front walls. It is this that makes the streets of Huntingdon so beautiful.

We are pleased to see that Wm. Fentiman an itinerant umbrella mender, whose home is here, announces his arrival in the newspaper of this town to which he goes. He will lose nothing by following this course.

The new liquor law for this county, before the Legislature, is causing considerable comment. "Good liquor," we heard a man say, "won't hurt anybody." As there's the rub. The time is, too many men are their own Inspectors.

Now is the time for business men of whatever pursuit, to make known their business, and extend an invitation to the public to call and see them, which may be done through the columns of your home newspaper, or by circulars. We are prepared to do either.

We have received the first number of the Progress of Liberty, to which we referred last week, published by O. L. Hughes, at Harrisburg. It is a neatly printed weekly, and devoted to the elevation of the freedmen and the colored race generally.

We are blessed to learn that Kate, the daughter of Mr. William Dean, who was so badly burned at the burning of her home, is recovering rapidly, and will not lose the use of her hands. She is expected, but slightly.

Mr. J. L. Holmes has withdrawn from the chain editorials of the Tyrone Herald. We are sorry to lose his thoughtful pen.

C. S. Jones, turns the machine alone. May he know what to do and how to do it, as the farm is still his.

The State Superintendent of common schools has decided there is nothing to prevent ladies from holding the office of County Superintendent. This being the case a few teachers of that persuasion had candidates in other counties. The males will have to look to their laurels.

None ever did like to dun our subscribers, and we don't intend to do so now; but we would just hint, as next week many of our friends will be in town attending Court, that they call round and see us, and we hope they will find us busy writing receipts for money due us.

A gentleman in this place was taken on the first of April in this way: Before he was rightly awake in the morning he thought he heard the cry of fire, which was repeated in quick succession. He was about getting up when he discovered that the cry of fire was only the quack of a duck that had been sitting beneath his chamber window.

Rev. John Moore of Philadelphia, who will lecture on Temperance, at the Court House, Tuesday evening, April 12, at 7 o'clock. Admission free.

Read "our column for the people."

To Soldiers and their Friends.
By direction of Post No. 33, Grand Army of the Republic, Huntingdon, Pa., the following announcement and requests are made to the friends and relatives of deceased soldiers.

At a stated meeting of the Post, held on the 15th day of March, it was

Resolved, That the Post Commander be directed to obtain as complete a list as possible of the soldiers from this country, who are now deceased, with their names and regiments to which they respectively belonged, the engagements or battles in which they were killed or the places where they died and where buried.

That the Post Commander be authorized to appoint a committee of any number he may be deemed proper, of which he shall be chairman, and to take such measures as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of those resolutions.

In accordance therewith the Post Commander, Milton S. Lytle, has selected the following committee and each member will obtain lists from townships for which he is appointed:

M. L. Logan for Shirley, Cromwell, Clay, Springfield, Dublin and Tell.

W. K. Critts for Brady, Henderson, Union, Cass and Tod.

W. P. Rudolph for Hopewell, Carbondale, Lincoln and Penn.

H. C. Wengle for Walker, Oneida, Barre and West.

W. F. Cunningham for Huntingdon, Jackson, Warriors Mark and Junata.

G. L. S. Baker for Porter, Morris, and Franklin.

Residents of those townships and particularly the friends and relatives of deceased soldiers are requested to send the information mentioned in the foregoing resolutions. Cunningham's name should be addressed to the member of the committee for the township in which the deceased soldier resided. Portis or complete name will be faithfully received.

These lists are desired for use, on the occasion of every recitation of the annual decoration of soldiers' graves, which will take place during this spring or early in the summer.

—M. M. Logan, Adjutant.

The Fish Law.

The fish law is passed and approved by the Governor, and arranged to be enforced by the State Fish Commission.
