PASSED AT THE

THIRD SESSION OF THE FORTY-FIRST CONGRESS

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 23.]

AN ACT for the relief of certain purchasers of lands from the legal representatives of Bartholomew Cousin.

Whereas the claim of Bartholomew Cousin, or his legal representatives, is embraced in Recorder Bates' report of February second, eighteen hundred and sixteen, and confirmed to the extent of a league square, and survey numbered two thousand one hundred and ninety-six was made for the same in the year eighteen hundred and eighteen; and whereas a further confirmation was made of eight hundred and ninety-nine arpens, or six hundred and sixty-four and seventy-eight hundredths acres, in the favorable report, numbered sixty-one, of the board of commissioners created by the act of Congress of the years eighteen hundred and thirty-two and eighteen hundred and thirty-three, confirmed by the act of July, eighteen hundred and thirty-six; Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall and may be lawful for the county surveyor of said county of Girard, or whomsoever may be designated by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, to select an area, in compact form, as near as may be in the quantity of acres of the confirmation by act of July fourth, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, according to legal subdivisions, and in full satisfaction of said claim; beginning at a corner where a line of survey numbered two thousand one hundred and ninety-six intersects the north line of section twelve; thence with said line of said survey two thousand one hundred and ninety-six to a corner of said survey two thousand one hundred and ninety-six, in section twenty-three of said township and range; thence westwardly on a line sufficient distance that a line projected northerly parallel with the eastern boundary line of survey numbered two thousand one hundred and ninety-six, and running easterly to the place of beginning, will include the said quantity of six hundred and sixty-four and seventy-eight hundredths acres; and thereafter, and within one year from the passage of this act, the parties claiming in right of said Cousin may meet outside of the limits of said Cousin's tract outside of the limits of said survey numbered two thousand one hundred and ninety-six, and the selection authorized by this act to make good the second confirmation aforesaid, be, and are hereby, authorized, on satisfactory proof to the register and receiver of the land district in which said tracts are situated, each right to take payment thereon at the rate of one dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, or by preemption or claim of homestead, according to the laws of the United States in such cases made and provided.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That any tract of land, after the survey and adjustment of said confirmation, which is not embraced therein but withheld from sale by the Government of the United States by reason of the supposed interference and noise survey of said second confirmation, thereafter and in one year from the adjustment of said survey, any party or parties residing upon and cultivating such tract or parcel of land withheld from sale as aforesaid and to be fore the passage of this act, upon making satisfactory proof to the register and receiver of the land district in which such tracts or parcels are situate of actual settlement according to the provisions of this section, be, and are hereby, authorized to enter said tracts, not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres, including improvements, in said tract, and to convey five cents per acre, or claim the same as a homestead to actual settlers.

Approved, February 18, 1871.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 24.]

AN ACT to cede to the State of Ohio the unsold lands in the Virginia military district in said State.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the lands remaining unsold and unsold in the Virginia military district in the State of Ohio be, and the same are hereby, ceded to the State of Ohio, upon the conditions following, to wit: Any person who, at the date of the passage of this act, is a bona fide settler on any portion of said land may hold not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres so by him occupied by his pre-emption the same in such manner as the legislature of the State of Ohio may direct.

Approved, February 18, 1871.

[GENERAL NATURE—No. 25.]

AN ACT to repeal "An act for the survey of grants or claims of land," approved June second, eighteen hundred and sixty-two.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That an act entitled "An act for the survey of grants or claims of land," approved June second, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, be, and the same is hereby, repealed: Provided, That the repeal of said act shall not affect any rights heretofore acquired under the same.

Approved, February 18, 1871.
