THE POSTAL TELEGRAPH.

The importance of the Government Telegraph question is before both branches of Congress...

The United States Senate took the wind out of the sails of the demagogues who control the House of Representatives...

In another column we publish the prospectus of the New York Tribune. Under its present management the Tribune will endeavor to carry out the objects of its founder...

Sticking on Cuba. An important dispatch from Minister Sickles to Secretary Fish, dated August 6th, 1872, has just been made public...

The following persons have been elected to the Senate of the United States within the last ten days: Hon. Simon Cameron, Pennsylvania; Hon. John P. Jones, Nevada...

We publish the Inaugural Address delivered by Gov. Hartranft, on taking the oath of office, at Harrisburg, on last Tuesday...

We call the attention of our readers to the prospectus of the New York Times published in our advertising columns.

The President's Proclamation. An important Executive Order has been issued by the President. It forbids Federal officers from holding, at the same time, offices under the authority of the States and Territories...

The order is timely and judicious. It is impossible for one servant to serve two masters. It is not intended, however, that Federal officers shall be deprived from a full and free expression of their political opinions...

The Congressional Committee

Ways and Means, after mature deliberation, and listening to the views of Secretary Boutwell...

The Congressional Committee took the wind out of the sails of the demagogues who control the House of Representatives...
