والمراجع والمحاولات والمترب والمتراف والمتراف والمتحد والمتحد والمحاد والمحاد والمحاد والمحاد والمحاد		الالكانية، الذي يوانية بين البنانية علم التينية الذين التينية المائية المائية المائية المركز التينية التي يع المائية المركز				A CONTRACTOR OF A CONTRACT OF
The Globe.	Descration Day. Saturday last will be a day long to	newly turned for the Autumn crop, through the woods that hid for a moment the battle's	OUR COLUMN FOR THE PEOPLE	The Soldiers' Orphans. The Johnstown Tribune gives a long	LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.	SPECIAL NOTICES
ent Gibbe.	be remembered by our citizens and those who witnessed the ceremonies of			description of the visit of the Soldiers' Orphans' of the Cassville School to that	MESSRS. EDITORS : In considering	More Prestous Than Female Suffrage
UNTINGDON, PA.	decoration day in our borough. The	bullate that minimized above their boards on			the question whether it pays a man to invest at home. there are some things	The Creator has endowed woman with a most worde, ful organism, but it is often sadly impaired and waste principal ceremony was the strewing	the gans that were made in their ranks.		1011011011011011010 W (1010 1010 2014 m) (1010 1010)	to be looked at. We have intimated	The Creator has endowed woman with a most wood ful organism, but it is often saily impaired and waste by peculiar ills and wearing pains. The female sex, will and the MISHLER'S (RERE BITTERES a varo specific and tonic for every period in life. It will rescate the se- from the perils and dangers that threaton during the most critical periods of their existence, carrying ther safely through every trying correspondent their too
dnesday morning, June 2, 1869.	of flowers and wreaths on the graves	There was no hesitation, no halting, until volley answered volley in the deadly strife.		received was highly satisfactory, and the entertainments given by the pupils	that it depends upon what a man in-	from the perils and dangers that threaten during th most critical periods of their existence, carring the
OCAL & PERSONAL.	that are buried in the Cemetery-a	"See the smoke, how the lightning is cleaving asunder,		were wen received by the cilizens. The	A man might throw his money away,	most critical periods of their existence, carrying there askely through every trying occasion, currying their top ethronic, storoidous, criganic, veryans, billing and othe disorders that have mode their lives inforced it and othe disorders that have mode their lives inforced it formed that the BB BITTNES will cure all formed it from the faculties from the earliest stage of female addressing an in overse condition of address accounts in the most of the start start and the start address accounts in the start start and the start address accounts in the start of the start start address accounts in the start start addressing and the start start address accounts in the start start start address account of the start start address accounts in the start start in overse condition of address accounts in the start start start address account of the start start address account in the start start address account of the start start address account in the start start address account of the start start start start address account of the start start address account of the start start address account of the start star tribute of respect and gratitude to the heroes that we trust will be kept up	thunder."	Fish.	were $577.21 including a special dona-	very easily. For instance : Somebody	chronic, scrolulous, organic, nervous, billous and othe disorders that have made their lives miserable, MISH Meetings, Moriah Lodge, No. 300, A. F. M., meets second y evening of each month, in Brown's building.	until our pation shall cease to exist.	However minutely I might describe that drama of danger and death, I could add no-		ILION OF 5120 DV 10 DUV. 8 SCHOOL FOOM	in some other imaginary article (for	foulties from the earliest stoge of female affering, and in every condition of sickness peculiar to them. It will y evening of each month, in Brown's building. nding Stone H. R. A. Chapter, No. 201, meets the	At an early hour in the afternoon the Court House was filled with people,	thing to the knowledge of those around me who were actors in it. Perhaps I can rc-	Pickled Salmon, Haddock, Shad.	tice are published.	which it requires a great deal of faith	impart strength to the system, preserve and restore the beauty of face and form, and insure permanent bealth by evening of each month, in Brown's building. diang Stone H. R. A. (Kapter, No. 201, meets the bready evening of each month, in Brown's building. ida Lodge, No. 117, 1 O. O. F., meets every Friday ig, third floor, in Leister's building. int Hor Chung of I. O. F., meets every second urth Threadays, in Leister's building, third floor. ading Some Lodge, No. S. J. O. G. T., meets every and the Couple No. S. J. O. C. T., meets every and the Lodge No. S. J. O. C. T. meets every a prening in third floor of Head's building. No. S. S. J. O. C. J. H. Dels every	and the line of march was shortly ta-	mind them of no circumstance they are not already familiar with. Be it said to their	Trout, White Fish, Mackerel, Dry	This institution has now been in on-	men go after the fungy idel and in the	cold only by respectation druggists, my19-bom.
nt Hor Cump of I. O. O. F., nicets every second urth Tuesdays, in Leister's building, third floor.	ken up toward to the Cometery head-		smoked Herring, by the hall and quar	eration for three and a balf years, and the following statistics may be inter		PAINTS FOR FARMERS AND OTHERSThe Grafton Mineral Paint Company ding Stone Lodge, No. 85, J. O. G. T., meets every y creating in third floor of Read's building.	ed by the Huntingdon Silver Cornet Band, which played the Dead March	where troops had never gane before, and	ter barrel, kitt, pound and dozen. All	69110 ~ .	we might also mention lotteries, where	ATHERS-The Grafton Mineral Paint Company are now manufacturing the Best, Cheepest and pose to raile Paint: in use; two conta well put on, mixed with pure Linesed Oil, will has ten or fifteen years; it is of light brown or heavilied cheroches cacherer apohoe Tribe, No. 68, I. O. of R. M., meets every day evening, third floor, Leister's building. Ing Men's Christian Association meets the first and	(in such a sweet but mournful manner	The limited time I can occupy to-day will	warranted, and cheaper than else where.	Of the whole number admitted, there	we might also mention lotteries, where a man will go ten or more dollars in the wild dream of realizing ten thou-	light brown or beautiful checelate color, and can be 33, G. A. R., meets Third Monday of each month	that not a few were so impressed with the solemnity of the occasion that the	to the more important of the battles in which		were 156 boys and 121 girls. Of those now present, there are 109 boys and	the wild dream of realizing ten thou-	suit the taste of the constitute, and alway of cream, to see, Febres, Barns, Carriage and Car makers, Palls an
rt House. s Council meets the first Friday evening of each	I have a hard and the in strong A cilant	BUILDERS IFOR IIULGINGUON COUNTY WERE EL-		93 girls. Of the whole number ad.	he montioned but one which claims	Wooden-ware, Agricultural Inplements, Canal Boats Vessels and Ships' Bottoms, Canvas, Metal and Shingle Roofs, (it being Fire and Water proof.) Filor Oil Clother (one Moniform Fire and Water proof.) Filor Oil Clother Churches.	prayer was offered up for the brave	gaged. They fought and fell, not only on that line running directly south of us to the		i mitted, there were 90 from Hunting-1	particular attention, and which we	Reofs, (it being Fire and Water proof.) Fibor Oil Olothe (one Manufacturer having used 5.000 bbls, the past year
t ChurchWashington Street. Rev. J. W. Plan- wett. services on Sablath : 101/4 a. m., 7 p m. ic Washington Street. Kev. J. Murphy. Ser-	fathers who slopt as the boys and girls of the Cassville Soldiers' Orphans School	Potomac and beyond-not only in those con-		don county, 69 from Blair, 47 from Center, 31 from Cambria, 26 from	of many to follow in the same steps of	¹⁴ cofs. (It being Fire and Yaker proof.) Fiber Oil Olobb (one Manufacturer hring used 5000 oblet: the past year sud as a paint for any purpose is unsurpassed for body durability, elasticity and adhesircease. Price $6 pe bbl. of 300 Bs., which will supply a farmor for year b come. Warranted in all cases as above. Send for a sir cular which gives full particulars. None genuine unless branded in a trade mark, drattor. Mineral Painter: Par c-Washington Street. Rev. 31. Murphy. Services first three Sundays in every month.		I ting among your own hillsnot only at Get-		Clearfield, 13 from Bedford, 1 from	another, instead of taking some other	come. Warranted in all cases as above. Send for a cir cular which gives full particulars. None complete mos test first three Sundays in overy month. sites first three Sundays in overy month. sitest Lutherna-Mifflin Street. Rev. J. J. Kerr. services on Sabbath : 10½ a. m., 7 p. m. n Reformed-Church Street. Rev. S. D. Steckle	blue, and thankful indeed should every	tysburg, but at Chickamauganot only in the Wilderness and at Richmond, but at Look- out Neuroscie at Nicionarus Pilos, at Dess	Flour.	Franklin, Toese from Bedford and Franklin were transferred to White	direction; in other words the folly of	branded in a trade mark, Grafton, Mineral Paints' Por sons can order the Paint and remit the money on ra n Neuormen-Unurch Street, Eev. S. D. Steckle Service on Sabbath: 7. p. m. Hat Folgeneal-Church Street	dead soldiers foundly cared for and in-	out monutain, at missionary mage, at nesa-		Franklin. These from Bedford, I from Franklin. These from Bedford and Franklin were transferred to White Hall.	bueiness. We have noticed that in our	ceipt of the goods. Address R. L. FAHNESTOCK & CO., Pittshargh.
invointed-Church Street, Iev. S. D. Steckie farvies on Sabbath: 7. p. n. Ist Episcopal-Church Street. Rev. R. E. Wilson. ervices on Sabbath: 10½ a. m., 7 p. m. ant Kpiscopal-Hill street. Rev. A. H. Boyle, vervices on Sabbath: 10½ a. m., 2 p. m. koriau-Hill Street. Rev. G. W. Zahnisor. Ser- tices on Sabbath: 11 a. m., 7 p. m.	structed at these homes which grace	in from the first to the last, and went out not	The best Flour by the barrel, sack	. OI LOOFE Who have been discharged i	town no new thing lease a mean of it.	For sale by the pound or barrel at Lewis' Boo toriau-Hill Street. Rev. G. W. Zahniser. Ser-	our Commonwealth.	until the rebel chieftnin had surrendered for- ever the miserable pretensions to nationality	or nound. Cheaper for the same anal.	at the age of 16; there were, from Hun- tingdou, 11 boys and 5 girls-total, 16;	the town wents and he man to the	Store, novie 6m order of exercises was opened by the	that had been made by the pseudo power he	,	Irom Blair, 12 boys and 3 ciris-total	Agness and trouble of matting it	DEAFNESS, BLINDNESS and CA TARINI treated with the utmost success, by J f Items. a Mavestawa naner will is turning out	Orphans singing "My country 'tis of	represented. Nothing has been more thoroughly tried	· · ·	15; from Center, 6 boys and 8. girls- totul, 14; from Clearfield, 3 boys and	When once in operation the hawks are	ISAACS, M. D., and Professor of Diteases of the Eye an Bar in the Medical College of Pennsylvania, 12 years expen-
1,000 to 1.500 lbs. of straw wrapping	thee," after which Rev. J. W. Plannett offored a prayer. Next followed read-	and proved by experience than the qualities	PRESENTS EVERY MUNTH.	2 girls—total, 5; from Cambria, 2 boys	if it does, up starts a few more institu.	Philidelphia. Testimonials can be seen at this officer. The medical faculty are invited to seen at this officer.
r per day.	ing of the General Orders of the G. A.	hand has the second second by an in the second seco		and 3 girls-total, 5. Grand total, 34	tions of the same kind, which has the	12A(23), TARGEL Treated with the utmost success, by J 18AACS, M. D., and Professor of Directs of the Eye on Ear in the Medical College of Pennsylvania, 12 years expe- ience, (formerly of Leyden, Holland.) No. 805 ARCH 31 Phil delphin. Testimonials can be seen at this office Attenuedical faculty are invited to accompany their pr ilonts, as he has ne secrets in his practice. Artificia Byes inserted without pain. No chargo for examination Jung 17, 1868-19bn.
me scamp entered the residence of J. R.	I. In relation to the ceremony, when	trepidity, and his steadiness in battle, that it is impossible to tell what particular instance	Sugars.	The whole number admitted into	ing man, and fooling those who expect	June 17, 1868-19bm.
son, Esq., lust week, and stole a fine pair nts that were lying on his bed.	the following address :	most demonstrates his merits. He has been	Bugais.	[100 school represented 132 different]	ted to make a fortune Of course the	MARKETS.
e hour of the public daily prayer meet-	SOLDIERS AND CITIZENS : On this memorial occasion, this second recurrence of our new	described as the civilized, soher, well educa- ted citizen, animated with the consciousness	An Kinub, at vory sman promps. 1100	families, of which 2 had 5 children each; 13 had 4 children cach; 23 had	tion that interesting faller in but	WHOLZSALE MARKET.
n the room of the Y. M. C. A. has been	national anniversary, we have assembled at	that he was fighting for a great cause, in the) S CHUGTER ESCO · SX, NOG · Z Chuldren	mould it not be miner for these whether	PHILADELPHIA, Hay 29, 1869. Supplane Flour per barrol ged to commence at half-past four.	the request of the surviving soldiors and in re-			and 42 were represented by 1 child each.	have money to invest to give it to.	Extra Flour per barrel railroad employee named Henderson	render some token of honor and veneration	Lie and Cause born his common sense and		Of the whole number admitted, there	some new object? IMPROVEMENT.	ned wheat per onshoi recently run over by the Cincinnati Ex- s at Woodvale, Cambria county, and in-		have said that he has returned to his peace-	RED FRONT.	were, of Methodist parentage, 131;	The following numbers for May are entitled to presents at Enterprise	Rye per bushel
ly killed.	And in doing this, is it not in accordance	I ha avocation. Long may it be until he shan	•		Headquarters:	Barley per bushel be Fourth of July this year falls on Sun-	with the motives which should actuate us to	safe reliance on his strong arm, if it shall		ed, 5; Roman Catholic, 5; Disciples, 5;	3220 Jumping Jack.	Timothy per bushel
Would not a prayer in all the churches	hope for some incidental benefits to ourselves?	ever hereafter be needed to defend our coun- try's interests against any fue, be it British	•	Dunkard, 6; Church of God, 5; Con- gregationalist, 3; Universalist, 3; Ad	2562 Pound Coffee. 11436 Wisp.	PITTSBURGH, May 24, 1869.
ur nation and its legislators be very ap- riate?	And the second fail a share of small Coalism and	dominion on the north of us, Mexican anar- archy on the south, or Spanish despotism on	Stand	gantiet 2. Allwight 2. and 25 and not	3952 Sack Salt.	White Wheat Flour per barrel shing with rod and line is quite popular	national life which has been secured for us?	the manua of the sen.	Syrups.	given.	10779 One Lady's Work Box. 6557 One Can Spiced Oysters	Oats per bushel seining is done away with by law. The	caremonies the day that mare birth to our in-	The presence of so many of the people of this community and county here to-day,	The best Silver and Golden Drips,	The faculty of the Cassville School	10445 One Can Preserved Fruit 3619 One Package Roasted Coffee	Rye par bushel ge is better for the quality of fishing if	dependence how much more important that	change that and area have not some dull and	genuine Lovering and other Syrups.	is at present composed of the follow-or the quantity of fishes.	a defiendence, now much more important tint	shows that our eyes have not grown dull, our	Nom Onlogue and athen Dalate Ma	ing persons: Superintendent, Rev. A.	6901 One package Candy.	Cured Shoulders
	we commemorate, appropriately, the services	cred trust. The spirit that has brought us	Nom Onlogue and athen Dalate Ma	ing persons : Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss ; Teachers, Messrs. A. H. Weid-	6901 One package Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh.	Clear Sides
Buston paper is in favor of women vot-	we commemorate, approprintely, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let	hands slack, nor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been	Nom Onlogue and athen Dalate Ma	ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Tcachors, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W.	6901 One pnokage Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10624 25 fb Sack Family Flour.	Clear Sides IIota.
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A wastern paper would	we commemorate, approprintely, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses.	ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Tcachors, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttle, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con-	6901 One package Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10624 25 ib Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian aystem of Permanahip.	Clear Sides FINANCIAL. New York, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136. HUNTINGDON MARKETS. CORRECTED WHEKLY BY HENRY & 00.
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by culogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene-	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fume of our heroic fallen. How	Nom Onlogue and athen Dalate M.	ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Tcachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have	6001 One pnokage Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10624 25 fb Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pocket Knifa.	Clear Sides FINANCIAL NEW YORE, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136. HUNTINGDON MARKETS. CORRECTED WHEKLY BY HENRY & 00. WHOLESALE FRICES. FLOUR—Superfine Flour, per barrel. $5.0
Buston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses.	ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Tcachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of	 6901 One pnokago Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10624 25 th Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Album. 9939 Maguire's Toilot Set. 	Clear Sides FINANGIAL, FINAN
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be oled with bugs—the June bugs that na-	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by culogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, sarly given and long continued, to our highly favored country.	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses.	ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Tcachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our	 6001 One package Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10624 25 fb Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Alburn. 9930 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 	Clear Sides FINANCIAL. NEW YORK, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136. HUNTINGDON MARKETS. CORRECTED WHEKLY BY HENRY & 00. WHOLESALS FEIORS. FLOUR.—Superfine Flour, per barrel. $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 7.0 GRAIN—Red Wheat, per bushel. 1.3
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A wastern paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to cat up the vegetables—and big	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and retuder thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. Wo are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavonward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom-	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. H. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount	 6001 One pnokago Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10624 25 fb Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Posket Knife. 8370 Photograph Albura. 9939 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6435 " Laundry Soap 6534 " Magical Soap 	Clear Sides FINANCIAL. NEW YORE, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136. HUNTINGDON MARKEJTS. CORRECTED WHEKLY BY HENRY & 00. WHOLESALS PRIORS. FLOUR.—Superfine Flour, per barrel. $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 7.0 GRAIN.—Red Wheat, per bushel, 1.3 White Wheat, do 1.4 Rye. do 1.2
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- f they want to. A wastern paper would o see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to cat up the vegetables—and big from the city.	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our fullen courands, whose remains lie in this Counter.	Indus slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done.	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which	 6001 One pnokage Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 fb Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Pesmanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Alburn. 9930 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6435 " Laundry Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 	Clear Sides FINANCIAL. NEW YORE, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136. HUNTINGDON MARKEJTS. CORRECTED WHEKLY BY HENRY & 00. WHOLESALS PRIORS. FLOUR.—Superfine Flour, per barrel. $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 7.0 GRAIN.—Red Wheat, per bushel, 1.3 White Wheat, do 1.4 Rye. do 1.2
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- f they want to. A western paper would o see the man who could make them f they didn't want to. Intry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to cat up the vegetables—and big from the city. ron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, een lodged in the Lewistown jail, on	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen countacy, whose romains lie in this Cemetry. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic falles. How soon shall a monument rise heavonward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the unighty decas that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships ' that have been endured, the difficulties first here here represented	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. IL. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against, the system which established and maintains' these Or-	 6001 One package Candy. 6572 Bein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 ib Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian system of Permanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Poeket Knife. 8370 Photograph Album. 9930 Maguire's Toilot Sct. 7551 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6335 " Lagndry Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 5339 " Dexter Soap 7751 " Lows Cleaning Soap 	Clear Sides FINANCIAL. NEW YORE, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136. HUNTINGDON MARKEJTS. CORRECTED WHEKLY BY HENRY & 00. WHOLESALS PRIORS. FLOUR.—Superfine Flour, per barrel. $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 7.0 GRAIN.—Red Wheat, per bushel, 1.3 White Wheat, do 1.4 Rye. do 1.2
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- f they want to. A western paper would o see the man who could make them f they didn't want to. Intry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to cat up the vegetables—and big from the city. ron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, een lodged in the Lewistown jsil, on cion of taking $20 from a lotter which	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen comrades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they wore borne to this final resting place-men who	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the unighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships ' that have been endured, the difficulties that have been encountered, the perile that have been unct, the examples	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap.	ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Tcachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that	6001 One pnokage Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 fb Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Penmanship. 11399 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Alburn. 9930 Maguire's Toilot Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6435 " Laundry Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 5330 " Oriental Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 7751 " House Cleaning Soap 7320 " Dobbins Soap 7320 " Olive Soap	Clear Sides FINANCIAL. NEW YORE, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136. HUNTINGDON MARKENTS. CORRECTED WHEKLY BY HENRY & 00. WHOLESALS PRIORS. FLOUR.—Superfine Flour, per barrel. $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 1.4 White Wheat, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.2 Cora, do 9 Oats, do 6 Barley, do 122 SEED—Timothy, do 2.5
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- f they want to. A western paper would o see the man who could make them f they didn't want to. Intry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to cat up the vegetables—and big from the city. ron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, een lodged in the Lewistown jail, on cion of taking $20 from a lotter which sents to his house by mistake.	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. Wo are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our fallen comrades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honre of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they were borne to this final resting placemen who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in deface of the	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavonward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships' that have been endured, the gerile that have been mot, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. H. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best,	6001 One pnokage Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 fb Sack Family Flour. 6772 Babbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Album. 9930 Maguire's Toilot Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Scap 6435 " Laundry Scap 6334 " Magical Scap 5339 Oriental Scap 11222 " Dexter Scap 7751 " House Cleaning Scap 7751 " Louse Cleaning Scap 70005 " Olive Scap 6374 The Hero Boy.	Clear Sides FINANGIAL. NEW YORE, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136. HUNTINGDON MARKENTS. CORRECTED WBEKLY BY HENRY & 00. WHOUSALE PRIORS. FLOUR.—Superfine Flour, per barrel. $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 1.2 OGRAIN—Red Wheat, per bushel, 1.3 White Wheat, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.2 Corn, do 9 Oats, do 6 Barley, do 1.2 SED-Timothy, do 2.5 Flaxseed, nor 64 lbs. 6.0
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to eat up the vegetables—and big from the city. won Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, seen lodged in the Lewistown jail, on cion of taking $20 from a letter which sent to his house by mistake. fash of ligtning on Friday ovening last	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. Wo are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our fallen comrades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honre of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they were borne to this final resting placemen who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in deface of the	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavonward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships' that have been endured, the gerile that have been mot, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. IL. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against, the system which established and maintains. these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very bost, of its class. The appearance, manhers, attaioments and	6001 One pnokago Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 ib Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Pesmanship. 11309 Hair-brush nul Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Alburn. 9939 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6435 "Laundry Soap 6534 "Magical Soap 5339 "Oriointal Soap 11222 "Dexter Soap 7751 "House Cleaning Sonp 7729 "Dobbins Soap 10005 "Olive Soap 6374 The Hero Buy. 8115 Sugar Cured Ham. 6082 50 Ib Sack Family Flour.	Clear Sides FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, FLOUR, Superfine Flour, Corn, C
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- they want to. A wastern paper would be see the man who could make them f they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- ends to eat up the vegetables—and big from the city. ron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, een lodged in the Lewistown jail, on bion of taking $20 from a lotter which ant to his house by mistake. lash of ligtning on Friday ovening last a pine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend-	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and reuder thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our fullen countacts, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they were borne to this final resting placemen who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than solf. If we were the cume here with each rature of	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic falles. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships that have been endured, the difficulties that have been encountered, the gorils that have been mot, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforcotten, through all coming time. I	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Tcachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and maintains. these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manbers, attaioments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell	 6001 One pnokago Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 th Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Albura. 9930 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 5330 " Oriontal Soap 5330 " Oriontal Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 7751 " House Cleaning Sonp 7329 " Dobbins Soap 1005 " Olive Soap 6874 The Hero Boy. 8115 Sugar Cured Ham. 	Clear Sides NEW YORE, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136 HUNTINGDON MARKEYTS. CORRECTED WHEKLY BY HENRY & CO. WHOLESAR FRICES. FLOUR—Superfine Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 7.0 GRAIN—Red Wheat, per bushel, 1.3 White Wheat, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.2 Corn, do 9 Oats, do 6 Barloy, do 1.2 SEED—Timothy, do 2.5 Flaxseed, do 2.2 Cloverseed, per 64 lbs. 6.0 Provisions—Potatoes, per bushel; 70@8 Dried Apples, do 2.2 Corn Meal, per cwt., 2.2
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- f they want to. A western paper would o see the man who could make them f they didn't want to. Intry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to eat up the vegetables—and big from the city. ron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, een lodged in the Lewistown jail, on cion of taking $20 from a lotter which sent to his house by mistake. Assh of ligtning on Friday ovening last s a pine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- from top to bottom. Mrs. Isanc Long tunned by the shock, but soon recovered	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and reuder thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our fullen countacts, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they were borne to this final resting placemen who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than solf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful senson, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to shed	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the unighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships ' that have been endured, the difficulties that have been endured, the difficulties that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embody in marble and brass the centi- ment of the poet:	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manners, attainments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared	 6001 One pnokago Candy. 6572 Bein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 ib Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian system of Peamaship. 11399 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Poeket Knife. 8370 Photograph Album. 9939 Maguire's Toilot Set. 7551 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6335 " Lagndry Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 7751 " House Cleaning Soap 7320 " Dekter Soap 7320 " Debins Soap 7320 " Dobbins Soap 6374 The Horo Buy. 8115 Sugar Cured Ham. 6082 50 fb Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Pencil. 	Clear Sides FINANCIAL, NEW YORK, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136. HUNTINGDON MARKEJTS. CORRECTED WBEKLY BY HENRY & 00. WHOLESALE PRIORS. FLOUR.—Superfine Flour, do Extra Flour, do Family Flour, do GRAIN—Ked Wheat, per bushel, 1.3 White Wheat, do 1.4 Rye, do 0.12 Cora, do 9 0ats, do 12 SEED—Timothy, do 25 Flaxseed, per 64 lbs. Cora Meal, per cwt., Dried Apples, do 25 Cora Meal, per cwt., 25 Cora Meal, per cwt., 25 Cora Meal, per pound, 25 Cora Meal, per cwt., 25 Cora Meal, per pound, 25 Cora Meal, per pound, 25 Cora Meal, per cwt., 25 Cora Meal, per pound, 25 Cora Meal, per cwt., 25 Cora Meal, per pound, 25 Cora Meal, per cwt., 25 Cora Meal, per pound, 25 Cora Meal, per cwt., Cora Meal, per cwt., Co
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- f they want to. A western paper would o see the man who could make them f they didn't want to. Intry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to eat up the vegetables—and big from the city. ron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, een lodged in the Lewistown jail, on cion of taking $20 from a lotter which sent to his house by mistake. Assh of lighting on Friday ovening last is a pine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- from top to bottom. Mrs. Isaac Long tunned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as leniont to the liv-	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen counrades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they wore borne to this final resting place-men who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than colf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful season, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to shed floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to insert the the menes on entralde.	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic falles. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the bardships that have been endured, the difficulties that have been encountered, the yorils that have been met, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embody in marble and brass the centi- ment of the poet: "Make her birs ratures are placed on high Under the dome of the Union expression	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. IL. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against, the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manhers, attainments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de-	 6001 One package Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 ib Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Album. 9930 Maguire's Toilot Sot. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 7751 " House Cleaning Soap 7820 " Detbins Soap 7820 " Dobbins Soap 1222 " Dettar Soap 7820 " Dobbins Soap 6874 The Here Boy. 8115 Sugar Cured Ham. 6825 50 ib Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Pencil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Diotionary. Liadles Dresses and Boys Clothing. MRS. B. ANNIE MCCABE and MISS 	Clear Sides FINANCIAL, NEW YORK, MAY 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136. HUNTINGDON MARKETS. CORRECTED WBEKLY BY HENRY & 00. WHOLESALE FRIORS. FLOUR—Superfine Flour, per barrel, $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.2 Cora, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.2 Cora, do 2.2 Cora, do 2.2 Cora, do 2.2 Cora, do 2.2 Cora, do 2.2 Choyerseed, per 64 ibs. Pravisions—Protaces, per bushel; 7068 Dried Apples, do 2.5 Cora Meal, per cwt., 2.2 Dried Peaches, per pound, 22 Beef, do 22
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- f they want to. A western paper would o see the man who could make them f they didn't want to. Intry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- ends to cat up the vegetables—and big from the city. ron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, een lodged in the Lewistown jsil, on bion of taking $20 from a letter which ent to his house by mistake. lash of ligtning on Friday ovening last is a pine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- from top to bottom. Mrs. Isanc Long tunned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as leviont to the liv- s we are to the dead, how much happier	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen comrades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they wore borne to this final resting place-men who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than colf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful season, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to shed floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures broad as the carth itself, the debt which we, as a people, owe them, could never be	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic falles. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the bardships that have been endured, the difficulties that have been encountered, the yorils that have been met, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embody in marble and brass the centi- ment of the poet: "Make her birs ratures are placed on high Under the dome of the Union expression	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap. RED FRONT.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Gues; Teachers, Messrs. A. IL. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against, the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manners, attaioments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de- sired for them? What man of patriot-	 6001 One pnokago Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 th Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Albura. 9930 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6334 " Magical' Soap 6334 " Magical' Soap 5330 " Oriontal Soap 5330 " Oriontal Soap 7551 " House Cleaning Sonp 7320 " Dubbins Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 7351 " House Cleaning Sonp 7320 " Dubbins Soap 1005 " Olive Soap 6825 50 th Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Penoil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Diotionary. Liadies Dresses and Boys Clothing. Mas, B. ANNIE MCCABE and Miss MARY REEVES respectfully inform the 	Clear Sides FINANCIAL, FINANCIAL, NEW YORK, MAY 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136. HUNTINGDON MARKETS. CORRECTED WBEKLY BY HENRY & 00. WHOLESALE FRIORS. FLOUR.—Superfine Flour, do. Extra Flour, do. 6.0 Family Flour, do. 1.4 Rye, do. 1.2 Corn, do. 9 Oats, do. 1.2 SEED—Timothy, do. 2.2 Corn, do. 2.2 Diried Apples, do. 2.5 Corn Meal, per cwt., 2.2 Dried Peaches, per pound, 2.5 Corn Meal, do. 2 Lard, do. 2 Pork, do. 1 Butter, do. 3
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- f they want to. A western paper would be see the man who could make them f they didn't want to. Intry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- ends to cat up the vegetables—and big from the city. roon Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, een lodged in the Lewistown jail, on bion of taking $20 from a lotter which ent to his house by mistake. lash of lighting on Friday ovening last is a pine tree on Stone Greek hill, rend- from top to bottom. Mrs. Isane Long tunned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as lepient to the liv- is we are to the dead, how much happier twe rendre them, and from how much and bitter remorse might we be spared.	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen comrades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they wore borne to this final resting place-men who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than solf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful senson, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we wore to shed floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures brond as the carth itself, the delt which we as a people, owe them, could never be puid. How spiritless, how inexpressive, how inscribent is all that, we can do are not	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the unighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships ' that have been endured, the difficulties that have been endured, the difficulties that have been endured, the difficulties that have been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embed in the first temple ' mad when their stames are placed on high ' make the there is the bein and brass the centi- ment of the ports' ' The American soldier's temple of Fane, There with the glordus General's names. In the taxing the first manes, the taxing Schridt in the the first ' Mad when their stame are placed on high ' Under the down of the Dino sky ' The American soldier's temple of Fane, There with the glordus General's names. In the taxing Schridt in the first	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. IL. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against, the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manhers, attainments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de-	 6001 One package Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 fb Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Permanship. 11399 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Alburn. 9930 Maguire's Toilot Set. 7351 Oae pound Babbitt's Soap 6435 " Laundry Soap 6435 " Laundry Soap 6534 " Magical Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 7351 " House Cleaning Soap 7352 " Dobbins Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 7353 Olive Soap 7350 " Oriental Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 7351 " House Cleaning Soap 7352 " Dobbins Soap 6874 The Hero Boy. 8115 Sugar Cured Ham. 6682 50 Ib Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Pencil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Ladtes Dresses and Boys Clothing. Mas. B. ANNIE MCCABE and MISS MARY REEVES respectfully inform the public that they bave removed to the house formerly occupied by H. McMan- 	Clear Sides NEW YORE, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136 HUNTINGDON MARKENTS. CORRECTED WHEKLY BY HENRY & CO. WHOLESALE PHORE. FLOUR.—Superfine Flour, per barnel, $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.2 Corn, do 9 Oats, do 6. Barley, do 1.2 Corn, do 2.5 Flaxseed, do 2.5 Flaxseed, do 2.5 Cloverseed, per 64 lbs. 6.0 Provisions—Potatoes, per bushel, 70@8 Dried Apples, do 2.5 Corn Meal, per cwt., 2.2 Dried Penches, per pound, 22 Lard, do 1 Butter, do 3 Cheese, do 25 Eggs, per dozen, 4
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- f they want to. A western papor would o see the man who could make them f they didn't want to. Intry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- ends to cat up the vegetables—and big from the city. roin Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, een lodged in the Lewistown jail, on cion of taking $20 from a lotter which ent to his house by mistake. lash of lighting on Friday ovening last is a pine tree on Stone Greek hill, rend- from top to bottom. Mrs. Isane Long tunned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as lenient to the liv- s we are to the dead, how much happier twe render them, and from how much and bitter remorse might we be spared.	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen comrades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they wore borne to this final resting placemen who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than solf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful senson, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we wore to shed floods of tears that could nover be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures brond as the carth itself, the debt which we as a people, ow them, could never be paid. How spiritless, how inexpressive, how insignificant is all that we can do or say to manifest our admiration and gratitude, com	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the unighly deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships ' that have been endured, the difficulties that have been endured, the difficulties that have been endured, the gorils that have been and, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embody in marble and brass the senti- ment of the ports the bold on bigh Under the older of the Onion exty The American soldier's temple of Fame. There with the glorides from the fight Hy carrying Sheridan into the fight Krom Winchester-wenty mits acony. " I cannot believe that any fail to realize and	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap. RED FRONT. Coffees.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manners, attainments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de- sired for them? What man of patriot- ic and benevolent instincts would give them less?	 6001 One package Candy. 6572 Bein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 lb Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Poeket Knife. 8370 Photograph Album. 9930 Maguire's Toilot Sot. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 7751 " House Cleaning Soap 7820 " Debbins Soap 1222 " Detter Soap 7320 " Dobbins Soap 10005 " Olive Soap 6874 The Here Boy. 8115 Sugar Cured Ham. 6082 50 lb Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Pencil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Diotionary. Ladtes Dresses and Boys Clothing. Mary Reeves respectfully inform the public that they bave removed to the house formerly occupied by H. McManigill, on Washington street, and are 	Clear Sides
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- f they want to. A western paper would o see the man who could make them f they didn't want to. Intry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to eat up the vegetables—and big from the city. ron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, een lodged in the Lewistown jail, on cion of taking $20 from a letter which sent to his house by mistake. Ash of ligtning on Friday ovening last a pine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- from top to bottom. Mrs. Isane Long tunned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as leniont to the liv- s we are to the dead, how much happier t we render them, and from how much and bitter remorse might we be spared. e decoration of soldiers' graves, we should be observed on the last Satur-	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and schievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen courades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they wore borne to this final resting place-men who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than colf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful season, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to shed floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures broad as the carth itself, the debt which we as a people, owe them, could never be puid. How spiritless, how inexpressive, how insignificant is all that we can do or say to manifest our admiration and gratitude, com- pared with what they deserve?	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic falles. How soon shall a monument rise heavonward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the unighty decas that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships that have been endured, the officulties that have been met, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down togother, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embody in marble and brass the senti- ment of the poet: "Mad when their sitnes are placed on high Under the dome of the Juion sky The with the glorious General's name, Is it aid in letters both boli end bright. Here is the seculate day By carrying Shridian with the fight Krom Winchester-twenty miles away. " I cannot believe that any fail to realize and appreciate the sacrifice that has been made	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap. RED FRONT. Coffees. Ronsted and Green, cheap as the	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and maintains. these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manhers, attainments and epirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de- sired for them? What man of patriot- ic and benevolent instincts would give them less?	 6001 One pnokage Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 ib Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Permanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Alburn. 9930 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6435 " Laundry Soap 6534 " Magical Soap 5339 " Oriontal Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 7551 " House Cleaning Soap 10055 " Olive Soap 10055 " Olive Soap 10055 " Olive Soap 10055 " Olive Soap 10055 Webster's Unabridged Diotionary. Ladtes Dresses and Boys Clothing. Mark REEVES respectfully inform the public that they have removed to the house formerly occupied by H. McManigill, on Washington street, and are prepared to make Ladies. They reset and Boys Clothing of all kinds. They re- 	Clear Sides NEW YORE, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136 HUNTINGDON MARKENTS. CORRECTED WHEKLY BY HENRY & CO. WHOLESAR FRICES. FLOUR.—Superfine Flour, per barnel, $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.2 Cora, do 9 Oats, do 6.0 Pacyrisions—Potatoes, per bushel, 7008 Dried Apples, do 2.5 Cora Meal, per cwt., 2.2 Dried Peaches, per pound, 2.2 Cora, do 2.5 Flaxseed, do 2.5 Cora Meal, per cwt., 2.2 Dried Peaches, per pound, 2.2 Lard, do 1 Butter, do 1 State, 1 Stoulder. 1 Shoulder.
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to eat up the vegetables—and big from the city. uron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, seen lodged in the Lewistown jail, on cion of taking $20 from a letter which sent to his house by mistake. flash of ligtning on Friday ovening last k a pine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- t from top to bottom. Mrs. Isanc Long stunned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as leniont to the liv- is we are to the dead, how much happier it we render them, and from how much and bitter remors might we be spared. e decontation of soldiers' graves, we t, should be observed on the last Satur- of May in each year, as then more poo-	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen comrades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they wore borne to this final resting placemen who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than solf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful senson, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to shed floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures brond as the carth itself, the delt which we as a people, owe them, could never be paid. How spiritless, how inexpressive, how insignificant is all that we can do or say to manifest our admiration and gratitude, com- pared with what they deserve? Peace to the patricy's shade? Let no rude hand distub the lavels that lest on his tomb?	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the unighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships ' that have been endured, the difficulties that have been endured, the difficulties that have been endured, the difficulties that have been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embody in marble and brass the senti- ment of the ports ' "Mad when their stames are placed on high Under the olderise temple of Fame, The American soldier's temple of Fame, The American soldier's temple of Fame, ' Mind when their stames are placed on high ' Mindestheter-twenty mits accoy.'' I cannot believe that any fail to realize and appreciate the sacrifice that has been made in defense of our personal safety, in mainte- nance of free government and in support of	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap. RED FRONT. Coffees.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manners, attainments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de- sired for them? What man of patriot- ic and benevolent instincts would give them less? DARING ROBERYOn Friday last a Geman emigrant was robbed of 4, 000 frances between Midlin and this	 6001 One package Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 th Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Albura. 9930 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6435 " Lagndry Soap 6534 " Magical Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 7551 " House Cleaving Soap 1222 " Detter Soap 7351 " House Cleaving Soap 1222 " Detter Soap 7352 " Unbits Sup 10005 " Olive Suap 10005 " Olive Suap 6874 The Hero Bay. 8115 Sugar Cared Ham. 6082 50 fb Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Penoil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Diotionary. Ladtes Dresses and Boys Clothing. Mark REEVES respectfully inform the public that they bave removed to the house formerly occupied by H. McManigill, on Washington street, and are prepared to make Ladies' Dresses and Boys' Clothing of all kinds. They respectfully solicit a full share of pat- 	Clear Sides
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to eat up the vegetables—and big from the city. ron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, seen lodged in the Lewistown jail, on cion of taking $20 from a letter which sent to his house by mistake. fash of ligtning on Friday ovening last k a pine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- t from top to bottom. Mrs. Isane Long stunned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as leniont to the liv- s we are to the dead, how much happier t we render them, and from how much and bitter remorse might we be spared. e decoration of soldiers' graves, we c, should be observed on the last Satur- of May in each year, as then more poo- an engage in the ceromonies than on any	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen comrades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they wore borne to this final resting placemen who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than solf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful senson, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to shed floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures brond as the carth itself, the delt which we as a people, owe them, could never be paid. How spiritless, how inexpressive, how insignificant is all that we can do or say to manifest our admiration and gratitude, com- pared with what they deserve? Peace to the patricy's shade? Let no rude hand distub the lavels that lest on his tomb?	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint futuro generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the bardships ' but have been endured, the difficulties that have been endured, the gorils that have been mot, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embedy in marble and brass the senti- ment of the poot: "And when their statures are placed on high Under the dome of the offous eky The American soldier's temple of Fame. The American soldier's temple of Fame. I staid in letters both bold and bright. Here the state state are placed on high Under the state state and plates and the tasid in letters both bold and bright. Here the state state are splaced on high Under the state state and plates and the tasid in letters both bold and bright. Here the state state are splaced on high Under the state are the state are splaced on high Under the dome of the state are splaced on high Under the dome of the state the state. The American soldier's temple of Fame. The American soldier's temple of a mare. I is that letters both bold and bright. Here is the state that state day." I cannot believe that any fail to realize and appreciate the snarifice that has been made in defense of our personal safety, in maintee nance of free government and in support of the integrity of the Union. Though we are not here to do honor in the durable and last.	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap. RED FRONT. Coffees. Ronsted and Green, cheap as the cheapest for the same quality	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. IL. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and 'maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manners, attainments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de- sired for them? What man of patriot- ie and benevolent instincts would give them less? DARING RONDERY.—On Friday last a German emigrant was robbed of '4, 000 france between Miflin and this city.' The German bad the money	 6001 One package Candy. 6572 Bein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 lb Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Poeket Knife. 8370 Photograph Album. 9939 Maguire's Toilot Sct. 7551 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6335 " Lagndry Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 7511 " House Cleaning Soap 7320 " Dobbins Soap 1222 " Dexter Soap 7320 " Dobbins Soap 10005 " Olive Soap 6374 The Hore Boy. 8115 'Sugar Cured Ham. 6052 50 fb Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Pencil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Diotionary. Ladtes Dresses and Boys Clothing. MRS. B. ANNIE MCCABE and MISS MARY REEVES respectfully inform the public that they bave removed to the house formerly occupied by H. McManigill, on Washington street, and are prepared to make Ladies' Dresses and Boys' Clothing of all kinds. They respectfully solicit a full share of patients. 	Clear Sides NEW YORE, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136 HUNTINGDON MARKEPTS. CORRECTED WHEKLY BY HENRY & CO: WHOLESALE FRICES. FLOUR.—Superfine Flour, per barnel, $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 1.2 Corn, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.2 Corn, do 2.5 Flaxseed, do 2.2 Cloyerseed, per 64 lbs. Dried Apples, do 2.5 Corn Meal, per cwt., 2.2 Dried Peaches, per pound, 2.2 Lard, do 2 Batter, do 1 Butter, do 1 Butter, do 2 Choese, do 2 Eags, per dozen, 1 Ham, 5 Side, 12 Cond. Broud Top conl, do 3.00(@35.0 Broud Top conl,
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to eat up the vegetables—and big from the city. ron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, seen lodged in the Lewistown jail, on cion of taking $20 from a letter which sent to his house by mistake. fash of ligtning on Friday ovening last k a pine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- ifrom top to bottom. Mrs. Isaac Long stanned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as leniont to the liv- s we are to the dead, how much happier t we render them, and from how much and bitter remorse might we be spared. e decoration of soldiers' graves, we t, should be observed on the last Satur- of May in each year, as then more poo- an-engage in the ceremonies than on any day.	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and schievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen courades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they wore borne to this final resting place-men who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than colf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful season, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to shed floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures broad as the carth itself, the debt which we as a people, owe them, could never be puid. How spiritless, how inexpressive, how insignificant is all that we can do or say to manifest our adminition and gratitude, com- pared with what they deserve? Peace to the patriot's shade ? Let no rude hand distub the haurols that lest on his tomb ! "Lat orphan tears bedw his sared ur. Aut tame's tout framp proclam the here's name, Far as the circuit of the sphere extends."	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavonward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the bardships ' but have been endured, the difficulties that have been encountered, the officulties that have been mot, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embady in marble and brass the senti- ment of the poet: "Mad when their statues are placed on high Under the dome of the duine sky The American solider's temple of Fame, There with the glorious General's name, lie it add in tetre shot hold and bright. Here is the steed that any fail to realize and appreciate the sacrifice that any fail to realize and appreciate the sacrifice that has been made in defense of our personal safety, in mainte- nance of free government and in support of the integrity of the Union. Though we are not here to do honor in the durable and hast- ing means in which is durable and hast-	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap. RED FRONT. Coffees. Ronsted and Green, cheap as the	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manners, attainments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de- sired for them? What more patriot- ic and benevolent instincts would give them less? DARING RONDERYOn Friday last a German emigrant was robbed of '4, 000 frances between Millin and this city. The German bad the money in a belt buckled around his waist, and says that when he arrived at a sta-	6001 One package Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 th Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Albura. 9930 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6435 " Laundry Soap 6435 " Laundry Soap 6534 " Magical Soap 5339 " Oriental Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 7751 " House Cleaning Soap 7320 " Dobbins Soap 10005 " Olive Soap 6874 The Hero Boy. 8115 Sugar Cared Ham. 6682 50 fb Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Penoil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Diotionary. Ladtes Dresses and Boys Clothing. MRS, B. ANNIE MCCABE and MISS MARY REEVES respectfully inform the public that they have removed to the house formerly occupied by H. McMan- igill, on Washington street, and are prepared to make Ladies' Dresses and Boys' Clothing of all kinds. They re- spectfully solicit a full share of pat- ronage. ap7,-tf.	Clear Sides NEW Yoar, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,413,6 HUNTINGDON MARKETS. CORRECTED WEEKLY BY HENRY 2 00 WHOLESALE PRIORS. FLOUR—Superfine Flour, per barrel, $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.2 Cora, do 9. Oats, do 1.2 Cora, do 2.2 Cora, do 2.2 Cloverseed, per 64 hs. Dried Apples, do 2.5 Corn Meal, per cwt., Dried Peaches, per pound, 2 Beef, do 2 Lard, do 2 Park, do 1 Butter, do 2 Coat.—Ham, do 2 Eggs, per dozen, 1 Ham, 5 Stude, 1 Shoulder, 1 Coat.—Hard coal, per ton, 6.50(28.0 Broad Top conl, do 3.00(20.3 LUMBER, per 1000 fet, 12.00(20.3) Surnales—Lap, per 1000 ft., 10.00(20.3) Surnales—Lap, per 1000 ft., 10.00(20.3)
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to cat up the vegetables—and big from the city. aron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, been lodged in the Lewistown jail, on icion of taking $20 from a letter which sents his house by mistake. flash of ligtning on Friday ovening last k a pine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- t from top to bottom. Mrs. Isanc Long stunned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as leniont to the liv- us we are to the dead, how much happier at we render them, and from how much and bitter remorse might we be spared. to decoration of soldiers' graves, we k, should be observed on the last Satur- of May in each year, as then more poo- ian engage in the ceromonies than on any r day.	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen counrades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was out performed when they wore borne to this final resting place-men who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than colf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful season, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to shed floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures broad as the carth itself, the debt which we, as a people, owe them, could never be puid. How spirilless, how inexpressive, how insignificant is all that we can do or suy to manifest our admiration and gratitude, com- pared with what they deserve? Peace to the patriot's shade? Let no rude hand distub the laurols that lest on his tomb ! "Let orphan tears bedw his sacred nrn. And taken's lowd trung proclam the here's name. Far as the circuit of the apheres extends."	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships 'that have been endured, the difficulties that have been endured, the oprile that have been met, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down togother, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embody in marble and brass the senti- ment of the poot: "And when their statues are placed on high Under the domeat the bolie at been the tast in letters both boli and bright. Here with the glorious General's name, the it add in letters both boli and bright. Here with the glorious General's name, the it add in letters both boli and bright. Here with the glorious General's name, the it add in the the fight Hrom Finchester-leventy mides away. " I cannot believe that any fail to realize and appreciate the sacrifice that has been made in defense of our personal safety, in mainte- nance of free government and in support of the integrity of the Union. Though we are not here to do honor in the durable and last- ing manner in which it should be bestowed, though this eeremory is to be plain and un- ostentious, yet we may trust that it will so	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap. RED FRONT. Coffees. Ronsted and Green, cheap as the cheapest for the same quality	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and maintains. these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manhers, attainments and epirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de- sired for them? What man of patriot- ic and benevolent instincts would give them less? DARING ROBBERYOn Friday last a German emigrant was robbed of 4, 000 frances between Mißlin and this city. ¹ The German bad the money in a belt buckled around his waist, and says that when he arrived at a sta- tion west of Mißlin the went to a res-	 6001 One pnokago Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 ib Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Alburn. 9930 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6435 " Laundry Soap 6534 " Magical Soap 5339 " Oriontal Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 7551 " House Cleaning Soap 1222 " Dexter Soap 7351 Olive Suap 10005 " Olive Suap 10005 " Olive Suap 1005 " Olive Suap 115 Sugar Cared Ham. 6682 50 tb Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Penoil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Diotionary. Ladtes Dresses and Boys Clothing. Mary REEVES respectfully inform the public that they bave removed to the house formerly occupied by H. McManigill, on Washington street, and are prepared to make Ladies' Dresses and Boys' Clothing of all kinds. They respectfully solicit a full share of patronage. ap7,-tf. MRS, L. A. HAMER. MISS MAKING. 	Clear Sides NEW York, May 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136 HUNTINGDON MARKETS. CORRECTED WEEKLY BY HENRY & 00: WHOLESAL PRICES. FLOUR—Superfine Flour, per barnel, $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.2 Corn, do 9 Oats, do 6.0 Pairies do 1.2 Corn, do 2.5 Flaxeed, do 1.2 Cloverseed, per 04 lbs. Dried Apples, do 2.5 Corn Meal, per cwt., 2.2 Dried Peaches, per bushel; 70@8 Dried Apples, do 2.5 Corn Meal, per cwt., 2.2 Dried Peaches, per pound, 2 Barter, do 1 Butter, do 1 Butter, do 1 Butter, do 3 Choese, do 2 Eggs, per dozen, 1 Ham, 5 Side, 3 Side, 12 Sumation and the second of the secon
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be led with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to eat up the vegetables—and big from the city. from Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, seen lodged in the Lewistown jail, on cion of taking $20 from a lotter which sent to bis house by mistake. Aash of ligtning on Friday orening last is apine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- from top to bottom. Mrs. Isane Long tunned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as leniont to the liv- s we are to the dead, how much happier t we render them, and from how much and bitter remorse might we be spared. e decoration of soldiers' graves, we t, should be observed on the last Satur- of May in each year, as then more poo- an engage in the commonies than on any day. not allow a bird to be killed in your rad this season. They compensate for neglect to the trees. You do not know	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been almed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen countades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they were borne to this final resting place-men who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than self. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful season, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to shed floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures broad as the earth itself, the debt which we, as a people, owe them, could never be paid. How spirilless, how inexpressive, how insignificant is all that we can do or say to manifest our admiration and gratitude, com- pared with what they deserve? Peace to the patric's slade? Let no rade hand disturb the laurels that lest on his tomb! "Ist orphan tears bedw his sacred are. Aud tauv's load tramp proclam the here's name, Far as the circuit of the apheres creeds." But the purpose I have mentioned is not the only one for which we are here. Great and grand as that purpose is, yet the time and the occasion rise into sublimity when we	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships that have been endurad, the difficulties that have been endurad, the ormance that has been met, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embedy in marble and brass the senti- ment of the poet: "And when their statues are placed on high Under the domora'the Under statues are placed on the taid in tetters bath bold and bright. New with the giving Steries and appreciate the statues are placed on high Under the domora'the Under day By carrying Sheridan into the fight Nore the status stemple of Fame. There are done that any fail to realize and appreciate the sourcing accey." I cannot believe that any fail to realize and appreciate the sourcing tailes and ast- ing manner in which it should be bestowed, though this ceremony is to be plain and on- ostentatious, yet we may trust that it will so sink into our hearts that the glory of their deeds and the light of their around a winner in which it should be bestowed, though this ceremony is to be plain and on- ostentations, yet we may trust that it will so	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap. RED FRONT. Coffees. Ronsted and Green, cheap as the cheapest for the same quality	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. IL. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and 'maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manners, attainments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de- sired for them? What man of patriot- ic and benevolent instincts would give them less? DARING RONDERYOn Friday last a German emigrant was robbed of '4, 000 france between Mißlin and this city.' The German bad the money in a belt buckled around his waist, and says that when he arrived at a sta- tion west of Mißlin the went to a res- taurant to göt a glass of lager, and while there felt some one feeling about	 6001 One package Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 th Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Albura. 9930 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Scap 6435 " Laundry Scap 6334 " Magical Scap 6334 " Magical Scap 6339 " Oriontal Scap 7351 " House Cleaning Scap 7351 " House Cleaning Scap 7351 " House Cleaning Scap 7352 " Debits Scap 7353 " Olive Scap 7351 " House Cleaning Scap 7354 " Olive Scap 6825 60 th Sack Family Flour. 6359 Gold Pen and Peneil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. Ladtes Dresses and Boys Clothing. Mass. B. ANNIE MCCABE and Miss MARY REEVES respectfully inform the public that they have removed to the house formerly occupied by H. McManigill, on Washington street, and are prepared to make Ladies' Dresses and Boys' Clothing of all kinds. They respectfully solicit a full share of patronage. ap7,-tf. MRS. L. A. HAMER. MISS MAKING. The undersigned are now prepared to coall kinds of work pertaining to either branch of 	Clear Sides NEW YORE, MAY 29.—Gold closed at $1,413/6 HUNTINGDON MARKETS. CORRECTED WEEKLY BY HENRY 2 00 WHOLESALE PRIORS. FLOUR—Superfine Flour, per barrel, $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 1.4 Rye, do 1.2 Cora, do 9 Oats, do 1.2 Cora, do 9 Oats, do 1.2 Cora, do 2.2 Cloverseed, per 64 (bs. 6.0 Paovisions - Potatoes, per bushel, 70(28 BDried Apples, do 2.5 Cora Meal, per owt., Dried Peaches, per pound, 2 Beef, do 2 Lard, do 2 Lard, do 2 Esgs, per dozen, 4 Hum, 2 Side, 3 Shoulder, 1 Coat.—Hard coal, per ton, 6.50(28.0 SuringLES—Lap, per 1000 ft., 10.00(31.0 Joint Shingles, do 6.50(28.0) MiscelLANEOUS—Bark, per cord, 8.0 Bran, per cwt., 1.2
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be oled with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to cat up the vegetables—and big from the city. aron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, been lodged in the Lewistown jail, on fician of taking $20 from a letter which sent to his house by mistake. flash of ligtning on Friday ovening last k a pine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- t from top to bottom. Mrs. Isane Long stunned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as leniont to the liv- is we are to the dead, how much happier it we render them, and from how much and bitter remorse might we be spared. the decoration of soldiers' graves, we k, should be observed on the last Satur- of May in each year, as then more poo- tan engage in the ceromonies than on any r day. to not allow a bird to be killed in your ard this season. They compensate for much you owe them for the fruit you	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen countades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they wore borne to this final resting place-men who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than colf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful season, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to shad floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures broad as the carth itself, the delt which we, as a people, owe them, could never be paid. How spirilless, how inexpressive, how insignificant is all that we can do or say to manifest our admiration and gratitude, com- pared with what they deserve? Peace to the patricit's shade? Let no rude hand disturb the laurels that lest on his tomb! "Let orphan tears bedwe his sacred arm. "And tame's load trans perform the here's name, "Far as the circuit of the apheres extends." But the purpose I have mentioned is not the only one for which we are here. Great and grand as that purpose is, yet the time and the occasion rise into sublimity when we remember that the cremonies of to-day are	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavonward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the bardships that have been endured, the difficulties that have been encountered, the officulties that have been mot, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embody in marble and brass the senti- ment of the poet: "Mad when their statues are placed on high Under the dome of the days." There with the glorious General's name, It is tak in tetters both bold and bright. Here is the stead that any fail to realize and appreciate the sacrifice that has been made in defense of our personal safety, in mainte- nance of free government and in support of the integrity of the Union. Though we are not here to do honor in the durable and hast- ing manner in which it should be bestowed, though this eeremony is to be plain and un- ostentnious, yet we may trust that it will so sink into our hearts that the glory of their deeds and the light of their example will never fade.	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap. RED FRONT. Coffees. Roasted and Green, cheap as the cheapest for the same quality RED FRONT.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Gues; Teachers, Messrs. A. IL. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against, the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manhers, attainments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de- sired for them? What man of patriot- ic and benevolent instincts would give them less? DARING ROBBERY.—On Friday last a German emigrant was robbed of '4,- 000 frances between. Millin and this city. The German bad the money in a belt buckled around his waist, and says that when he arrived at a sta- tion west of Mifflin he went to a res- taurant to get a glass of lager, and while there folt some one feeling about his person; but did net discover his	 6001 One package Candy. 6572 Rein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 th Sack Family Flour. 672 Babbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Albura. 9930 Maguire's Toilet Set. 7351 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6435 " Lagndry Soap 6435 " Lagndry Soap 6435 " Dobins Soap 11222 " Dexter Soap 7351 " House Cleaving Sonp 7320 " Dobins Soap 1222 " Dexter Soap 7320 " Dobins Soap 1005 " Olive Soap 6874 The Hero Boy. 8115 Sugar Cared Ham. 6082 50 fb Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Penoil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Diotionary. Ladtes Dresses and Boys Clothing. Mark REEVES respectfully inform the public that they bave removed to the house formerly occupied by H. McManigill, on Washington street, and are prepared to make Ladies' Dresses and Boys' Clothing of all kinds. They respectfully solicit a full share of patronage. ap7,-tf. MRS, L. A. HAMER. MISS MAKING. The undersigned are now prepared to do all kinds of work pertaining to either branch of their business at short notice and on reason- 	Clear Sides NEW YORE, MAY 29.—Gold closed at $1,4136 HUNTINGDON MARKETS. CORRECTED WEEKLY BY HENRY & 00: WHOLESALE PRICES. FLOUR—Superfine Flour, per barnel, $5.0 Extra Flour, do 6.0 Family Flour, do 1.2 Corn, do 1.2 Corn, do 1.2 Corn, do 2.5 Flayseed, do 1.2 Corn, do 2.5 Flayseed, do 2.2 Cloverseed, per 64 lbs. Dried Apples, do 2.5 Corn Meal, per cwt., 2.2 Dried Peaches, per pound, 2 Barter, do 1 Butter, do 1 Butter, do 1 Butter, do 3 Cheese, do 2 Eggs, per dozen, 1 Ham, 5 Stide, 3 Shoulder, 10.00633.0 StingLES—LANEOUS—Bark, per cord, 8.0 Bran, per cwt., 12 Kata Singles, do 6.5068.0 MiscetLANEOUS—Bark, per cord, 8.0 Bran, per cwt., 12 Hops, per nound
Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. untry cousins may soon expect to be bled with bugs—the June bugs that na- sends to cat up the vegetables—and big from the city. aron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, been lodged in the Lewistown jail, on icion of taking $20 from a lotter which sent to his house by mistake. flash of ligtning on Friday ovening last is a pine tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- t from top to bottom. Mrs. Isaac Long stunned by the shock, but soon recovered we were only half as leniont to the liv- as we are to the dead, how much happier at we render them, and from how much and bitter remorse might we be spared. the decoration of soldiers' graves, we k, should be observed on the last Satur- of May in each year, as then more poo- nan-engage in the ceromonies than on any r day. o not allow a bird to be killed in your ard this season. They compensate for r neglect to the trees. You do not know much you owe them for the fruit you a.	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen countades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they were borne to this final resting place-men who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the country they valued more than solf. If we were to come here with each return of this beautiful season, and place the richest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to shed floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures broad as the earth itself, the debt which we, as a people, owe them, could never be paid. How spiritless, how inexpressive, how insignificant is all that we can do or say to manifest our admiration and gratitude, com- pared with what they deserve? But the purpose I have mentioned is not the only one for which we are here. Great and grand as that purpose is, yet the time and the occasion rise into sublimity when we remember that the coremonies of to-day are figuratively designed to recall and preserve the memory of that yast army that lies in the memory of that yast army that lies in	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavenward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the hardships that have been endured, the difficulties that have been endured, the oprile that have been meet, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embody in marble and brass the senti- ment of the poet: "And when their statues are placed on high Under the domod the Unlon eky The American solder's temple of Fame. There with the giving Steries and appreciate the status are placed on high Under the domod the Unlon eky The American solder's temple of Fame. There will the giving accoust." I cannot believe that any fail to realize and appreciate the sourties tange and in support of the integrity of the Union. Though we are not here to do honor in the durable and last- ing manner in which it should be bestowed, though this eeremony is to be plain and on- ostentatious, yet we may trust that it will so sink into our hearts that the glory of their deeds and the light of their example will never fade. After the address the Orphans sang	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas . A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap. RED FRONT. RED FRONT. RED FRONT. Meat.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Guss; Teachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manners, attainments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de- sired for them? What man of patriot- ic and benevolent instincts would give them less? DARING RONDERYOn Friday last a German emigrant was robbed of '4, 000 frances between Midlin and this city. The German bad the money in a belt buckled around his waist, and says that when he arrived at a sta- tion west of Miflin he went to a res- taurant to get a glass of lager, and while there folt some one feeling about his person; but did not discover his loss until the train had proceeded some distance toward this city. The station	 6001 One pnokago Candy. 6572 Bein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 lb Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Album. 9930 Maguire's Toilot Set. 7551 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 6335 " Laundry Soap 6335 " Dexter Soap 751 " House Cleaning Soap 7309 " Dobbins Soap 1222 " Dexter Soap 7310 " Dobbins Soap 1222 " Detter Soap 7320 " Dobbins Soap 1202 " Dobbins Soap 1005 " Olive Soap 6374 The Hero Boy. 8115 'Sugar Cured Ham. 6682 50 Ib Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Pencil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Diotionary. Ladtes Dresses and Boys Clothing. Mary Reeves respectfully inform the public that they bave removed to the house formerly occupied by H. McManigill, on Washington street, and are prepared to make Ladics' Dresses and Boys' Clothing of all kinds. They respectfully solicit a full share of patronage. ap7,-tf. MRS, L. A. HAMER. MISS MAKING. The undersigned are now prepared to do all kinds of work pertaining to either branch of their business at short notice and on reasonable terms. Gentlemen's shirts made in the best style. A liberal share of public value and which we shirts made in the start style. A liberal share of public business at short notice and on reasonable terms. Gentlemen's shirts made in the start style. A liberal share of public value and which we shirts made in the start style. A liberal share of public business at short notice and on reasonable terms. Gentlemen's shirts made in the start style. A liberal share of public stronage. 	Clear Sides
L Boston paper is in favor of women vot- if they want to. A western paper would to see the man who could make them if they didn't want to. ountry cousins may soon expect to be bled with bugs—the June bugs that na- been do cat up the vegetables—and big is from the city. Laron Gillap, of Granville, Mifflin county, been lodged in the Lewistown jail, on picion of taking $20 from a lotter which is ent to his house by mistake. Ash of lighning on Friday ovening last is the tree on Stone Creek hill, rend- it from top to bottom. Mrs. Isanc Long stunned by the shock, but soon recovered f we were only half as leniont to the liv- as we are to the dead, how much happier th we render them, and from how much a end bitter remorse might we be spared. The decoration of soldiers' graves, we k, should be observed on the last Stur- of May in each year, as then more poo- can engage in the ceromonies than on any er day. Do not allow a Lird to be killed in your hard this season. They compendet for ir neglect to the trees. You do not know we much you owe them for the fruit you rea. The brick-work on the new engine house been completed. We have now the	we commemorate, appropriately, the services that saved us from the most inglorious death that could have been aimed at a nation. Let us, "by public assembly and by solemn obser- vance, by anthem and by oulogy," extol the valor and achievements of our national bene- factors and render thanks to God for eminent blessings, early given and long continued, to our highly favored country. We are here, my friends, for the purpose of placing wreaths of flowers and evergreens on the graves of our failen counrades, whose remains lie in this Cemetery. This simple service is in honor of men for whom the last sad rite was not performed when they wore borne to this final resting placemen who took their lives in their hands and boldly ventured and lost them in defence of the county they valued more than colf. If we were to come here with each return of this becautiful season, and place their chiest gar- lands on their mounds, if we were to she floods of tears that could never be dried, if we were to inscribe their names on entabla- tures broad as the carth itself, the debt which we as a people, owe them, could never be paid. How spiritless, how inexpressive, how insignificant is all that we can do or say to manifest our admiration and gratitude, com- pared with what they deserve? Peace to the patriot's shade? Let no rude hand disturb the laurels that lest on his tomb ! 'Ist orphan tears bedw his sacred are. 'And many shoult trans perform the here's name, - Yer as the circuit of the opheres extends." But the purpose I have mentioned is not the only one for which we are here. Great and grand as that purpose is, yet the time and the occasion rise into sublimity when we remember that the cremenies of to-day are figuratively designed to recall and preserve the menory of that vast army that lies in- treuched on many fields. "Bose why she shees	hands slack, hor our hearts cold in this sa- cred trust. The spirit that has brought us here, is very similar to that which has been displayed in other places by the erection of memorials to render secure and enduring the name and fame of our heroic fallen. How soon shall a monument rise heavonward from this ground to acquaint future generations with the mighty deeds that have been done in these days! Let us, in the first place, per- petuate the records of the men who accom- plished this great work, and then transmit a knowledge of the means by which it was done. Let the bardships ' but have been endured, the difficulties that have been endured, the difficulties that have been mot, the examples of unselfish patriotism that have been given, and the romance that has been added to the story of the human race, go down together, unforgotten, through all coming time. I would embody in marble and brass the senti- ment of the poet: "Mad when their statues are placed on high Under the dome of the days." There with the glorious General's name, he it add in tetre shat bold and bright. From Windester-levendy miles away. " I cannot believe that any fail to realize and appreciate the sacrifice that has been made in defense of our personal safety, in mainte- nance of free government and in support of the integrity of the Union. Though we are not here to do honor in the durable and hast- ing manner in which it should be bestowed, though this eeremony is to be plain and un- ostentatious, yet we may trust that it will so sink into our hearts that the glory of their deeds and the light of their example will never fade. After the address the Orphans sang a ' piece entitled "O'er my Father's Gruyse "after which the following noom and precise the that the following noom and the field. "G'er my Father's	New Orleans and other Baking Mo- lasses. RED FRONT. Teas. A variety of kinds of best always on hand cheap. RED FRONT. RED FRONT. Rensted and Green, cheap as the cheapest for the same quality RED FRONT. Meat.	is at present composed of the follow- ing porsons: Superintendent, Rev. A. L. Gues; Teachers, Messrs. A. II. Weid- man, Wm. Lyttlo, W. L. Owen, S. W. Heaton, and Misses C. A. Phillips and A. L. Simonton. The Tribune con- cludes: The Soldiers' Orphans have come and gone! Their visit has been as already remarked, an occasion of great pleasure to them and to all our citizens. But it has been more than this. It has dispelled a vast amount of prejudice against the system which established and maintains' these Or- phan Schools, and our people have learned by eye and ear experience that the Cassville School is one of the best, if not the very best, of its class. The appearance, manners, attainments and spirit of the Orphans themselves tell the whole story. They are well cared for, properly educated, and contented and happy. What more could be de- sired for them? What man of patriot- ic and benevolent instincts would give them less? DARING RONDERY.—On Friday last a German emigrant was robbed of "4, 000 frances between Miflin and this city." The German bad the money in a belt buckled around his waist, and says that when he arrived at a sta- tion west of Miflin he went to a res- taurant to give a glass of lager, and while there felt some one feeling about his person; but did not discover his loss until the train had proceeded some distance toward this city. The station spoken of must have been Huntingdon.	 6001 One pnokago Candy. 6572 Bein-deer and Sleigh. 4544 One Doll. 10024 25 lb Sack Family Flour. 672 Bubbitonian system of Peamanship. 11309 Hair-brush and Comb. 6479 Pooket Knife. 8370 Photograph Album. 9930 Maguire's Toilot Set. 7551 One pound Babbitt's Soap 6334 " Magical Soap 6335 " Laundry Soap 6335 " Dexter Soap 751 " House Cleaning Soap 7309 " Dobbins Soap 1222 " Dexter Soap 7310 " Dobbins Soap 1222 " Detter Soap 7320 " Dobbins Soap 1202 " Dobbins Soap 1005 " Olive Soap 6374 The Hero Boy. 8115 'Sugar Cured Ham. 6682 50 Ib Sack Family Flour. 839 Gold Pen and Pencil. 6955 Webster's Unabridged Diotionary. Ladtes Dresses and Boys Clothing. Mary Reeves respectfully inform the public that they bave removed to the house formerly occupied by H. McManigill, on Washington street, and are prepared to make Ladics' Dresses and Boys' Clothing of all kinds. They respectfully solicit a full share of patronage. ap7,-tf. MRS, L. A. HAMER. MISS MAKING. The undersigned are now prepared to do all kinds of work pertaining to either branch of their business at short notice and on reasonable terms. Gentlemen's shirts made in the best style. A liberal share of public value and which we shirts made in the start style. A liberal share of public business at short notice and on reasonable terms. Gentlemen's shirts made in the start style. A liberal share of public value and which we shirts made in the start style. A liberal share of public business at short notice and on reasonable terms. Gentlemen's shirts made in the start style. A liberal share of public stronage. 	Clear Sides again, where are the water-works to suit the engines? At no moment of difficulty does a husband

÷

At no moment of difficulty does a husband knowing his own utter helplessness, draw so closely to his wife's side for comfort and as-sistance, as when he wants a button sewed on his shirt collar. A heavy clap of thunder on Friday evening last frightened a four-horse team bolonging to Mr. Daniel Kyper, that was standing in the Diamond. They ran furiously down street, but luckily no damage was done. We are informed that there are forty-three spring colts in Henderson township, this county. We doubt whether any other town-ship of its size in the county or State can beat it. If there is, just inform us. There is an intimate connection between the nerres and muscles of the face and eyes, With neguliar progring, the many of the face and eyes, We have informed that there are of the face and eyes, the nerves and muscles of the face and eyes, With poculiar propriety, the humble tribthe nerves and muscles of the fact and open, and showing the beard to grow strengthens the eyes. Probably that is the reason some of our young men do so much coaxing with the vertice work of those who were com-tioned. It is the work of those who were com-tioned to the state of the set of the se their moustaches. We learn that several of the tuniblers which held the bouquets that were placed on the soldiers' graves, were stolen before they were on twenty-four hours. The individual who would do this is mean enough to whip his grandmother, if he has any. The business men generally, with com-mendable spirit, made an effort to close their stores during the coremony of decorating the soldiers' graves. Notwithstanding the press of custom, we are happy to state that many business men generally. Succesded in their andeavase succeeded in their endeavors.

no "martial cloak" but the rough blanket in which he had often rested his weary limbs Only six millions of dollars are spent an-Only six millions of dollars are spent an-nually to keep six thousand ministers in the United States, while lawyers get thirty-five millions, criminals are kept on twelve mil-ions on dit taken on will we field to an enemy that cared not to lions, and it takes ten millions of dollars angive decent sepulture to our dead and who buried them, if buried at all, where the graves will be forever unmarked and unnually to keep the dogs alive.

A man in the West has made a will in known.

A man in the West has made a will in which he provides for the erection of a cat in-firmary after bis death. No male person is to be permitted to enter the sacred precincts of this cat-heaven, and in the name of all that is precious we would ask, who would want to? Rev. Father Murphy will preach his fare-well sermon in the Catholic church of this place on Sunday morning next. Ho has been in charge hore but a short time, but his congregation regret his departure. He will be succeeded by the former pastor, Rev. O. P. Gallagher. The Harrisburg Patriat of Thursday last "The Hontingdon cornet band attracted a large crowd yesterday at the Bolton House by its excellent music. Its merits were ex-tolled by all musical judges. The mon comtolled by all musical judges. The men composing it are a fine looking body, and won golden opinions during their briof sojourn.'

The Legislature appropriated for common darkness. schools $500,000. The amount paid to Co. Superintendents is deducted from this amount, also some special appropriations, such suit, also some special appropriations, such as Normal Schools. The balance is then di-vided among the different districts of the State on the basis of the number of taxables, all districts receiving 50 conts per taxable. Then came the hurried order to "fall in," and the ready ubdelence on the part of the biate on the basis of the number of taxables, all districts receiving 50 conts per taxable.

DECORATION POEM.

BY CORPORAL 1. J. ATKINSON.

Consel-cliff-girt Juniata, Thy pines' Zellian moan! Some "Storied Urn or Statue," Shall cheer the gloom Of their dark torth... Shall cheer the goom Of their dark tomb,— The good who bled,— Thy honored Dead And brave of "Standing Stone."

When Freedom's loud Reveille Stirred Gettysburg's dark field ; And Fiend of fell Rebellion Piled hill and plain A greener fame

Than stone and marble yield. Comrades in death shall greet thom From many a field of gore,— Bull Run and red Antiotam,—

Where fierce the strife 'Gainst Freedom's life, By Heaven accuret, In thunder burst Above Potomac's roar.

From Hundred of Bormuda, From Richmond and Shiloh, Atlanta, Chattanooga :--To patriot eyes, Her heroes rise !--

From every sod Pale Freedom trod-In these dark days of wee. Shades of departed soldiers! "Comrades of battle" slain ! Though the marred body moulders

In earth to rust-Yet, o'er your dust---Shall laughing May And Flora gay, Their wreaths and laurols train.

When blushing Borealis, To north, wins Sol abroad; Spring peops o'er hills and valleys; With emerald sheen

To deck the green Sward of the grave, Where sleep the brave Till roused by trump of God.

So as, from east, Aurora Gilds earth with gorgeous day, May soldiers' graves of glory, Through tears and blood, In benuty-bud; And fragmant flowprs, In crimeon shiowers, Be wept upon their clay.

The members of the Post at thi place then formed in line and marched to the graves of the soldiers, where they strowed the flowers and wreaths. The coremonics throughout were conducted in an acceptable manner-fore, when not even a whisper was allowed in the ranks, not a sound that could warn the enemy of their movements. Rapidly passed the remaining hours that separated for from foe, and soon as the dawn dispelled the darkness from near and far, appeared gratified that they witnessed the proceedings.

"The afrighted air with a shudder bore, Like a horaid in hasts to the chieftain's door; The terrible grumble and unable and roat," Telling the Lattle was on ones pure? Mr. Uniao, the temperance lecturer, who

Cheese. -Altoona Radical. The best N. Y. State Goshen and A Searc. Ohio Cheeso. Candies. The best stick and other candies, wholesale and retail Fruit, &c. Dried Poaches and Apples, Raisins, Prunes, Currants, Elderberries,-Can-ned Fruit and Vegotables, etc. REDFRONT. pers and yell so no more. Spices, &c. All kinds of Spices, and a great variety of notions. Scaps of all kinds and cheap.

PRESENTS EVERY MONTH.

Tobacco.

RED FRONT.

The best quality of Tobacco, and cheaper than any other store in town.

RED STORE.

For what you want first call at En--All who are in wapt of Hardware, Cutlery, &c., go to A. H. Stewart & Co. at the Big Badiock Sign. 17

produced

HUNTINGDON, PA.

"Por Bituminous or Anthracite Coal." MRS. L. A. HAMER, MISS M. E. ISENBERG. long enough to allow passengers to long enough to allow passengers to partake of refreshments. The belt was cut and slipped off. Auother German having puid fair in the cars (an unusual occurrence among emi-grants) to this city, on the arrival of the train suspicion rested upon him, business men and the people generally business men and the people generally business men and the people generally function and the people generally J. REYNOLDS & SON, N. W. CORNER 13TH AND FILBERT STS., Sole Manufacturers of the Celebrated but after diligent search, no clue what- from town and country to stop. The ever could be found to his whereabouts best accomodations may always be expected. ιf. MARRIED, At a late hour on Wednesday night On Thursday, 20th inst., by Rev. J. Frazier, Mr SAMUEL J. HETRICK, to last a number of citizens of our town wore aroused by an agonizing cry of Frazier, Mr SAMUEL J. HETRICK, to "Oh !" which was continued about Miss MARY A. SMELSER, all of Huneight or ten times. The fears of those | tingdon County, Pa. who heard it were awakened, and a dozen or more came to the Franklin at the residence of Mr. Van Dyke, by House to see what was the matter.--The lower fooms were searched, but Russell, to Maggie J. McDowell, late nothing was seen to vorify the suspi-cions of some that a murder or some pers please copy.] of Huntingdon, Pa. [Lewistown paother awful tragedy had been commit tod. We were on the grounds ready to take notes, but our calculations in On the 27th ult., at the residence of the bride's father, by Rov. G. W. Gwynu, Mr. HUGH T. JOHNSTON, of regard to something terrible to tell our Mooresville, to Miss HENNIE OAKS, of readers, were somewhat frustrated by being informed that the unearthly Masseysburg, this county. On May 25th, by Rev. George W. Zahniser, assisted by Rev. O. O. Mc-Lain, JOHN M. BALLEY, Esq, to Miss LETTIE B. FISHER, both of Huntingnoise was occasioned by a man in one of the upper rooms of the hotel, who it is said makes such yells in his sleep. We would advise him to eat light supdon, Pennsylvania. The happy couple have remembered Extract from a letter from Jerusalem, "We started early to ascend Mt. Olivet, to behold the sun gild the minarets and towers of the devoted city, from the place where memory, stirred by a thousand associations, should exalt the mind as well as the eye to the inspiration of the scene. Well is the vor-arer repaid for long travels, horrid rouds, an-tediluvian cookery, squalid companionship and the importunities of begging, thieving Arabs. Woll would it have repaid you, oh! man of commerce and crucible ! and well might you have been reminded of your own city, for here, painted upon a board unildd against one of the huge ancient olive trees, under which the sacred martyrs toiled for the sins of the world, eighteen hundred years ago, were theses familiar figures, S.T.-1850-X. We do not know who did it, but no doubt some poor invalid traveler, cured by the Plantation Bitters, wishing to advertise their virtues in a place from whence all knowledge Extract from a letter from Jerusalem, us in the midst of their felicity, and we take occasion to add our good wishflows." She rests secure from pain and sin. "Long she had walked life's weary way, And wondered at his longtheued day; At last a light chone in her room, And Josus whispored, "Child, come home." MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price, tf so Somebody "wants twelve young In this borough on the 25th ult, ladies in good circumstances, who help their mothers to get breakfast and wash the dishes." We don't know how it is in remote, benighted country districts, shut out from the latest issh-Mrs. SUSAN NEWINGHAM, aged 89 yrs 3 months and 2 days. The decensed was the oldest lady in this borough, of which she has been a resident since a child, when the Inions and the boasted lights of the pinedians were among its inhabitants. She kind of young ones are grown in such seeluded districts, but the "twelve" of the contury and fashion have fallen; in such places the article is no longer produced. teenth century-we don't know what ted time of three-score and ten, and wo trust she has gone to ber sternal

-A. R. Stewart & Co. have just re-ceived a large stock of Hardware, Cutlery, &c., suitable for the wants of the farmer, carpenter, painter, black-smith, wagonmaker and others. 1; we can truly exclaim, few indeed, it

WROUGHT IRON, AIR TIGHT, GAS-CONSUMING HEATER. WITH PATENT DUST SCREEN, GRATE BAR RESTS, and WROUGHT-IRON, RADIATOR.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., 1

These Heaters are made of heavy Wrought-Iron, well riveted together, the only sure prevention against the Inverse togenier, the only sure prevention against the escape of Gas or Dust. They are casily managed, without muy dampers. The Patent Radiator avoids the use and aunoyances of drums, and is permanently attached to the licator. This is the most durable simple, economi-cal, and popular licating Apparatus ever offered for sole They are all guaranteed.

COOKING RANGES for hotels and families, PORTABLE HEATERS, LATROBE HEATERS, LOW DOWN GRATES, SLATE MANTELS, REGISTERS AND VENTILATORS.

We are also manufacturing a NEW FLAT-TOP HEATING RANGE.

to Send for our Illustrated Pamphlet. , ap21-y

E. J. GREENE, Euccessor to B. M. GREENE, DRALER IN

STEINWAY & SON'S PIANOS, And other makes,

NASON & HANLIN CABINET ORGANS, Mel dcons, Guitais, Violins, Fliss, Flutes, Accordoons,

aeir deuns, Gurtas, ind Melodeoris Warranited for arts Agritanos, Organs, and Melodeoris Warranited for arts enere. large sect on application Address Address Janzi,69 23 floor Leister's New Building.

PHILADELPHIA, Has a large stock, at low prices, of $40

.

PLATED SPOONS, CASTORS, TEA SETS 46.

2 . . .

ah13-2m.

ENTERPRISE HEADQUARTERS,