The office of the Altoona Vindicator has been sold by the Sheriff. Pic-nics don't pay. The sheriff of Bedford county took six prisoners to see Pittsburg through iron bars. The Warriorsmark Good Templars held pic-nic last Saturday. Young men between 21 and 22 years of age must be registered, if they want to vote. Almost every county in the State has four days of Fair, except Huntingdon. The Academy building and surroundin at this place, are undergoing repair. The Penna. railroad shops at Patterson are to be removed the last day of this month. Penusylvania spends yearly for "drinks," $31,900,000—for schools $5,800,000. The days and nights were of equal length on the 20th inst. Nights are getting longer. A Union Sabbath School, under the ausdices of the Y. M. C. A., was organized at Smithfield, on Sunday last. The Presbyterian Sabbath School and congregation will hold a basket pic-nic at the Cottage Grove on Friday next. Republicans, examine the registry lists, at once. If you delay in this matter it may deprive you of voting. A courteous wag in the excess of his politeness never swallows an ovster without saying "Good by-valve." Republican County Committee Meeting. A Living Rat in the Stomach The Altoona Tribune says: We call-A meeting of some thirty committee men, appointed by delegates to the late August Repablican county convention, in accordance with a resolution of the convention, was held in the Court Room on Wednesday last, the 15th inst. Mr. E. A. Green, of Brady twp, moved that a committee be appointed to wait upon M. M. Logan, chairman elected by the late convention, and inform him that a portion of the county committee appointed by the delegates that elected him were in waiting and ready to orgonize. A committee of three was appointed, and in a short time the committee returned with Mr. Logan, who said that he did not recognize the committee as "my committee" and refused to have anything to do with it, and refused to have anything to do with it, and refused to have anything to do with it, and refused to have anything to do with it, and refused to have anything to do with it, and refused to have anything to do with it, and refused to have anything to the committee appointed by the mother; had been ejected from the stomach of a little boy, about five years of age, the son of Mrs. Sarah Rogers. The little fellow, as stated by the mother, had been playing around the yard, when feeling no doubt uncomfortable; he came to his or mother and displayed restlessness and sickness, with frequent evidences of strangulation, exciting the mother's fears that something serious was about to transpire. After great exertion, he had been ejected from the stomach of a little boy, about five years of age, the son of Mrs. Sarah Rogers. The little fellow, as stated by the mother, had been ejected from the stomach of a little boy, about five years of age, the son of Mrs. Sarah Rogers.
