

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

MEETINGS. Mr. Moran Logan, No. 209, A. K. M., meets second Monday evening of each month, in Brown's building.

THE GROWTH OF HUNTINGDON.—The growth of our borough during recent years, the prospects of its continued improvement and expansion, and the means by which its extent and importance may be increased, are topics of frequent discussion among our citizens.

CHURCHES. Episcopal Church—conducted by Rev. J. W. Pray, services on Sabbath, 10 1/2 A. M., 7 P. M.

brief Mention—Home-Made and Stolen. Horse flesh is suffering. Coming—Valentine day. Bridal chambers—Harmess rooms.

There are twelve prisoners in our jail. Indiana county wants a normal school. Pottsville children have the scarlet fever.

A red wolf was shot in Schuylkill county the other day. Phillipsburgers are going to bore for oil near that city.

The receipts and expenditures will appear next week. A railroad from Bloomfield to Newport is being agitated.

Philadelphia is to have four hundred additional policemen. A spanking team—Capt. Burchinell's match sorrels. 'Ghang.

Bedford Lutherans intend erecting a new church edifice the coming summer. A lady in this place 'acknowledges the corn'—four or five of 'em on one foot.

The Vigilant fire company of Altoona will dedicate their new engine house on the 22d inst.

A young lady, laboring under a severe attack of the "Hones" humor," wriggled past our office on Monday last.

Female pickpockets all wear the convenient Arab shawls. They fold their shawls like the Arabs, and silently steal away.

Philadelphian's champion rough, the notorious Jim Haggerty, was killed in a New York den on Tuesday night of last week.

Mrs. Ruth T. Ross has been elected one of the board of directors of the Wyoming National Bank of Wilkesbarre. Courage, ladies.

The Methodist congregation of Bedford intends dedicating the basement of their new church on the 15th inst. Rev. Dr. Deschals is to conduct the exercises.

The very latest of ultra-fashionable ladies is to have their boots and shoes padded at the instep, so as to give to the foot at that point a high and graceful curve.

The editor of the Lewistown Democrat will start a new paper in that place, about the first of April to be called "Fast Lane Journal." The new sheet will be independent in politics.

A very bounteous dispensation of Divine grace has been experienced in the Lutheran church of this place and the indications are that the revival will be continued throughout the week.

Our old friend of the Benton Standard will please accept "frankred assurances of our distinguished consideration" for the handsome compliment paid the JOURNAL. Designate your poison, Barr.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY OF HEMATITE ORE AT ORBISONIA.—The article which appeared in the JOURNAL of the 18th ult., has drawn out the following letter from one of the best informed citizens of the lower end of the county upon the subject of the late Ore discovery in the neighborhood of Orbisonia.

It is not strange, therefore, that the men who then had capital to invest in fine woods preferred to do so in the old town. The cheapness at which lots could be obtained in West Huntingdon was the inducement that first led people to buy there.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.—On Friday morning the tranquility of our city was disturbed by the report that an assault, with intent to kill, had been made upon Andrew Feay, an employee in the New Car Shops of the P. R. Co., in the First Ward, by a man named Hamilton Starr, employed in the machine shop.
