The Colorado Miner of March 25th says that the largest piece of silver bullion ever produced in the United States was recently taken off the cupel at the Brown Company's works. The weight was 532 pounds Troy; currency value, $10,200. The amount of ore run was between 29 and 30 tuns. Some personal friends of Secretary

Stanton propose to present him with a sum of money as a testimonial of regard for his great services, and sympathy in his present, and, it is feared, permanent loss of health. For this purpose a subscription has been put in circulation in Washington.

Wit and Sentiment.

WHILE Tom Corwin was a member of the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, he brought in a bill for the abolition of public punishment at the whipping-post. He made a speech thereon, to which an elderly member replied as follows: "Mr. Speaker, the gentleman is not as old as I am, and has never seen so much of the practical operation of the system of punishment which he desires to abolish When I lived in Connecticut, if a fellow stole a borse, or cut up any other rusties, we used to tie him right up, and gave him a real good thrashin' and he always cleared right out, and we never saw anything more of him. It's the best way of getting rid of rogues that ever was tried, and without expense to the State." Corwin rose in reply: "Mr. Speaker, I have been puzzled to account for the vas immigration from Connecticut to the West; but the gentleman last up has explained it to my entire satisfaction. The bill passed without further discus-

HOW TO CURE A HUSBAND .-- A WOman who used frequently to be beaten her spouse of this barbarity. The sa-gacious soothsayer heard her complaint; and, after pronouncing some hard words, and using various gesticulations, while filled a vial with a colored liquid, desired her, whenever her Huntingdon, Aug. 1, 1866 husband was in a passion, to take a mouthful of the liquor, and keep it in her mouth for five minutes. The weman, quite overjoyed at the simplicity of the remedy, strictly followed the direction given her, and by her silence escaped the usual chastisement. The contents of the bottle being at last oxpended, she returned to the cunning main, auxiously begging to have another, possessed of the same virtue.

"Fool!" said the man; "there was nothing in the bottle but brown sugar and water. When your husband is in a passion, hold your tongue, and my life for it he will not lay finger upon you."
