

Meetings. Mt. Zion Church, No. 20, A. F. M., meets second Monday evening of each month, in Brown's building...

On the Wing. Inu-genis—a hotel clerk. A quack dish—roast duck. Car-cation—railroad people.

Dear lodges—five-dollars-a-day hotels. Up go the store-pipes. An Ohio greaser's clerk chews candles.

Iron is being discovered in Lebanon county. When a man is earned his voice is husky. Delirium tremens is epidemic in Memphis.

A bug that flourishes all the year round—lumbago. Advice to fish-enters—deal gently with the herring.

A small thing to keep—the right side of some people. Many men are worth nothing, and some are worth less.

People who lip will persist in calling a miss a myth. Builders are a literary class; they are always fishing stories.

Dangerous associates—those who are "dressed to kill." Not synonymous—a justice of the peace, and a piece of justice.

The Way to Write an Advertisement. By no means the least of the interesting portions of a live newspaper, says the Ledger, are found in the columns edited by the public, that is to say, the advertising department.

Novel and Attractive Books. We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement for agents of S. B. Taylor, in today's issue. Among the books referred to are "The Emancipated Women of the Age," which has reached the sale of over 40,000 copies.

The Phrenological Journal and Packard's Monthly, offers an inviting table of contents for November—Julius F. Ferry, the leading statesman in the new Republic of France; Mrs. Alcott's "Little Women"; R. M. Bishop, the eminent Prussian Premier; W. H. Hooper, the Mormon Delegate to Congress; Dexter Smith, the Song Writer; What can I do Best, or requisites of the Clergyman; Physical Education; The Governors of New York—Wm. H. Seward; What Makes Woman unhappy? Spiritualism, a candid discussion; Great Men; Railway Progress; Republicanism vs. Monarchy, etc.

Now is just the time to take cold, while the weather is changing from the extreme warmth of summer to the cool condition of fall. Men often leave their homes in the morning when the sun is shining warm and pleasant, and therefore, do not take more than a sufficient amount of clothing for cold weather.

John Westbrook, of Boot and Shoe, is an agent for the best of all styles of foot-coverings. He has also a fine assortment of Gents' Silk Hats. Give him a call, and ascertain his prices before going elsewhere.

The Great Office is prepared to execute all kinds of Job Printing for the Merchant, Manufacturer, Coal Operator, and other business men, at less rates than the same can be had in this city. Give us a call.

A large stock of the best Stone-ware, of all kinds, now on hand at the Red Front Grocery, for sale cheap or than anywhere else in the county. Can't be Underbilled.
