Army, Lehigh; John H. Walker, Erie.

No paper will be issued from this office next week.

J. F. Brown, of this county, late associate editor of the New Castle Gazette & Democrat, has assumed a similar position on the Clarion Democrat.

We hope the Monitor has copied Mr. Over's statement of the difficulty between himself and Mr. Hartley. We remember the circumstance very well. It was a "tilt" between a Union man to the core and a Rebel sympathizer, which the latter had better say as little about as possible.

The Philadelphia Press alleges that the State ticket will lose 300 votes in this county. We have no idea where the Press gets its information. We do not know a single Republican who will vote the Democrat ticket, and if the Republicans get a full vote out, of which there is an excellent prospect, the Republican State ticket will have 1,000 majority in old Huntingdon.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, of the 22d ult., makes a statement that the friends of Mr. Errett, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Pennsylvania, quote him as saying that "Harris cannot be elected in October, in the face of the determined opposition of so large a proportion of the Republican press, and the voters of the State." Mr. Errett commands us to give the lie to this statement. If Mr. Errett had been as anxious to conciliate and harmonize the minority, at Harrisburg, as he is to deny this harmless bombast, it would not be necessary to send printing circulars to the press.

"A BOLD, BAD, AND DANGEROUS MAN."

In his arraignment of the President, Mr. Sumner says he is "a bold, bad and dangerous man." Let us see: He did not exhibit any dangerous symptoms when he was "earning a few hundred dollars tanning leather in Galena," as Sumner sneeringly remarked. But we will follow him to Fort Donelson, where Sumner's present admirers first began to think that Grant was a dangerous man. Floyd and Pillow were both so much impressed with Grant's dangerous intentions that under cover of night's darkness they took a hasty flight. Buckner, too, deeming discretion the better part of valor, hauled down to raise the glorious stars and stripes, and thus avoid further trouble with this bold tanner.

Beauregard was of the same opinion at Shiloh, as panic stricken, with his rebel horde, he hastened from the field. Pemberton thought that entreaties would not save him at Vicksburg, as Grant's cannon raked the town, and he was so impressed with the danger threatened, that he surrendered his whole army as prisoners of war to this bold and dangerous man.

Poor Gregg felt the peril of his situation as he hastened down Lookout Mountain to get away from Grant. In the Wilderness and at Appomattox Lee was fully persuaded that Grant was a bold and dangerous man. And Jeff. Davis, too, as clad in crinoline, he found the "last ditch," entertained the same opinion.

All the Ku-Klux in rebellion think Grant a very bold and dangerous man; and the fear of the Galena tanner of hides and rebels is ever before their eyes. But to prove Mr. Sumner's assertion beyond the shadow of a doubt, those great, good, honest and conscientious patriots, Hall and Tweed, of Tammany fame, add their united testimony that Gen. Grant is a "bold, bad, and dangerous man."

We must confess that from the records it does appear that rebels, ku-klux, thieves, swindlers, and Tammany kings have reason to fear and quake with Grant in the Executive Chair.

But is there anything to show that loyal, honest and law-abiding people have ought to fear from this "bold, bad, and dangerous man?" The people will answer in November.

THE TARIFF QUESTION IN THE CAMPAIGN.

There is no more energetic class of politicians in the country than the advocates of Free Trade. They are already prepared to enter upon the Presidential campaign with vigor and determination. The nomination of Horace Greeley by the Free Traders' Convention did not, it is true, give general satisfaction among those who desired an out-and-out Free Trade candidate. But in this as in everything else Greeley has allowed his insane desire to obtain an election to crush out his long cherished principles as a matter of expediency. At a meeting of the leading Free Traders held in New York on Thursday week before last, at which Schurz, Trumbull, Wells, Bryant, Grosvenor and Atkinson were present the prevailing sentiment was in favor of endorsing Greeley, and the Chappqua Sage invited the prominent members of the party to breakfast next morning. These his life-long opponents on the tariff question are now his supporters, under a pledge, no doubt, that if he is elected they will have the privilege of selecting a Free Trader as Secretary of the Treasury.

Again, Greeley is coquetting with the Democratic party to secure a nomination at Baltimore. That party, as is well known, are all Free Traders, almost without exception. Now supposing Greeley should be endorsed and supported by the Democratic party, he will represent the entire Free Trade sentiment and power of the country. In the spirit, and in fact by the very words of the Cincinnati platform, Horace Greeley, the life-long protectionist, has divested himself of all authority and responsibility on that question. He leaves it to the different Congressional districts to say whether they will have free trade, a revenue tariff or protection. But this is a mere delusion. The people do not make the laws; and even though revenue laws originate in the Lower House of Congress, yet it is well known that the Secretary of the Treasury is the chief agent in framing the laws pertaining to the tariff. The late Hon. Robert J. Walker was President Polk's Secretary of the Treasury, and he was the author of the free trade tariff of that period. So now, should Greeley be elected the Secretary of the Treasury will be a Democrat and an advocate of free trade, and thus will largely control legislation on the tariff. Of this there can be no doubt.

In view of these facts, the necessity of informing the public mind thoroughly in the principles of protection as contrasted with free trade cannot be too strongly impressed upon the minds of the active portion of the Republican party. There will, it is now quite evident, be but two parties in the campaign, and on no question will they be more distinctively known than that of the tariff. Greeley's supporters will all, with rare exceptions, be advocates of free trade, while the leaders of the party in favor of the re-election of Gen. Grant are fully committed to the policy of protection. But the masses are not so well informed as to the relative merits and demerits of the questions of Protection and Free Trade. They are seeking information on the subject. They are anxious to understand fully the claims of each, to comprehend their relations to our industries and to the comforts of the working classes. To meet this emergency carefully prepared tracts, truthfully and clearly presenting statistical information on the subject, should have a wide circulation through the agency of the National Republican Committee, State Committees, and their auxiliaries, the local leagues and clubs. The Republican press should also have prepared and published from time to time, brief but comprehensive editorials, communications and selections on the subject. There are a number of excellent periodicals now published in the interest of the protective policy. These should be found in the editorial room of every Republican paper in the country, and liberal quotations made from week to week. Many of these publications, devoted to the principles of Protection, are conducted with great ability, and present the question truthfully and forcibly in all its bearings upon the industries and general interests of the country.

The Free Trade party are now forcing their publications gratuitously into every part of the country, and in fact into every house in each community. It is no deviation from the truth to say that those free trade publications are filled with misrepresentation, and are calculated to deceive. It could scarcely be otherwise: they start upon a false principle, and their arguments are necessarily false and deceptive. Yet the masses are unable to detect the errors of the illogical yet plausible arguments put forth, and without we circulate the antidote and place it within the reach of the public generally, the Free Trade poison is permitted to do its work without check or hindrance.

But even if Greeley should be rejected by the Baltimore Convention and a Democrat selected, or no selection made at all, the necessity of thorough work in the circulation of information on the question and importance of Protection to American Industries will not be any the less imperative. The Free Traders are at work and will continue at work throughout the campaign, and for that matter to the end of time, if they cannot accomplish their purpose sooner. They will work under Greeley as their leader, or they can labor independent of him, and so long as they are lavishly supplied with British gold, the Democratic press will be subsidized in their interests, and the country will continue to be filled with free trade pamphlets and free trade lecturers.

Hon. John Cessna, for the purpose of carrying the Congress of Fulton county, for Congress, has purchased the Fulton County Republican and named W. Scott Alexander, Esq., as editor. We are sorry that our friend Shaffer, with whom we have always been on the best of terms, and who is a very clever gentleman, is retiring from the editorial chair. We wish him success in anything in which he may engage in the future.

The thing that has made the most noise in the world, for the last week or two, has been the Boston Jubilee.

We choose to reserve the right and privilege of questioning the wisdom of committing the party to the support of the Cincinnati nominees, believing a bold and a president plan is practicable, but since, by courting this Liberal influence, things have assumed the present attitude, and inasmuch as we are doing nothing and are doing nothing, we fall to discuss anything in the resolutions which would or could be very objectionable to the party. They are now working on all material objections to the present party in power, there seems to be but little diversity of opinion among them; an immense number of them is the laud manner in which the Monitor puts it. The editor is just preparing the button for Greeley's head, and when the Baltimore Convention endorses him, he will pin the venerable philosopher's ears back, and swallow him, gaiters and all, "just as e-a-s-y"—in less time than it will take to read the above straight sentence.

The Harrisburg Telegraph is applying the lash fearfully to the few who do not support the State ticket. Would it not be more advisable to treat these people in a more liberal spirit and not drive them out of the party? "Rule or ruin" is bad policy. We think a little conciliation would be far more preferable. We know a few editors who can't be intimidated, and this kind of thing wouldn't work well with them.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

The Campaign—Reports from the Country—Intelligence from the North—Prospect in the South.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 1, 1872. THE CAMPAIGN. The Congressional Republican Committee at Washington, are daily in receipt of letters from all part of the country, giving the views and general temper of the people. Mr. Sumner's attack upon the President, according to all accounts, has done much to strengthen the President in the confidence and affections of the people. It is so completely confined to stale and oft repeated charges, which had already been proved to be utterly without foundation in truth, that it is now seen that the opposition is personal, selfish and frivolous. There is more popular to-day, the Republican party is more united than when Grant was elected President.

THE FEELING IN THE NORTH. Senator Wilson made a short visit to Washington, last week. He says the party is unit in the New England States, and the November elections will return much larger majorities for Grant than on the former Presidential election. Mr. Wilson is in excellent spirits. Summer, he says, will not lose the support of his constituents, but they are severe in their denunciations of his personal attack on Grant.

THE REPORTS FROM THE SOUTH. The Hon. Wm. E. Chandler, secretary of the Republican National Committee, is in receipt of numerous letters from the South, giving the most cheering accounts in relation to the coming campaign and to the feeling generally in that section. Mr. Chandler's correspondents say that if Mr. Greeley is nominated on indored at Baltimore, the Democratic party will be more divided than in the North, and that a large number of the best men of the South who took part in the late war will vote for Gen. Grant. N. H. P.

Letter from the West.

LEAVENWORTH, KAN., June 20, 1872. Editor Journal: We left Council Bluffs, Ia., on the morning of the 14th inst., en route for St. Joseph, Mo., and Leavenworth, Kansas. The railroad over which we traveled, being the Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluffs. It is a part of the Great Southern Line, by which passengers, coming from the beautiful plains of the Union Pacific, reach St. Joseph and New Orleans in the shortest time. It traverses for nearly two hundred miles the rich valley of the Missouri river, on whose broad banks the prairie extends to the bluffs of the Missouri river is fifteen to twenty miles in width, while at Omaha, it is not more than four miles, and at St. Joseph, two hundred miles. The country is a beautiful one, and the population of over 1,500. Crossing the southern boundary of Iowa, after leaving Hamburg, we traversed the counties of Atchison, Holt and Andrew in Missouri, and reached St. Joseph about noon.

This city is pleasantly located on the east bank of the Missouri river, and is a popular resort for the country-side. It is 565 miles above St. Louis, and is said to be the third city in the State, in population. It is a beautiful one, and the population of over 1,500. Crossing the southern boundary of Iowa, after leaving Hamburg, we traversed the counties of Atchison, Holt and Andrew in Missouri, and reached St. Joseph about noon.
