FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE MATERIAL PROSPERITY OF THE LOCALITIES 12 WHICH THEY ARE PUBLISHED. However Huntingdon county is an exception to the rule. It is exceedingly doubtful whether there is another county in the State, or is the United States, where this is so. We have endeavored, for two years, to teach the Commis ioners of this county a decen respect for the rights and interests of their local papers, but having failed, we now desire to make a statement to the pub lie that our course in the future may be fully understood. Anything that we may say in regard to the gentlemen who com trol that office we do not desire to apply to David Hare, Esq , the new Commissioner He is a gentleman who fully appreciates the ix portance of having good local journ als to urge the improvement of our resour ces, a better state of morals and to protec our material interests and thus save hun dreds of dollars to the tax-payers, in re turn for the few dollars expended for County Printing.

When the editor of this paper tool charge of it, he enlarged it to the same size of the paper that he was most familian with-the Bedford Inquirer-and knowin; what it east to confluct that paper, he de termined to place the Journal, in al respects, upon the same footing. In ex amining the prices charged for advertising he found them almost the same for regu lar advertisements, but much lower for transient. This latter class only effect those who advertise now and then for few insertions, without stated contracts -The County, which only has advertising under the law for three or four insertion at a time, belongs to the latter class. We asked the other publishers to join us is making a scale of rates for regular adver tisers and to fix upon a price for transien advertising. This was done, and the ratfixed for each insertion was ten cents pe line for less than three months, or when no contract was made. This was and still the price charged in Bedford. We thought the people of Huntingdon county were fully as able to pay these prices a the citizens of Bedford county. The Com missioners, however, thought differently They refused to pay these prices, and, we not wishing to have any difficulty, offere to compromise. Different rates were ofer ed and eventually the Commissioner PROPOSED TO PAY us six cents a line for each insertion, i. e. to pay us eighteen cents per line for the same work, for three insertions, for which the Inquirer peopl get thirty cents, or three-fifths of the Bed ford price. We accepted this though we considered it a very low proposition. A the conclusion of last year the Commis sioners reques ed us to make a proposition for this year's printing. After consultation, we came to the conclusion, as the law required the publication of all advertisements controlled by the Commissioners in three papers—a most unreasonable law—we would not ask for an advance in price, but filled up a paper proposing to take six cents a line for this year. This proposition was contemptuously rejected. for this year's printing. After consulta take six cents a line for this year. This proposition was contemptuously rejected as follows: War, $3.369.4-8; navy, by the august board and a paper drawn up and served upon us in which they said not even upon us in which they said they would pay us three and one-half cents a line, or ten and a half cents, for the graphs account of the debt for the month of December will be much larger.
