Deaths.

We will have no more spring elections, under the new Registry law.

The Soldiers' Monument for Juniata county.

29,800,000 feet of timber have been cut and put into Beesh Creek, Centre county, this season.

Hon. Andrew Gregg died in Centre county on the 14th inst.

He was distinguished as a soldier and politician.

We publish in another column the result of an important election just between Wm. Colon and John R. Hunter.

Read it.

Our subscribers should preserve a copy of this number, as it contains the list of many of the dead soldiers and other information.

Mr. Jackson White has our thanks for a present of some of the largest and best stalks of rubarb it has ever been our pleasure to try.

Grateful, very grateful, should every one be to witness the glorious prospect of an abundant crop of fruit, grain and vegetables, that everywhere meets our gaze.

James Snyder, an employe on a wood train, had his leg broken on Wednesday last by being run over by a car wheel, a short distance below this place.

The Huntingdon Silver Cornet Band has been engaged by a firm company in Altoona to attend the firemen's parade in Harrisburg which takes place to-day.

A gentleman named James Peck, hailing from Juniata county, was pecked by a confederate man at the depot in Pittsburgh, recently, of the sum of forty-five dollars.

The Standard man will continue to spell arctic with only one c, thus—arctic, friend P, or quit drinking 'artic' soda water.

To cure the toothache extract a piece of clean cotton wool with a strong solution of ammonia, and apply immediately to the affected tooth. The relief is instantaneous.

If one enterprising man in a town begins to 'scratch' he starts everybody else to doing likewise. We don't care how many scratch, providing they don't have the itch to pull everybody else down.

The Union Hall of Johnston has been rented for $500 per annum, by Hon. George Taylor, President Judge, and Hon. George W. East, Associate Judge, for the use of the District Court.

Mr. Jas. E. Robb, as will be seen by advertisement, will offer for sale on Tuesday next, one of the best farming lands situated in this county. Those desiring to purchase should not fail to be present.

Improvements are still on the increase in 'ye ancient borough.' The foundation for Mr. Brown's and Mr. Yenter's buildings has been completed, and other buildings are being reared with fresh coats of paint.

We direct attention to card of Messrs. Musser & Fleming, Attorneys at Law, in today's issue. These young men have no hesitation in recommending to the public, as they are both talented and possess the "points" that constitute a lawyer.

The new engine house is being rapidly pushed upward to completion, under the direction of Mr. John Garmen, who has the contract. It will be two stories high—the lower one to be used for the engines and the upper room as a council chamber.

We are glad the principle of patronizing home industry is being carried out in practice by many of our business men. Those who don't do so, show by their actions that they don't want their own home support, and of course they shouldn't receive it.

A Rochester gentleman saw an advertisement that the recipe for the cure of dyspepsia might be had by sending a postage stamp to the advertiser. He was a victim and sent his stamp. The answer was—"Dig in the garden and let whisky alone."

An exchange warns the mothers and nurses against the too prevalent practice of drawing little children around the streets backward. It has been known to South Carolina. If you value the health and comfort of your little ones, get them a carriage in which they can ride naturally and enjoy it.

Bishop Kingsley, of the M. E. Church, is about to start westward, on a trip round the world intending to hold conferences and attend to the business of the church in California, China, India, England and other places on his route, and return to New York in something over a year.

A friend suggests the propriety of purchasing one of the neighboring hills for a water reservoir, before other improvements make them cost three times their present value.

We think this is a wise suggestion, for we must have water works some day, and the sooner a company is formed at the ground purchased, the less will be the expense.

See card of A. G. Postelwaite & Co., General Commission Merchants, 254 South Front Street, Philadelphia. Mr. P. was formerly a resident of Mt. Union, this county, and we would advise our merchants when in the city to give him a call, or send their orders, as they will find him just the man to deal with.

One of the best illustrated weeklies that we receive is the Heart and Home. The number for May 22 contains the beginning of a good story by R. B. Eason, entitled "Marrying Well." Besides this it has several instructive articles in agriculture, house keeping, &c. Address Heart and Home, 37 Park Row, New York.

Lines written on the death of Miss Sallie Laugh, of Warriorsmark.

Now the buds and blossoms waken At the breath of flowery May; But the dear one from us taken, Was more beautiful than they.

Gene, our darling, to the blissful bowers, Where abides eternal spring; Where shall bloom earth's gathered flowers, And A'ernal raptures ring.

Earliest culled the fairest flowers, Gathered first the fairest sheaves, Weas of earth, thy chilling showers Never, never fall on these.

Loved one, oh I miss thee sadly; But we know thou'rt not dead; There we soon shall meet thee gladly, Never more to say good-bye.
