13 A great deal of joy was manifested_throughout the country, upon the completion of the Pacific Railroad. Jubilees were held in New York, Boston and San Francisco.

According to the returns of Assessors, received at the Internal Revenue Department, the income returns for this year are greater than has been returned in any year previous.

The Atlantic and the Pacific are now bound together by a continuous rail, and we are almost within speaking distance of San Francisco. Who could have accomplished such a feat but the ever wide awake Yankee?

A special Cabal dispatch from london to the New York Tribune, on the 11th inst., was intended to startle the people of this country and frighten the President into bysterics or something else, but it is recorded that when Grant was handed the dispatch, he read it quiotly, and then resumed his smoking, chatting all the while with those present as calmly as if nothing ing in the least unseated. This highly I important announcement reads as follows: "Initial steps have been taken for an ance, offensive and defensive, between Eng-land, France, and Spain against the United States-the rejection of the Alabama trenty, the tone of Mr. Summer's speech, the alleged filibustoring tendencies of Geu. Grant's Ad-ministration, and the reported connivance at expeditions from the United States against Cuba, being made the pretexts for a neces-sity for such alliance." It had the effect, however, of creat-
