The Harrisburg "Tropic" has been suspended. The "Tropic" Journal will take its place October 3d.

Politics throughout the county seems to be very tame, but we feel assured that our party will do its duty at the proper time.

Denver, Colorado, advises say that the city is filling up with roughs and desperadoes to such an extent that there is little safety of life and property. The same advice note the heading of a citizen in his yard at night, he having been called out by some of these roughs.

The "White Men's Party" convention assembled at the Court House, on Friday last and nominated the following party of a ticket: For Associate Judge Geo. John Williamson, Huntingdon; for County Commissioner, Harry Cook, Carbon; for Poor Director, Jacob Goodman, Brady; for Auditor,

This piece of a ticket we suppose, will be hitched on to the other piece of a ticket nominated by the Democrats. Henry Cook, we believe was the only Republican nominated.

The Party and the Ticket. The ticket at our mast head is the Republican ticket—nominated by the Republican party, and will be supported by the party. The Democratic ticket will be supported by Democrats—the "White Men's" by Democrats generally and a few Republicans.

This being the "realization" we think best to let well enough alone. Last year we tried our best to keep the Republican party to the ticket they nominated—it failed. This year we repeated it with the usual campaign noise and confusion.

A few Facts in Figures. The vote for Congress in Cambria county in 1867 was: Barker 1888, Johnston 2688, Johnston's majority, 800. In 1868 the vote stood: Morrill 2971, Johnston 3146, Johnston's majority, 355. In 1869 the vote was: Morrill 2917, Linton 3512, Linton's majority, 595.

In 1870 Barker had all the advantages arising from the war, the democracy that year having placed itself on the peace at any price platform, disgusting many soldiers. But for this he would have been beaten more than one thousand. In 1866 and in 1868 the war was over, Johnsonism was rampant, especially in 1868, many soldiers had gone back on their record and again voted with their worst enemies during the war, and yet Mr. Morrill has never been beaten 600 in Cambria. Some of the men who are opposing him now opposed him before, some openly, others covertly. If therefore there is any man in the district who can afford to lose votes and still be elected, that man is D. J. Morrill.

THE WAR IN EUROPE.

The Prussians' within ten miles of Paris.

The news during the past week has been most important and exciting—After three days' terrific fighting before Sedan, Marshal MacMahon's army was driven into the town, and being completely overpowered by the Prussian army under the Crown Prince and Prince Charles, was forced to surrender. This took place on Friday Sept. 2d. The Emperor Napoleon surrendered the same day. The surrender of MacMahon's army became prisoners of war, with their arms, ammunition, horses and accoutrements. The French army is completely broken up. Marshal MacMahon was wounded in one of the battles, and is reported to have since died.

Louis Napoleon after delivering himself up as a prisoner to King William, was sent to join his wife, who was in Hesse Cassel. His suite accompany him. He is treated with great consideration by his captors, the Queen of Prussia even sending her chief cook to minister to his appetite. The Empress Eugenie has left Paris to join her husband. The Prince Imperial is in England, in care of his Governor and tutors. The French Emperor is said to have retired in English American currencies to an amount that will yield him an annual revenue to half a million dollars. He appears to take his misfortune philosophically.

There is great rejoicing throughout Germany, and among the Germans in the United States, over the success of the Prussian arms.

The news of the surrender of the Emperor, and of MacMahon's army, left upon Paris like a thunderbolt. It is intense excitement prevailed. Gen. Trochu was made Dictator and Governor of Paris. The Emperor Napoleon was deposed by a unanimous vote of the Corps Legislatif. A Provisional Government was formed, and a Republic proclaimed. It was resolved to defend Paris to the last extremity, and the city has been preparing all week for a siege.

The Prussian army, after the victory at Sedan, set out at once to march towards Paris. They were within ten miles of the French Capital at last accounts, and are by this time before the gates of the city. It is believed that the French will be compelled to capitulate, and to make the best terms of peace they can. The Prussians it is said will claim that the French provinces of Alsace and Lorraine be annexed to the German Nation, and that Luxembourg, Metz, and one or two additional frontier fortresses, be transferred to Prussia. It is reported that the Prussians will not submit to the intervention or arbitration of any of the neutral powers, but means to consent to such a course only on very terms.

Whether the France people will be allowed to establish a Republic remains to be seen. Marshal Bazaine, with his army is still hemmed in at Metz, and will have to surrender also. Bombardment of Strasbourg has been stopped, after doing great damage to the town. The famous Strasbourg Cathedral is said to be much injured.

The French people are overjoyed at the downfall of Napoleon, and the prospect of a Republic being established. The nation appears to be unanimous for self-government. The intervention of neutral powers is asked to bring about a peace which is reported that the U. S. Government has formally acknowledged, through Minister Washburne, at Paris, the new French Republic.

It is announced that the English government and other neutral powers are about to propose terms of peace, as follows: French territory to remain inviolate, France to pay Germany her expenses in the war, destruction of the fortresses in Alsace and Lorraine, and the general disarmament of France.

King William and Bismarck have to see one of the Orleans princes placed over France. European sovereigns can hardly afford to have a Republic in their midst, especially as Italy is also moving for a Republic. But the day of deliverance of all Europe from Kingly rule is not far distant.

THE PRUSSIAN REPULSE!

Paris, Sept. 12.—The Prussian advance has halted at a point nine miles from the outer works, and works are being thrown up.

The Bavarian Corps, under command of the Grand Duke, made simultaneous assaults upon Toul and Montmedy, on Saturday, and were repulsed at both places with great slaughter. At Toul the battle lasted for some hours, and the loss of the Bavarians is estimated at 10,000.

The news that Russia, Austria and the United States have moved for an armistice, is confirmed, and the advance of the Prussians on Paris has been stopped in consequence.

The news is very cheering here among the people, and the impression prevails that peace will be made in a short time.

TAKEN IN.—The "Miner's Journal" tells of a certain young clerk in an office in Pittsburgh, whose shrewdness seldom allows deception to get the better of him receiving a letter from New York, informing him, in a strictly confidential way, of course, that it would sound on five dollars—barely enough to pay the expense of looking into the matter a little—he would tell him of parties who owed him considerable sums of money. The five dollars was forwarded as requested, more out of curiosity than otherwise. A few days ago he received a receipt for his "due" from the ingenious swindler, of which the following is the substance: "Every man who detests you out of your pocket has your eyes for it get a chance, and do it in such a way that you cannot take offense at it."
