GRANT AND WILSON.

THE LAST RALLY AT THE COURT HOUSE.

ON FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 1, 1872 HON. JOHN SCOTT, and HON. WAYNE M'VEIGH, the community in which he locates is always a few hundred or thousand dollars better off for his having located in it. The West asks for people and people bring with them wealth, and wealth builds up the country and makes it prosperous and happy.

THE DUTY OF THE HOUR.

Republicans to the Front.

Every voter is aware of the fact that the Presidential election takes place on the 5th of November, consequently this is our last issue previous to the final struggle.—
We urge every lover of the Union, who has the right to cast a freeman's ballot, to has the right to east a freeman's ballot, to go to the polls and vote for Gen. Grant. We urge every business man, who desires success, to go to the polls and work for the re-election of President Grant. We have won the first line of the enemy's works and had a glorious victory, but we ribbon. must not stop here but press onward until our victory is made complete. During the rebellion our arms were crowned with conduct us to their pleasant, comfortable many successes, but how often and sadly home. Here we spent the Sunday princiwere we mistaken when we sat down to pally in admiring the magnificent residenrest and rejoice over the valiant deeds of heroes, for in the hour of exultation the very many splendid private residences beenemy was silently and energetically at work to overturn our victory. Let us up, then, and march onward.

No Republican should, under any pre text or excuse, stay away from the polls. No one must console himself with the be lief that the State is sure for Grant, as the basis of an excuse to save the trouble of going to the election. We insist upon it that it is the duty of every voter to exercise his right of franchise. It is true that Gen. Hartranft was triumphantly elected Governor by over thirty-six thousand majority, but it was not accomplished by the help of those Republicans who did not go to the polls. We say to you who did not vote at the October election, come with us —it is your duty as noble men—and help roll up a majority of 75,000 for President Grant. Then Pennsylvania will no longer be looked upon as a doubtful State, but be forever known as a people fixed in the principles of eternal right and justice to- road arc so many hives of industry. Man-

Grant led our armies to into requisition to give employment to invictory and preserved the Union, and nobly numerable men, women and children. did you show the world your gratitude four years ago by giving him over twelve springing up like magic and the railroad hundred majority in this county. During his administration we have had peace—a glorious peace at home and abroad-and ter, Mansfield, Crestline and Fort Wayne unparalleled prosperity in every depart- and many of lesser note are growing very ment of business throughout the entire rapidly. country. Then let us say, through the ballot-box, that we approve of his course very much crowded and continued so until as a President, and that he deserves our lafter twelve o'clock. An Extraordinary Story of Crime.

An almost incredible story is told in the Manchester Guardian of Oct. 4. It is in the form of an official report as to the antecedents of the woman Cotton, who is in the poisoning.
