On the Wing.

Centre county has ten lodges of Good Templars.

Strawberries have made their appearance at last.

Fr. Jordan, Esq., and others, have our thanks for pub docs.

The Tyrone Herald is to be enlarged to a seven column paper.

A M. E. Sunday School Convention is to be held at Mt. Union June 28th.

Bellefonte is to have five papers.—What all will get to do is hard to determine.

The fish-netters are warned by the Fishers to look out, as if caught they will be punished.

The Borough Dads are still making public improvements. We never want to see them still.

The Union Prayer Meeting is to be held in the Baptist church this evening. The public is invited.

Tyrone wants a Lodge of Odd Fellows. It is an institution that should adorn every town in the land.

A prophet is amongst us who says that we will have water works in 1999. That's refreshing.

One mad dog in Altoona has been killed. That's far better than shipping them to your neighbors.

Any fisherman base enough to kill a bass, (with which the Juniata is being stocked,) should be dealt with severely

Some of the ladies of Johnstown indulge in snuff-dipping—one lady goes to the extreme of using ten pounds a month.

Rev. K. O. Branigan, pastor of Clearfield, lectured in the Catholic church of this place on Thursday evening last Subject: "The Infallibility of the Pope."

A monkey escaped from Grady's show at Bloody Run recently. One that might perform as well can be found in Bellefonte at the Watchman office.

An exchange says there is nothing so calculated to call out the deep earnestness of a true woman, and enlist her most faithful devotion, as doing up her back hair.

Margaret Debaugh, a girl of 18, died of hydrophobia, at Harrisburg last week. She was a comely girl, and engaged to be married shortly. The bite occurred nine weeks ago.

One of the gentler sex says that the heaven of the strong-minded woman is "where buttons grow in their proper places, and men cease from bothering, and needles are at rest."

Huntingdon belongs to the Harrisburg Presbyterian Synod, which is composed of the intermediate counties between the west line of Elk, Clearfield, Blair and Bedford.

We hope the man who comes to Van Amburg's show with a high hat and a wagon full of children, will not go away saying he hadn't money enough to subscribe for his county paper.

Fred. Pickett, the man who died of injuries received on the railroad, was buried on Wednesday last, with the honors of war, a squad of the Light Infantry performing the ceremony.

The next District Convention of Good Templars will be held at Tyrone on the third Tuesday in August Rev Thomas Barnhart was chosen W C T, and Benjamin M. Runker, Secretary.

Andrew Allison, of St. Clair twp., Bedford county, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat with a razor, and stabbing himself in the side. He didn't quite give the undertaker a job for his coffin.

"It is as good as a letter from home," as one of our western subscribers said when he renewed his subscription last week. Reader, have you no distant friend that you would have remember you by sending him THE GLOBE?

The butchers of Johnstown paint their wagons, etc., with the national colors. There is only one other class of men who use the red, white and blue stripes, and they are the barbers; are we to understand the butchers shave also?

The census-taker is on his travels. He finds "popping the question" isn't such an enviable job, among some people. For instance: "What's the age of your best looking daughter?"—"None of your business, you impertinent scamp you!"

At a church fair in Kansas City, a set of bedroom furniture was voted to a young lady, with the understanding that, if she was not married in a year, the furniture should be returned to the church. She is now on the war path, armed with a bedstead.

A fight occurred on Wednesday last in this borough, between a colored man named Tolivar, and two white men named Morningstar, in which one of the latter struck Tolivar in the head with a stone, causing an ugly gash.—The Sheriff placed them in jail.

A skiff poling contest came off at Mifflin the other nay, between Jacob Sulouff, Esq., and Mr. Corus Switzer, in which the former was the victor.—He poled his skiff across the river, and did not vary three feet from a direct line. The amusement was witnessed by a large number of people.

Temperance.

The following "oak planks" were laid down for a temperance platform at the late session of the Huntingdon Presbytery:

1. Resolved, That we hereby as a presbytery, unanimously express our deep interest in the cause of temperance, and our earnest desire for its enlarged success.

2. Resolved, That we believe the Church herself to be the best temperance organization, and most efficient agent through which to accomplish its complete and final triumph.

3. Resolved, That while we consider the Church the best organization to promote this cause, so far from being unfriendly to voluntary organizations outside of the Church, we wish well to every such proper effort as may advance the cause.

4. Resolved, That we enjoin pastors, and sessions, and all church members to exert their influence to the utmost to promote this cause by all their personal or organized efforts.

5. Resolved, That Presbytery would unhesitatingly express its condemnation of all such church members as sign petitions for licence or who in any other way, directly or indirectly, countenance the manufacture, sale, or use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage.

6. Resolved, That the attention of the pastors of the Church be especially directed to this subject, and that they be recommended to be more frequent and faithful in their public instructions on this subject.

☞ Van Amburg & Co's Great Golden Menagerie, which is to be in Huntingdon on Saturday of this week, is an exhibition of established reputation and acknowledged merit. For nearly half a century it has been known as the leading menagerie of the age—having traveled extensively in Europe as well as America—and now, with its new features and increased attractions, it visits us after an absence of eight years, larger and more comprehensive than ever before. Its collection of living wild animals is not only the largest ever seen in this country, but it comprises many rare species of animals that have never been exhibited in America until now, with others that have only been shown at rare intervals. As an instructive and entirely unobjectionable exhibition it offers special inducements for the attendance of family parties, and it may be taken for granted that the rising generation will be fully represented in the immense audiences which it is sure to attract next Saturday. Excursion tickets at reduced rates will be issued over the H. & B. T. R. R for this occasion.

MOTHS IN CARPETS.—An experienced housekeeper says: 'Camphor will not stop the ravages of moths after they have commenced eating. Then they pay no regard to the presence of camphor, cedar or tobacco; in fact, I rather think they enjoy the latter, if anything, more than humanity can.—Nor will the dreaded and inconvenient taking up and beating always insure success, for I tried it faithfully, and while nailing it down found several of the worms, 'alive and kicking,' that had remained under the pile unbarmed. I conquered them wholly in this way: I took a coarse crash towel and wrung it in clean water and spread it smoothly on the carpet, then ironed it dry with a good hot iron, repeating the operation on all suspected places, and those least used. It does not injure the pile or color of the carpet in the least, as it is not necessary to press, heat and steam being the agents; and they do the work effectually on worms and eggs. Then the camphor will doubtless prevent future depredations of the miller."

A DARING LAD.—A five year old son of Mr. John Westbrook of this borough, performed a feat of daring on Wednesday last that but few boys of his age would dare to do. The little fellow, unobserved and unassisted by any one, climbed up the attic stairs to the trap door, opened it, and ventured out upon the roof, which is very sloping. Unconscious of his peril he amused himself in climbing over the roof, even going as far as the eaves, and looking upon the pavement below. A passer by happened to see him, when he climbed back again, and appeared to enjoy the romance more than the spectators.

A NEW CHURCH.—The Presbyterian congregation of this place, on Thursday evening last, by a large majority decided to purchase a lot for the purpose of erecting thereon a new church. The present one is found inadequate, needing repairs, and the services being interrupted by the noise of passing trains, it was thought advisable to husband the money needed in repairs and apply it to the erection of a new church. We learn that over fifteen thousand dollars have already been subscribed, and the proposals for building will be taken so that the work will commence next spring.

☞ Everybody will advise you to go to the Castilian Garden when you come to town, because it is one of the grand summer resorts of our borough, equal to Saratoga Springs—if you only imagine so. It has a gentlemanly proprietor, Col. Summers, who superintends every department of the garden, and makes those feel welcome when they give him a call. We cannot resist the temptation of often entering the Garden and partaking of his luscious Ice Cream, and we know many of our citizens have the same weak spot in their "make up."

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.—All Sunday School workers are most cordially invited to attend the third annual session of the Cassville M. E. Sunday School Convention, to be held at Bland Chapel June 15th and 16th.
A. W. DECKER, Pastor.

☞ Gentlemen's fine India Gauze Shirts very cheap at McNEIL'S Temple of Fashion. All in want of this kind of Goods should call there and see them; they are the best in town. 2t

☞ Luke Reilly is still busy making his Syrups and Candies, the demand for them being so great that he can hardly meet it.

A Painful Accident.

We are called upon to record a most painful accident, the facts of which as near as we can gather them are these:—On the evening of the 22d ult., Henry W. Hanawalt and wife left their only two little children, boys aged respectively two and three-and-a-half years, together with John S. Hanawalt's children, at the residence of the latter, in care of some young folks, whilst the parents of both families went to enjoy the communion meeting then pending at the Spring Run Church. Shortly after the departure of the parents the two little boys slipped out unnoticed, and went about the barn. Near the barn were a number of logs, lying upon sloping ground. One of the logs had by some means been rolled over its prop, a stone 4 or 5 inches thick, and lodged against a small piece of a board. The probability is, that the little boys, in playing, lifted the board, which started the log, and it caught the elder of the two, tripping him down, and lodging upon his chest, crushing the little fellow under its ponderous weight. The younger brother ran to the house with repeated cries, "log on Josie," which arrested the attention of the persons in charge, who ran out and discovered the painful picture above described. There were three large boys quickly summoned, but, being unable to lift or remove the log otherwise, they rolled it on down over the little boy's head, bruising and crushing it considerably, which, possibly, may have set the seal to all chances of returning life. The ground under the little sufferer showed evidence of considerable struggle, and was moistened with bloody matter which had foamed from his mouth during his agonies. The painful intelligence reached the parents just as they were seating themselves at the communion table at the church. Their emotions and manifestations caused some confusion at the time; but the simple facts being publicly stated, the meeting proceeded with additional solemnity The parents in their deep affliction have the sympathy of the whole community.—Lewistown Democrat.

There is a man in Harrisburg who has had a case at every Court of Quarter Sessions (either as prosecutor or prosecuted) except two, since 1824, extending over a period of forty-six years, and aggregating one hundred and eighty-two cases. He is now verging on seventy, and still figures in the Courts.

STRAWBERRIES.—The undersigned will be prepared to supply the public with Strawberries on and after the 6th of June. Persons in the country ordering by the quantity are requested to give a few days notice in advance of the time they are wanted.
