THE BEDFORD AND BRIDGEPORT RAILROAD.—The first car ran through to Bedford from Huntingdon on the Junata, September 19th, and the famous springs are now in all-rail connection with the world.

SNARE SPRING AHEAD.—The "Locals" of the Gazette has shown us an apple, from the orchard of Michael S. Ritzley, of Snake Spring township, which measures fifteen inches in circumference and weighs twenty-four ounces.

DEATH OF JUDGE WILEY.—We have had handed to us a letter from Andrew J. Johnson, of Huntsville, Alabama, which states that Judge Horton Wilely, a native of Huntingdon county, but for the last twelve or fifteen years a citizen of Huntsville, died, suddenly, in that place, of apoplexy, on the 2d inst. His mother, it is said, was a member of the Spang family.

THANKS.—Our old-time friend, Mr. John Nightingale, of Henderson township, will please accept our thanks for several varieties of apples left at our sanctum last week.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—Messrs. Edward Manley and Richard O'Neil, of Mt. Savage, have been awarded the contract for the construction of the branch of the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad, which is to connect with the Bedford and Bridgeport Railroad at Corriantown.

SOMETHING NEW.—D. Hertzler & Bro., have opened a fine assortment of Ladies' Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, &c., at their establishment, on Railroad street, which they are selling at fabulously low prices.

NEW GOODS.—We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Hon. Wm. B. Leas, to be found in another column. His stock is complete in every particular, and will be sold as low as the lowest.

FOR SALE.—A horse and half a lot of ground No. 115 Hill street. Apply at Bee Hive Grocery, 114 1/2 Hill street, Huntingdon, Pa.

GOING AROUND THE STONERSTOWN BRIDGE.—The Huntingdon & Broad Top Railroad Company are having an experimental survey made with a view to changing the line of the road so as to avoid the high bridge at Stonerstown.

A NEW ARRANGEMENT! CASH SALES MAKE GOOD FRIENDS! LOWER PRICES AND GREATER BARGAINS!—We return our sincere thanks to our numerous customers for their uninterupted custom, and assure them we will continue to supply them with good GOODS AT MOST REASONABLE PRICES.

BEST OF THE MARKET CAN AFFORD, we propose to sell for cash in the future. This we are sure will meet the entire approbation of all our customers, as by this means, we can reduce our percentage, and give them the advantage of that which we would be compelled to add for bad sales.

WE enumerate a few articles, just received from the West and the Pacific Coast. Fine line of black and colored ribbons, all widths, from 5 to 40 cts. per yard; large assortment of black, pink, blue, scarlet, green and plaid shawls, (gross grain and oil boiled silks), from 40 cents a yard upwards; large assortment of the most desirable styles of plaid and plain dress goods, all grades, which we shall offer at half their usual prices.

REPORTED WEEKLY FOR THE JOURNAL BY Henry & Co. HUNTINGDON MARKETS. HENNINGSON, Pa., Oct. 10, 1871.

Table with columns: BUTTER, EGGS, FLOUR, WHEAT, CORN, OATS, etc. and prices.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS. Oct. 9, 1871. FLOUR—Superfine, 5.50; Family, 5.00; Extra, 4.50; Common, 4.00.
