VOL. XXVI. HUNTINGDON, PA., TUESDAY, JULY 26, 1870. NO. 3.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION

Large Assemblage of Sab. School Workers. Friends of the Cause in Council.

Interesting and Enthusiastic Demonstration. Large Gathering of S. School Children.

Discussions, Reports, Addresses, Devotional Exercises, Music, Etc.

Reported by H. McVitty, Esq. OPENING EXERCISES.

The friends of the Sabbath School interests, and delegates from the different Sabbath Schools in the county, assembled in Convention, in the Court House, pursuant to the previously published notice, on Wednesday morning last at ten o'clock.

The meeting was called to order by K. A. Lovell, Esq., chairman of the committee of arrangements, who stated briefly the object of the meeting and invited the assembly to unite in singing the doxology, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

Rev. George A. Peltz, president of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association, offered a most fervent appeal to the Throne of Grace in behalf of the Convention and the object for which it had assembled; the musical choir in attendance favored the audience with the piece called "Happy Greeting," and a portion of the 11th Chapter of the Book of Deuteronomy, was read by Rev. M. E. Foster of Huntingdon, followed by prayer by Rev. J. M. Love of Alexandria.

After another piece of music by the choir, on motion of J. A. Brown, Esq., K. Allen Lovell, Esq., was chosen as chairman of the convention, who on taking the chair returned his thanks to the convention for the honor conferred and expressed the hope that the convention might be successful in arousing the members to increased zeal and activity in the cause of the Master.

G. Barton Armitage, D. M. Giles, James E. Glasgow, and R. McDivitt, Esq., were appointed Secretaries.

On motion of J. S. Simpson, Esq., resolved that the chairman appoint committees consisting of five persons each, one on exercises, one on business, one on finance, one on permanent organization, one on digesting the reports of the schools of each township, and one on resolutions.

The following were then announced by the chair: On Enrollment, W. S. Shirley, John C. Miller, Hugh Lindsay and Miles Zimmerman.

On Business, J. R. Simpson, Esq., Hon. D. Clarkson, A. G. Ewing, Esq., Frank Greene and Dr. J. D. Deaver.

The several townships and boroughs being called on to report through their delegates present, the condition of the schools in their immediate localities, responded as follows: Alexandria borough—represented by John Porter, Esq. A Sabbath School was organized as long ago as 1823 on the Union principle.

Shirley—Wm. B. Leas. Three schools, Methodist, Presbyterian, and Baptist; organized about 25 years ago. Schools not what they should be. Want of energy amongst the families. Not proper effort made to get their children there.

Tul—Rev. A. P. Decker. Three schools, in fine working order. Have adopted the uniform lesson system in one school. Parents interested and superintendents report favorably.

Tell—R. Goshorn. Four or five schools. Two of them have made considerable progress. Good attendance and increased interest and future prospects tolerably good.

Union—John Mistry. Two schools in operation. Two more required. A good deal of interest manifested by parents and pupils. Schools not open in the winter.

Walker—Mrs. E. White. One school in operation at Smithfield, and two at McConnelltown.

Upper West—Four schools well attended by the children. Great room for improvement on the part of parents.

Lower West—James Hamilton. Only one school apart from Petersburg borough. In good condition, with room for improvement.

Bradly—Five schools. Three of them organized last spring. Two of them held books and properly conducted.

Three Springs Borough—P. H. Bence. Three schools. Teachers' meetings once a month, with bible class as an auxiliary.

Oriskany—J. H. Miller. One school of 60 scholars. Three schools in Groom well township.

Shirley—W. B. Leas. Three schools, one in Germany Valley, one in Hill Valley, and one at Vineyard Mills. Schools not kept up in the winter.

Springfield—Rev. Shoemaker. Two schools, and room for six. Great want of books and properly qualified teachers.

Jackson—Rev. M. A. Adair. Six schools; three Methodist, one Presbyterian, one Lutheran, and one United Presbyterian. Little territory unoccupied. Room perhaps for one or two more schools.

Barree—Dr. J. F. Wilson. Four schools; two Methodist, one Baptist, and one Lutheran. All in satisfactory condition, but want more of room. Not one child out of fifty in Sabbath School.

Huntingdon—Wm. P. Orison. Nine schools, generally well attended and in a flourishing condition. The Young Men's Christian Association has year by year increased in numbers, and few families that do not send to some school.

Franklin—A. G. Ewing. Schools established in the township over forty years ago. Nine schools at present, well attended, and Sabbath school cause in good condition. Few families that do not send to some school.
