A sporting man in Paris has opened an office for advising inexperienced young men in regard to so-called affairs of honor. He teaches them for 50 francs how to insult their adversaries in the most genteel manner, and how to resent affronts so as to render a duel inevitable. He instructs them also in all matters regarding duels and challenges. He is well patronized.

An editor in Hampshire says that recent auroral display of Thursday evening, was as if some colestial mer-cer had unrolled two or three dozen pieces of silk of the most beautiful tints of purple, green, blue, lilac, and white, gathered the ends into his hand at the zenith, and let them flow down to the horizon." This astute philosopher enlightens the public with his bank experience. How his willingness; to accommodate a friend led to his faith in banks being shaken, and his chequored career in this path, is told with charming simplicity:

Shakespeare says: "Put not your trust in banks." I don't put my trust in banks. Nor my cash either. I always felt able to take care of all the money Ligot. And more too.

I don't see why I should trust banks

-they never trusted me. I never asked them to, but to oblige a creditor of mine, who had singular hallucingtion on the subject of my financial standing,I let him try the value of my name on a check I owed him some money. The bill had been standing for some time; but he hadn't said anything to me about it, and I hadn't said anything to him, because I could afford to let it stand as long as he could, and if he hadn't revived the subject I shouldn't. He did at last remind me of the fact, in a very polite note, stating that he had some engagements to meet.— That is the way with creditors, I find.

They are always making engagements, and expecting their debtors to furnish the money.
But, as I said before, he was very polite about it, and merely said he would like to have my check for the amount; (As he had accommodated me so long; Lould hardly deny such a reasonable request. Ayer's Hair Vigor

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth.
Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., PRACTICAL AND ANALYTICAL CHEMISTS. LOWELL, MASS. PRICE $1.00.

JOHN READ, Agent. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Cough, Bronchitis, Asthum, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellont remedy for pulmonary complaints. The ough a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and though the words a feeliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual traneity that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Group, it should be kept on hand in every family, and inclosed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidate for them. Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the discense seemed settled, have been completely cared, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectorat. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of then Lungs and Throat, that the most obstante of them, under the Cherry Pectorat they subside and disappear.

Sugars and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Broachitis is generally cured by taking the Chorry Pectorat in sunil and frequent does.
So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fall. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other minoral or poisonous substance wintever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the agard districts, are literally beyond account, and we helleve without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed. Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through misematic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Connectants. arising from torpidity tected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Billious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent nemely, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed. Prepared by Dh. J. C. AYEK & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.
