Will you please name the men nominated not "straight-out" Republicans?

It is feared that Secretary Cox of the Interior is resigning his position in the Cabinet because he will not prostitute his position to partisan purposes. We hope, for the sake of the selves. "When the war is over," says Administration, that this is a false impression. It is strongly suspected by table abyss of misery." These considsome that Cox is a Democrat.

The guerrilla stockholders of the Republican didn't want Woods elected. They favored his nomination only to secure Morrell's election. The most of them, if not all, "cut" Woods quietly, and if he had not been voted for by Democrats he would have run three or four hundred behind Wilson. The guerrillas got beat at their own game.

We understand Mr. Morrell has lost confidence in the men who carried his coat-tail during the last campaign. We told him before the nomination what he might expect, and we never had any other opinion from the day he was nominated to the day he was defeated by the conduct of those he supposed controlled the Republican party of this county.

Major General John A. Logan, Commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, has recently issued graves of deceased Union soldiers, which cannot be given too wide publicity. Many of the fallen heroes are buried in obscure and out-of-the-way places, known only to a few friends or acquaintances. The order alluded to calls upon persons knowing of such graves to report the information to some officer of the organization. It may be that the position is in Meadevile, Pa., but it cannot be tracfor the past favors the people had been pleased to confer upon him, and then said: "You will never look upon my face again speaking in a political campaign." The country will regret to lose the services of so good and useful a statesman as Mr. Colfax. He means to recruit his private fortunes, which have suffered by his public life.
