GRANT AND WILSON—HART-RANFT AND ALLEN.—We propose holding meetings at the following named times and places. The best speakers to be obtained will be in attendance and address these rectings. The "Tidal Ware" or "Ground Swell" which was to have swept across the continent and carried the Sage of Chappaqua into the White House, has failed to come to time, and we now find Horace Greeley Houndering about with no organized party at his back, whilst Gen. Grant sails along calmly and smoothly toward the coveted prize, with scarcely a rifle to mar the way.

Republicans, we have been victorious on every side. Alleyes are turned to Pennsylvania, which is to be made the battle-ground in the contest.

don.
There will be a meeting at the Court House in Huntingdon, on Thursday evening, Sept. 26, 1872, which will be addressed by Governor E. F. NOYES, and Gen. ADAM E. KING.
There will also be a Mass Meeting, in Huntingdon, on Wednesday evening, October 2d, the second day of the Fair. Able speakers will be in attendance. All are invited to attend. Let us make this one of the largest meetings ever field in Huntingdon.

Does the Globe recommend its candidate to Republican voters because while the Republican candidate was fighting his country's battles its candidate was at home elated by rebel victories and prophesying theultimate overthrow of the union armies?

Or, is it because the Globe's candidate has two arms while the Republican candidate has been so careless in the performance of the Ebensburg Herald says:

The Ebensburg Herald says:

Pop_ Hon. R. Milton Speer is again on his electioneering path, and in his peculiar, plausible, kind manner, is modestly attempting to induce Republicans to one more vote for him for Congress. He wishes to extort from those differing from him on vital political principles, a promise to vote for him, as a citizen and ueighbor.—

But this little game of an experienced political schemist is played out. He is known as a sly demagogue—a man of principle in proportion to his interest—and whose governing motives and promptings are selfish—exclusively for himself. The interests of the people are a secondary matter with him.

Pop_ The Globe candidate for Prothons of carry has entirely failed to perform the duties of his office satisfactorily to the persons who have most business to do there. He makes his official duties a secondary matter, what can be expected of him should he be re-elected and when he has nothing further to expect?
