

MEETINGS.
Evening of each week, in Brown's building.
Reading Room, No. 117, 1. O. P., mostly every Friday.

OUR MARTYRED HEROES!
Dead, But Not Forgotten!
TRIBUTE TO THE DEPARTED BRAVES!

Observance of the Day—Interesting Exercises—Large Attendance—The weather was intensely warm for the season, and the heat and dust rendered it very unpleasant.

THE SILENT CORNET BAND treated our citizens some good music on Saturday night.
Fashionable—Straw hats with brims of cart.

Decorations Day was generally observed throughout the country.
The locust trees are in bloom and fill the air with their fragrance.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL Convention was largely attended last week.
A new lively stable has been opened by the proprietors of the Franklin House.

THE GERMAN CITIZENS of Hollidaysburg held peace jubilee on Monday last week.
The wheat is heading, and the crop promises to be good.

THE RESIDENCE of Mr. S. A. Shamp, of Millintown, was burned to the ground on Thursday last week.
Most of our live business men are getting any bill-heads and letter-heads printed at his office.

THE LATEST NOVELTY in ladies' jewelry is ear rings resembling car-wheels suspended by a wire. They are very becoming (?).
A free fight came off between a couple of Fifteenth Amendments, on Seventh street, one night last week.

INTERESTING—That interview between our level and his Angelina, from the rural districts, on Saturday last. Ever since he has been singing that one popular song, "Give me the girl with the pink dress on."

FAILS to put an appearance—The Tyrone Herald. What's up, Brainerd? Hope you have not cut our acquaintance. Have not seen a copy for a month or more. Send it along.

ONE of the fashions of this season is to read over all the advertisements in the paper and see if all the stores are keeping up with the times and fashions. If you miss any familiar name on the list of business men, you can assume that they are not keeping pace with the age. All wide-awake business men advertise in the JOURNAL.

WE acknowledge the receipt of a can of ice cream from Col. Summers of the Castilian Garden. It is needless for us to say that it was good, for the fact that it came from the Castilian is sufficient evidence of that. The Castilian is having an increased patronage this season, and Col. Summers and his polite clerk spare no pains to make it worthy of its continuance.

SAMUEL and D. Walker Woods, sons of D. W. Woods, Esq., were thrown from a horse while they were riding, on Wednesday afternoon, at the junction of Wayne and Third streets, by the girls breaking. The former escaped with a few bruises, but the latter received a severe contusion on the head, which was thought at one time might prove dangerous.—Levinson's Gazette.

THRILLING SPEEDS.—The Fast Line on the Central exceeds any thing in point of rapidity of locomotion we have ever witnessed. On last Friday morning it went down through his place at such a fearful rate of speed that the flyers trembled and the windows rattled while they were expending an expenditure. In its wake, so thick that you could scarcely have thrown an iron bolt through it, was a furious following of all the leaves, dust, scraps of old newspapers, rags, chignons, &c., &c., that it had gathered up between this place and Altoona. A few unucky fellows, who were standing on the side walk, were caught up in the whirl of air that was blowing in the rear of it and hurled along for rods, their limbs ringing up, we suppose, at Harrisburg. A couple of fan-tailed pigeons on the track were run over and killed, and further down the river, it is said, that for two miles, a bill was against one of Jupiter's thunder-bolts at the water gate by running into the ground. W-h-e-w how the thing does run!

THE Huntingdon Manufacturing Company have sold their Planing Mill, in West Huntington to Winchester McCarthy, of Millin county, and H. L. McCartney and John A. Pollock, of Huntington, who will conduct the business hereafter. The Mill will be called the Franklin Planing Mill. Two of these gentlemen are excellent mechanics, and all are first class business men.

SHOULDER DISLOCATED.—Wilbert, son of J. Lamberton had his right shoulder dislocated on last Thursday evening, by falling from the P. C. R. R. car, near Hartford. Dr. Brumbaugh was called in and reduced the little sufferer, and he is doing well.

FINE Penmanship and articles for the Toilet sent up at Patton's. [See 3d.]

DECORATION DAY!

Those who have Gone Before.

OUR MARTYRED HEROES!

Dead, But Not Forgotten!

TRIBUTE TO THE DEPARTED BRAVES!

Observance of the Day—Interesting Exercises—Large Attendance—The weather was intensely warm for the season, and the heat and dust rendered it very unpleasant.

In pursuance of previous announcement, and in compliance with the order setting apart the 30th of May as sacred to the memories of our fallen heroes, the most ample preparation was made by our citizens for a due observance of the day and for a hearty participation in its services, during which the places of business were closed, and all united in the solemn and imposing ceremonies, which were witnessed and participated in by a large number of persons from the vicinity.

THE PREPARATORY arrangements were principally attended to by the members of the Huntington Light Infantry, assisted by the Ladies, all of whom manifested on the occasion their wondrous spirit of devoted patriotism, and all of whom are entitled to their due meed of praise. Nothing was left undone which could contribute to the interest of the occasion. Willing hands had performed with fidelity their labor of love in gathering the richest of Spring's first offering, and fair fingers had woven them skilfully and tastefully in wreaths and garlands to encircle the "glorious sleeping grounds" of the departed, and render the grave of every hero venerable with the incense of love, devotion and gratitude.

MILITARY AND CIVIC DISPLAY.
The "Keystone Guards" of Orbiscola, commanded by Capt. G. S. Baker, and the "Huntington Light Infantry," commanded by Capt. W. K. Burchfield, were the only regular military organizations in attendance, amongst whom might be recognized the names of many veterans, whose bronzed features, scarred visages, and long military bearing evinced that they had marched in far different scenes, when the sound of their marching.

THE MEMBERS of Annapolis Tribe, I. O. R. M. turned out in full regalia, and formed a most interesting feature of the procession, which, under the charge of Chief Marshal T. W. Myton, led the Court House at 2 o'clock, in the following order:

Huntingdon Silver Cornet Band.
Drum Corps.
Orator of the Day, Clergy, and Representatives of the Press.
Keystone Guards of Orbiscola.
Huntington Light Infantry.
Surviving Soldiers of the War.
Annapolis Tribe, No. 68, I. O. R. M.
Children of the Public Schools.
Citizens.

Then taking up their LINE OF MARCH to the Cemetery, through our principal streets, with draped coats, reverse arms and slow measured tread, to the sound of the muffled drum and the solemn music of the dirge. On arriving at the CEMETERY the procession was halted around the speaker's stand, improvised for the occasion beneath the friendly shade of the old ancestral trees which crown the brow of "Cemetery Hill," when the order of exercises was announced by Milton S. Lytle, Esq. presiding officer, who addressed the assemblage as follows:

Comrades of the Soldiers, living and dead. After having come to this place, as many of you have four times in many successive years, it is unnecessary to tell you why we are here to-day. It is generally said that you are here in response to any invitation. Whose presence would it be to invite you? Whose presence would it be to invite you? Whose presence would it be to invite you?

After the oration, which was listened to with the most profound and respectful attention, the DEPARTMENT CEREMONY was proceeded with in the usual order, one man from each company being stationed at every grave with a wreath and bouquet, and at a signal from the bugle, were deposited tenderly on the resting place of the departed till every mound containing the ashes of a sumptuous bier was garlanded with flowers and evergreens. The simple but impressive ceremony ended, at the signal from the bugle, the company reassembled at the speaker's stand, and a solemn dirge was played by the Band, and at the close of the dirge, the military again fell into line, and under their respective commanders marched back to their place of rendezvous preparatory to dispersing for their homes, each one with a consciousness of having performed a sacred duty, due not only to their dead comrades, but to that spirit of lofty and devoted patriotism which prompted them to die. PRO PATRIA MORI.

Sleep sweetly, in your humble graves. Sleep—martyrs of a glorious cause! For through your noble columns grates the pilgrim here to pass.

In such a land in the earth, The blossom of your fame is blown: And, somewhere, waiting for its birth, The shaft is in the storm.

Merrillville, befall the tardy years, And, somewhere, waiting for its birth, The shaft is in the storm.

Small tributes, but your shades will smile, More proudly on these wreaths to-day— Than on the wreaths that mortals moulded. The shaft shall ever be the same.

DIGNITY TAKEN DOWN, OR HOW A PATENT MILKER MAN WAS SERVED.—Dignity is a good thing! It adds so much to a fellow's proportions, and makes him feel as if he owned everything and everybody. But it seldom bears close inspection, and how and when a fellow goes into a mud-hole or something worse, and gets out, is not understood and not to be had!

Huntingdon is a kind of terrestrial paradise, and, therefore, should be exempt from the intrusions and importunities of Patent Right men, but unfortunately this is not the case. A few days ago, the town was visited by a fancy gentleman, said to be worth at least two hundred thousand dollars, a resident of the Old Bay State. He was dressed in broad cloth after the latest style; his boots were of patent leather and his hat the latest modified kid. His fingers and his nails were great and jeweled gloves covered his hands and his crumpled frock coat, the him all in a model Patent Right man.

This gentleman, in addition to all this array of adornments, was a man of supreme dignity. He, however, talked like a book and spoke of himself as doing suffering humanity a great service, and in short he was, in his own estimation, "great A. M." He carried a "Patent Milker." This was the milk in his cocoa nut. The cream of the matter was that he thought this a big thing that, though immensely valuable to him, was a duty he owed to all poor housewives and poorer milk-maids to give them the advantages of this, the greatest of modern improvements, and he fully expected them to improve on him in the highest vantage ground.

It would, in fact, cost only a few dollars and rid them of the disagreeable necessity of "milking the cows." In this wretched world, through some sad experience, the generality of mankind are incredulous. They hear your plausible statements, say yes, yes, and smile so approvingly, but when you ask them to fork over that which is necessary to close a contract, they are gone.

THE LATEST discovery—The North Pole and Arctic Soda Water at Patton's. [See 3d.]

"THE FAR WEST" its sights and scenes, was the subject of a very interesting Lecture, delivered in the A. M. E. Zion Church, on Monday evening, May 29, 1871, by Mr. U. I. C. Hughes. Mr. Hughes visited the West last winter, and returns giving a glowing account of the appearance of things in the West, and the rapidity of developments accelerated by the U. P. Railway. His description of the scenery, and the physical features of the country, was very interesting and impressive, and was listened to with breathless attention.

TO NEBRASKA, CALIFORNIA, AND KANSAS, AND THE B. & M. R. LINES.—The "Huntingdon Route," so called, lies right in the path of the Star of Empire. It runs almost directly in the center of the great westward movement of emigration. Crossing Illinois and Iowa, it strikes the Missouri river at three points.

THE MIDDLE gate is Plattsmouth, south of Omaha, and the gate of the great westward movement of emigration. Crossing Illinois and Iowa, it strikes the Missouri river at three points.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOURGHOUS COUNCIL.—Stated meeting, June 2nd, 1871: Present, Chief Burgess, Mr. Africa; Assistant Burgesses, Messrs. Murray & Bozeng; Councils, Messrs. Burchfield, Buchanan, Miller, Lewis and Shaffer.

THE COMMITTEE on streets to which had been referred a petition for the creation of a market house, reported that they had drawn up a bill authorizing the corporation to borrow money for that purpose and had sent the same to the legislature; that the bill had passed the Senate but were unable to learn if it had been passed in the House.

A bill of J. E. Smucker for material carted upon Millin street between 2nd and 3rd, laid over at the last stated meeting and read on Monday was referred to the committee on streets.

A complaint of M. A. Carmon of a nuisance upon the property of Mr. S. C. Decker between 4th and 5th streets was read, and on motion, the high constable was directed to notify Mr. Decker that the same must be abated within one week from this time.

A bond of Gratias Miller, collector for the current year and sureties was approved and the Chief Burgess authorized to place the duplicate in his hands for collection.

A bond of William H. King, High Constable, surety on the return of a writ of Habeas Corpus, was approved and the Chief Burgess authorized to place the duplicate in his hands for collection.

REVISED, that in every case where a petition, required by existing ordinances to be filed with the Chief Burgess, is not filed on the 1st day of August next, that immediately thereafter said petitions will be commenced by the borough authorities, and that the cost of the same shall be paid by the petitioner, and the same shall be collected from the delinquent. For all RINGS OF PRINTING GO TO THE "JOURNAL BUILDING."

THE SCHOOL BOOK LAW.—The bill to "prevent frauds in school books," introduced in the Senate by Senator Pettrick, during last session. The purpose of this law is certainly a good one. It is estimated that during the last decade the people of the State have been taxed at the rate of two millions and a half of dollars per annum in the purchase of school books. This immense burden was put upon them through the venality or weakness of directors and county superintendents, who ordered changes in books from year to year. The bill will relieve the people from an expense that is at the same time onerous and useless. It provides as follows:

SECTION 1. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 2. Any school director, controller or superintendent who shall violate the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars and be deprived of his office.

SECTION 3. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 4. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 5. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 6. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 7. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 8. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 9. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 10. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 11. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 12. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 13. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 14. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 15. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 16. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 17. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 18. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.

SECTION 19. That hereafter the Board of Directors of any county, and the County Superintendent, shall not order or direct or make any change in the school books or series of text books used in any school, unless his or their superintendent, direction or control more than once in every period of three years, and any laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith, shall be null and void.
