Mr. Enoch Hixon, of Emmaville, Fulton county, lost four children by diphtheria, from the 25th of April to the 30th of May.

A little pugilistic affair occurred on our streets near a bark pile, on Saturday last. No little "barking" of faces was done.

Persons holding lands should not forget that there is a law compelling them to cut down the Canada timber on their premises.

A machine in Lancaster turns out 4,000 pressed brick per hour. We should have a machine here, as freight costs almost a cent a brick.

The Catholic congregation of this place intend holding a picnic at Cottage grove, on Saturday, the 3d of July. All are invited to attend.

Mr. Jonathan Diehl, of Colerain township, Bedford county, was killed recently by the falling of a piece of timber, while engaged in raising a barn.

The citizens of Morrison's Cove are still agitated on the railroad question. Why is it that people have so much to say, and yet so little to do?

A daughter of Gale Hepler of Johnstown coughed up a pin an inch and a quarter long, which lodged in some of the passages of the chest a year and a half ago.

Strawberries seven inches in circumference have been raised this year. One in Berks county is said to measure eight and one-quarter inches in circumference.

An effort was recently made by a band of gypsies to steal a child of James Thomas, residing in Lewistown. The thief was detected, and the child restored to its parents.

Candidates here and elsewhere are announcing themselves through the popular channel—the newspaper. Some will sink and others will swim on the popular tide.

A farmer named Jacob Seidemeyer was killed at Wilmore, Cambria county, last week, by a man named Burke, who struck him in the stomach with a heavy piece of wood.

Our subscribers will understand that the X before their names means that the term for which they subscribed has expired. They can remit amount and order the continuance of the paper.

We happened to meet Mrs. of the Altoona Tribune, at the train on Saturday evening last. He smiled gracefully, and informed us he had been on a visit to Vineyard street, near Manayunk, where we presume he was looking after his grape interests. (No italics.)

A lady in Newport, R. I., paid for a newspaper to be sent to a neighbor who had troubled her so much by borrowing it that she took this method to get rid of the nuisance. A very good idea, and we would suggest the same plan to our subscribers who are likewise bothered.

The publishers of the Reading Journal have purchased the office of the Daily Times in that city, and will hereafter conduct both papers. These gentlemen have the ability to run a first-class daily, as their weekly demonstration, and we wish them success in their new enterprise.

There are from eighteen to twenty thousand children in Centre county between the ages of five and twenty-one years; and statistics show that not one-half of this number attend any Sabbath school. Huntingdon county needs a Sabbath school convention to find out how many of her children do not attend Sunday Schools. Will some one move in the matter?

Popular, very—the editors of town at the Good Templars' Festival. A gold pen and silver holder was voted to the most popular editor, after voting during two evenings, and until a late hour each evening. The votes were counted and the Globe had 33 votes, the Journal & American 44, and the Monitor 5. The Monitor editor was the most sensible, as his votes didn't cost him anything. We hope there will be no further attempts to swindle the editors for the fun of the thing.

Col. H. Gregg. We had the pleasure a few days ago, of taking by the hand our genial, clever, whole-souled friend, Col. Harry Gregg, who has been spending a few weeks with his friends in old Huntingdon. Harry is now a resident of Seneca, Newton Co., Missouri, and left us for his western home on Monday. He gave us a glowing description of the Seneca Valley, and almost persuaded us to emigrate to that garden spot of the Golden West. By the way, we have before us the plot of the town of Seneca, which Harry is the founder of, and which bids fair to become one of the most flourishing villages in that country. Although but a few months old, it already contains a population of four hundred inhabitants, with three steam powers, six stores, a church, besides the survey for a railroad, have been run through the town. It is expected that the railroad will be built in less than two years, at the completion of which will bring Seneca in direct communication with the east. We are glad to learn that Harry is driving a fine business, financially, and (don't say anything about it) his prospects matrimonially are none of the poorest. We wish him all the success imaginable.

The best Drills at McLanahan, Stone & Isett's, Hollidaysburg. j616 4m Sun Stroke. One day last week, a man was found near the canal a short distance above town, with his coat off, and his head on the ground. It was found upon being approached he was found to be insensible, and waking him up he led around in bewildered manner. His pocket book was given him, but he could not explain how it was taken out of his pocket. It was thought to be a stolen book, but he found no money taken from his pocket book and no marks of violence were on his person. He was engaged in loading ties, and the day being warm it is supposed he was attacked with sun-stroke, and remained insensible until discovered.

No other machine has so rapidly won favor in the household as Singer's new Family Sewing Machine. They are now manufacturing 100,000 machines per year, at the rate of 2000 per week. This fact or result has been owing to its real merits. For further information apply at Blair's Book Store. j16 5m

The Festival held in the Castilian Garden on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of last week, was a success. The pecuniary interests of the lodge of Good Templars for which it was held, were considerably augmented, and we hope that the Lodge will return thanks to the public by renewed endeavors to promote the cause of temperance in our borough. The Worcester's Dictionary was voted to P. M. Lytle, Esq., and the Gold Pen and Silver Holder to Mr. Jno. A. Nash, editor of the Journal & American.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Messrs. Editors.—The spirit of enterprise in Huntingdon borough has never been what it should be, but that is because we haven't had the men to make it so; or rather, we haven't had the men who would think of making it so. We think that a great fault has been that individuals have engaged in such things as stores, which have accumulated in our town so fast that now we have one to every family connection and their intimate acquaintances. Had the money which has been spent to start and keep up half of the many stores in our town been spent in some Manufacturing, our town would have had a larger population, and the store keepers who now complain of "dull times" would have been making a good percent from their money expended.

The Mercantile Appraiser's list mentions forty-one stores in our midst.—Two of these pay $40 license; one pays $25; two pay $20; four pay $15; one pay $12.50; six pay $10; and the balance pay twenty-four pay $7. Putting the whole population of our borough at 5000 and estimating the number of its surrounding inhabitants who patronize our stores at 500, we have one store to every 134 inhabitants. Now at a fair per centage, each of these stores would not more than $1500 clear in a year, realize 25 cents on the patronage was equally divided; but the latter is not the case, and consequently we hear the storekeepers complain of dull times. These storekeepers as we have intimated, could have realized a good per centage by this time if they had realized their strength in some works. As the probability is, we will have no more stores in town until we can have a larger population, the endeavors of storekeepers, capitalists and our citizens generally should be continually used to increase the population of our town, for in this lies the secret of success. We hope to see Huntingdon an active town, but that activity will not exist in starting new stores, no matter how cheap they sell.

MARRIED. On Tuesday, June 15th, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. S. H. Reid, Mr. Wm. E. Irwin, to Miss Susie H., daughter of Mr. Robert Tussy, of Stone Valley, in this county. On the 16th inst., by Rev. James C. Clarke, at his residence in Huntingdon, Mr. C. W. BUCK, of Tyrone, to Miss J. ETNA BAILEY, of Huntingdon. At the M. E. Parsonage, on the 17th inst., by Rev. R. E. Wilson, Mr. ROYER SWOPE, to Miss ANNA NEVELL, all of Alexandria.

DIED.

In Henderson township, on the 16th inst., ANAM RUPERT, aged 85 years and 6 months. At his home near Ennisville, this county, on June 18, 1869, JOHN MITCHELL SMITH, eldest son of Hon. Wm. B. SMITH, dec'd., aged 21 years 8 months and 6 days. The deceased was of Methodist denomination, and was blessed with a most happy and religious training. At an early age he connected himself with the M. E. church and by his obedient and diligent study of the scriptures, and engaged in secret prayer. When his health became so impaired that he was unable to attend to his business and his attendance upon all the means of grace, and God's house was always to him a place of delight. His bible was his daily companion. He was unable to attend to his business for a long time, but he never desisted from his faith and joy took the place of doubt and fear, and all clouds were dispersed and his spiritual sky became clear and bright. A few minutes before he died, while lying in the arms of his sister, she asked him if Jesus was precious to him. He answered with a smile in his countenance, "Yes, he is precious to me." and repeated that "God sent me all ye that are weary and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." He found rest in the arms of Jesus. His widow, Mrs. RUPERT, and her three children, were left to mourn his loss, whose soul to them was tenderness, faithfulness and love. May God multiply divine consolations to them in their bereavement, and prepare them for the re-union of heaven. The funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. Wm. Gwynn in his usual eloquent and heart touching manner, by the Rev. J. M. Adair made some very appropriate, impressive and sympathetic remarks. J. M. O.
