

The Globe.

HUNTINGDON, PA. Wednesday morning, April 28, 1869.

WM. LEWIS, HUGH LINDSAY, Editors.

FOR GOVERNOR. Hon. DAN'L J. MORRELL, of CAMBRIA COUNTY.

To Our Friends and Patrons.

Until we give notice to the contrary, we will issue to all paying us money on subscription to Globe, advertising, job work and old store bills, chance checks for presents in our Enterprise.

The Senate adjourned sine die at 12:4 o'clock on Friday morning last.

Col. Corney, Gov. Curtin, Gen. Kane and a number of other prominent Pennsylvanians are on a tour of general inspection through the South-Cru States.

Senator Scott delivered an address on the occasion of the fifty-first anniversary of the Sunday School of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, at Washington City, on the 19th inst.

The Old and New School Presbyterian Churches are endeavoring to effect a reunion of the two Churches.

Coffee-pot Wallace is looming up as a Democratic candidate for the gubernatorial nomination.

Great floods and terrific hurricanes have occurred in the central and western portions of New York, and in Vermont, Massachusetts and States in the West.

Accounts which go to prove the safety of David Livingstone, the celebrated African traveler, respecting whose fate so much uncertainty has prevailed recently, have been secured in London.

Grant has succeeded in seducing the Quakers into accepting office under him. They are to take charge of the Indians and teach them civilization.

Chief Justice Chase has decided in the Butler-Kimberly case that a member of Congress is not exempt from arrest in a civil suit.

Simon Cameron said in the Senate of the United States that in his opinion, Gov. Curtin was not the choice of the Republican party of Pennsylvania, for the mission to Russia.

Political Doctors will differ. The Journal & American, Republican, speaking of Capt. B. X. Blair's appointment as Post Master for this place, says: "The appointment, as might reasonably be supposed, is regarded by our citizens generally as one of the most unpopular that could have been made."

Seven women two of whom were colored, presented themselves to the Board of Registry of Washington the other day, and requested that their names be placed on the list of qualified voters now being prepared.

The Judges of Election of the City of Washington, the undersigned residents of the First Ward, request that our names be placed on the list of qualified voters, who are engaged in preparing. We know that it is unusual for those of our sex to make such a request; we do so because we believe ourselves entitled to the franchise.

The Board received the paper, and promised to give it due consideration, their appearance attracted considerable attention, but they declared that they did not experience any remarkable inconvenience, and were not subjected to any disagreeable remarks.

"The Dear People."

How often have we heard this phrase from the lips of politicians. During times of political excitement it is as common among them as the shaking of hands and the "How d'ye do?" of every day life.

The dear people, as they are called, will endure much; they suffer long, and are not as ready as some people suppose, to treat a man unjustly. There is a feeling of common sympathy imbedded in their breasts that will extend itself to every human being; and it is only when their claims are repeatedly ignored and their wants defiantly overlooked, that they will turn their faces against him who forsakes them.

We believe in the people, and where is the man who does not. They are not to be treated with contempt nor indifference. The individual who attempts to get along without the aid and sympathy of the people has a wretched pilgrimage. He is looked upon as a scoundrel and selfish—as one who cares nothing for the progress and elevation of his fellow-man, and who therefore is not worthy a place in the hearts of his countrymen.

The bill creating a State Board of public charity, by which to testify; the bill taxing national banks and savings institutions one per cent. on their capital, and exempting them from all local taxation, passed both Houses.

The bill changing the rate in Shelley's case, was defeated. The proposition to repeal all laws exempting property from taxation, was incorporated in the Tax bill, and was of course defeated.

The Prospects of a War in Europe.—It is evident to every thoughtful reader that a terrific conflict of arms in Europe is inevitable at almost any moment.

The Bankrupt Law.

The following act, allowing parties in interest to be witnesses, having passed both houses of the Legislature, and been approved by the Governor, is now a law of Pennsylvania:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, that it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That no interest nor policy of law shall exclude a party or person from being a witness in any civil proceeding; provided, that this act shall not alter the law as now declared and practiced in the courts of this Commonwealth, so as to allow husband and wife to testify against each other, nor counsel to testify to the confidential communication of his client; and this act shall not apply to actions by or against executors, administrators, or guardians, nor where the assignor of the thing or contract in action may be dead, excepting in insolvency and inquiries respecting title and other matters respecting the rights of such deceased owner, between parties claiming such right by devolution on the death of such owner.
