Pennsylvania Railroad. The drive to and from Cassvillo is one of the most delightful in the State, presenting scenery of the sublimest aspect—the grand old mountains around whose distant peaks the pale smoke wreaths and curls like banners. The beautiful valley, with its fields of green corn lazily bending before the soft south wind—its grassy meadows, affording a rich pasture—the "bine Juniata," which, in the morning sunlight shines in its mountain path like a sheen of silver, and whose limpid waters always remind me of the story of Anethma, burrying from the embraces of the water god to blithe Cecilia,—all go to make up a round of observation from which the only line issue of the day and on that ealls for hearty support of all temperance men.

The following were the nominations reported:

Legislature, W. R. Baker, Orbisonia; Prothonotary, A. C. Greenland, Cassville; Register and Recorder, T. D. Stevens, Mt. Union; County Commissioner, John Whitney; Director of the Poor, Geo. W. Cornellus; Auditor, R. S. Henderson, Marleton.

Prof. Atkinson, of Huntingdon, moved to lay the report of the committee on the table.

How to Go West .- This is an inquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C. B. & Q. R. R." running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I. B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. and form the great Burlington Route, which runs direct through Southern Lowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Huntingdon county, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the Burlington Route.
