An independent Republican move- publican and the Journal & American ment has been inaugurated in Pittsburgh, in which a large number of Republicans have participated. They allego they are not satisfied with the mode of making nominations, corruptions largely pervading the public service. They issue a call for a Convention on the 6th of July.

An exciting scene disgraced the House last week between Farnsworth of Illinois, and Butler of Massachusetts. The former accused the latter of receiving a fee of $2000 in the Rollin White case, which was under debate, when Butler replied by calling him "an assassin and a coward," al though he admitted to having received the money. Of such stuff are some of our representatives made.

RED CLOUD, Red Dog, and a host of other red skins have come to Washing. ton, and are wending their way home again. They came to present their grievances to their Great Father (no ton, and are wending their way home grievances to their Great Father (no other individual than President Grant) and they go away as Red Dog express. How far it is a "self-constituted" com. and they go away as Red Dog express. How far it is a "self-constituted" comed it "fat with lies." We are afraid our government, through its agents, will treat the poor Indians shabbily, and the committee men were appointed by we can' expect nothing else than continual feeds between the trites and the military until they are completely crippled or swept from our borders.

The Republican is the organ of the few unrepentant disorganizors who are still trying to keep the party in trouble.

LATEST NEWS.—The Reading Car shops were destroyed by fire; loss $125,000.—
Riots have occurred in Cork, Ireland.—Sovere drought in Germany.—The Y M C A Convention at Indianapolis adjourned to meet in Washington next year.

Some few individuals who last year [For the Globe.] vere very prominent in an organization to disorganize the Republican par ty, now appear very anxious for 'peace" and a full and united vote at the next election, but we have seen no evidence as yet, that they intend to support the ticket to be nominated in August, if men of their choice should fail to be successful. The Republican party organization don't intend to tolerate men who may be for "peace" only until the nominating convention adjourns, then to play disorganizers again, (Cremer-like,) if they fail to word control the action of the Convention. All who desire to be recognized as party Republicans must first show a willingness to stand by and support party nominations. Men who are not willing to yield to the will of the mative places of holding elections (except jority in Convention should not claim those of the West ward of the borough to be of the party-neither should they have a voice at a delegate election or tion at the new Engine House,) on in the County Convention.
