THE AMENDED BANKRUPT LAW .-The bankrupt law has been amended by a recent act of Congress in some few particulars which are worthy of public notice Provisions are now nade that the circuit judge, in cases of sickness, absence or other disability of the district judge, may make all necessary rules and orders proparatory to the final hearing in causes of bankruptcy. The law provides also that the provisions of that section known as the fifty per cent. clause shall not apply to those debts from which the bankrupt seeks discharge, which were contracted prior to the first of January, 1869. In other words, a debtor whose assets do not pay fifty cents on the dollar must now obtain the assent of a majority, in number and value of those creditors only, whose debts were contracted since the 1st of January 1869 A clause of the thirty ninth section makes it an act of bankruptcy that a person "being a banker, merchant, or rader, has fraudulently stopped or suspended, and not resumed payment of his commercial paper within a peri ed of fourteen days." Much difficulty has been found by the courts in the construction of this clause especially as to the meaning of the word "fraudulently." All ambiguity has been removed by an mendment as follows: Or who being a banker, broker, merchant, trader, manufacturer or miner, has fraudulently stopped payment, or who has stopped or suspend ed and not resumed payment of his commercial paper within a period of fourteen days." The bankrupt law is improved by these amendments.

CELEBRATION .- A beautiful day ad ded much to the enjoyment of a scene witnessed at McConnellstown, Saturday, the 20th day of August. It was M. It is hoped that every member of the a procession of Sabbath School schol-Committee will be present at this its first are and teachers. We did not notice one in all the throng that appeared gloomy, sad, or disappointed; but rather the opposite—all countenances were shining with joys already at LLOYD STATES, aged 61 years, 5 months hand, and with bright anticipations for the pleasures of the day. for the pleasures of the day. Among this number not one could be found that entertained envy, jealousy, or sec. tarian strife, for this was a union of the Methodist and Reformed Sabbath

Everything connected with this fes tival seemed so inviting that we joined the group and marched with them under the inspiration of martial music, skillfully performed, to Oak Island McCoy's Grove. Here we found the arrangements convenient. The exercises of the day were opened by singing and praper, in which Rev. Shontz officiated. Brief but well-telling addresses were given by Revs. Barrick of Philadelphia and Sangree of McConnellstown. The scholars were then dismissed to engage in proper social enjoyments, or to commune with nature's laughing rivulets, buge onks, and grassy carpets, which the site beautifully blended. At 12:30 P. M. all were called together and marched around the table bountifully supplied with the most choicy entables. This well-spread table was a strong proof of the generosity and good taste of the women of McConnellstown and vicinity. After dinner we again entered the grove for amusement. At 3 P. M. the celebration was closed with prayer.

The grand success of the day was in a great measure the result of the arduous and determined manner the com mittee to whom the arrangements were entrusted, labored. They did their part nobly, meriting the thanks of the community.

We hope that the innocent smiles radiated from the attendants of this U.S. 6's of '81, celebration may be crystallized emblems of the infancy of our Sabbath schools, after they have grown to manhood, strong in building up the church. Our wish for the schools is that they may grow in numbers and in the knowledge of religious truth; that every religious idea they are instrumental in imparting may in due season become a religious act.
