

Everybody is for Local Option. Atkinson wants a district court. Who is willing to build an office? Fort Lincoln contains three prisoners. The coal trade on Broad Top is lively. Read the letter from India, on first page. Henry & Co. have built a handsome office. Who will bring us a lead of kindling wood? There is a prevailing disease hereabouts. Don't forget the rifle tournament on Saturday next. The name of coal oil is about to be changed to "kank" and "kank" is the name of the oil. The plasterers are at work at Long's new office on Hill street. Have your sale bills printed at the Journal office, neat and cheap. Read the various letters under the head of "Voices of the People." See in another column, advertisement about Iowa and Nebraska lands. The Fire Company will practice with the engine, on Saturday next. See in another column, advertisement about Iowa and Nebraska lands. The county bridge, at Mill Creek, has been repaired and is now passable. W. O. Cunningham, Esq., has bought the "Italian Cottage" on the bluff. The Broad Top Company is putting in their traction engine, and will be ready to start on the 25th inst. The religious revival in the A. M. E. Church, in this place, is still in progress. The fire company are starting a library—Make them a present of a few books. Take her up tenderly, lift her with care; know how dear she is paid for her hair. The Lenten season commences on the 25th inst., instead of the 14th, as stated last week. The "Voice" has the most perfect paper of any exchange list, by a long run, nor is it in its dotage, either. Mr. Mary Benton, of Galitzin, Cambria county, died at the advanced age of 118 years, a few days ago. Anthony Forsley, killed a black snake, measuring over three feet, near Pleasant Grove, on last Monday. Senator Petrekin will accept our thanks for a copy of the Report of the Board of Charities of Pennsylvania. Mr. S. B. Taylor, the sewing machine man, lost a valuable tray, by death, on Thursday morning last. Discover an ounce worth of gum arabic in a half gallon of water, and you have twenty-five cents worth of muelleage. Joseph C. Long, Esq., of Bloody Run, Bedford county, has been appointed a Notary Public by the Governor. Go where you will, and the universal cry is that Huntington has no respectable hotel building. Why is this? We have a new carrier this week, and if any of our subscribers will receive their papers they will please notify us. The individual who carried away from our office three numbers of Godey's Lady's Book is politely requested to return them. The Governor has approved the bill fixing monthly return days in Huntington, Bedford, Fulton, Juniata, and Union townships. Mrs. Hearnace, of West township, gave birth to triplets, two girls and a boy, last week. They were all living at last accounts. On Sunday last officer Westbrook made a descent on a number of boys who violate the Sabbath and disturb the services. Capt. Edward Turner, of Saxton, is the Agent of the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals for Bedford county. The Central Pennsylvania Conference of the M. E. Church is to convene at Chambersburg, March 4th, and is to be presided over by Bishop Merrill. Our old carrier has taken the advice of the laundress Greeley, and "cleaned up." He served our patrons well. We are sorry that he has left us. A provision should be inserted in the new Constitution requiring that no one who has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude is done the tax-payers under the present system. The most stupid attempt yet, that we have seen for a long time, is the effort of a greensmith to do up the skunk business in this county. Somebody said, the other day, that Mr. Goo had a rough road to travel. We hope Mr. Knight will help him make it smooth. It wants new iron. Henry & Co. have built a handsome little addition for an office, on the south side of their main building. Step up to Captain Frank's and settle. The latest whim of fashion is inflated rubber busties. It takes a young husband, with weak lungs, half an hour to blow his wife up to a fashionable rotundity. The Presbyterians have had quite an interesting series of meetings in progress, in this place, for several weeks, and quite a number have joined the church. We learned while in Bedford, that the probabilities are that Reed & Schell's assignees will pay fifty per cent. of the indebtedness. Much better than was expected. In Adams, Lancaster and Franklin counties all sales of real estate, or personal property, are advertised in the county papers. In Huntington county it is seldom done. How about the tax work? There is not another town in the size of Huntington, that has not done something towards supplying its citizens with good water. The spirit of George Francis Train seems to be "loving-kindness" only a little of it in the Huntington Globe—Bloody Run, "Ode" to a little "crazy" you mean, old fellow? What strange link is it that requires the clergy to be everywhere? The more the people assure us that they are not to blame. Who is? We lost a package by the operation. George A. Black has opened a fish market, in the basement of the Broad Top corner, opposite the Union Hotel. The fish are fresh, fish of all kinds, every Thursday, during the season. It is reported that an engine ran off the top of Broad Top, on Saturday last. The engineer and fireman escaped unhurt. We did not learn the extent of the damage. A meeting of the committee to revise the Premium List of the Agricultural Society, will meet at the Court House, on Thursday, the 20th inst., at 10 o'clock, a. m. A full attendance is requested. Our item, of a week or two ago, relating to an attempt to inveigle a young man into the meshes of matrimony, seems to have raised the indignation of a number of readers. "If the child-marriage" is to be allowed, it is better that it should be authorized by the legislature. A. S. Roberts, deceased, to convey real estate to the Rock Hill Iron and Coal Company, and receive stock in said company in payment of the same, has passed the Senate. A sapper will be given, at the Exchange here, this (Tuesday) evening, by the employees of the Broad Top Railroad, to John McKilling, the late Superintendent of that road. It will, no doubt, be a handsome affair. The school board of Huntington, by a vote of four to two, have determined to build a creditable school house, in a convenient part of the town. All honor to the men who have resolved upon this righteous purpose. The Holidays Register thinks the President should let his readers know all about the cause of his late notoriety. It would be fine reading for the soldiers' orphans and the ladies who have been sending in their subscriptions to his paper. Last week a stream of water was struck in one of the mines of the Kemble Coal and Iron Company, near Riddleburg; that kept four men pumping night and day for several days. Among the appointments of the Allegheny Conference of the U. E. Church, are the following: Albany, Rev. J. Walker; Tyrone, Rev. G. Chappell; Hollidaysburg, Rev. R. C. Boston; Huntington, Rev. D. S. Messenger; Johnstown, Rev. M. P. Doyle. An investigation of the facts, by an agent of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, in the case of the alleged burning of a living boar, by one Samuel Hill, of Bedford county, brings to the fact that the boar was killed before the burning process was resorted to. Samuel evidently didn't believe the witch did with the boar.

Superintendent Brown, of the B. & H. Railroad, put a large gang of men to work, on last Wednesday morning, on the extension of that road to McKee's Gap. Harry Drollinger, Esq., of Hopewell, contracted to build eight miles of the road, for the sum of $100,000. Mr. William Foster tells us that he has opened the hand-dredge for the Rock Hill Iron and Coal Company, on East Broad Top, and that the dredge has been in operation for three days, and has about twelve feet of coal. Hurrah for East Broad Top! Mr. Petrekin introduced a bill for the relief of John Heffer. It is a supplement to an act to incorporate the Huntington, Fulton and Franklin Railroad. Also, a further supplement to an act to incorporate the Huntington, Fulton and Franklin Railroad and Coal Company. One of our former friends, in Henderson township, informs us that he owns a canoe, of the female gender, that he taken into her charge, and keeping a small kitten, which she watches over with tender care, suckling it and giving it as much attention as its filial parent could possibly do. We do not see our representatives at Harrisburg have introduced a bill to repeal the "kank" bill, yet. Why is this? If half the money paid for "kank" hides had been paid for the same quantity of wool, the wool would have passed under a suspension of the rules, inside of twenty-four hours. Huntington has the most industries set of o'clocks in the State, and the number of o'clocks, and continue, at intervals of fifteen minutes, until about four o'clock in the morning. When the grand old o'clock is struck, it is kept up incessantly until daylight. The Court should make a standing order of every orphan's court, or other legal notice, under its jurisdiction, should be published in at least two papers, one of each representing the leading political parties, in each county, having the largest bona fide circulation; otherwise great injustice is done to taxpayers. It is currently reported that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is going to lay its third and fourth tracks, across the mountain, on the line between this county and Westmoreland. This should be done the Williamsburg road, will, quite probably, be continued on to this place, on the opposite side of the mountain, and the route will be a main line below the town. The Bedford Inquirer gives the census of a remarkable family in Londonderry township, Bedford county. It says that a few days ago a company of young men, and their wives, who had given birth to twins seven times during the last seven years, and that the prolific mother, a woman between thirty and forty years of age, in addition, bore a child regularly every year for ten years of the last seventeen, thus making an addition to the population during that time of twenty-two.

DEED PERSONALS—

Petter collects the taxes. Helm still keeps the stamps. Dr. Gump is not growing any. Louise Saupp isn't married yet. Songster has the longest beard. Sam Barely is as gray as a rat. Bowers handed the greasy soap. Harris did not get any more. Bob White has the "rheumatism." Loyer is as good looking as ever. Bob Stockman still buys "arose." Dr. Watson is as good-natured as usual. Dan Crouse is the pushiest young man in town. Dr. Hickok takes no interest in secret societies. Scott Hughes weighs considerably less than a Shires, Jim, thinks there is nothing like the Resorte. Cramer belongs in the cottages. They are perfect paradises. Sammy Jordan is as neat and trim as a French dancing master. Cessa, Bonn, lectures on education. He thinks it is a good thing. Simon Cook carries his age well. He moves about as lightly as a feather. Sheriff Cessy's locks are frosted. He ought to live fifty years yet. Maj. Dibert moves heavily. He looks like one of the patriarchs of our country. Points in parting on a fatherly air. That's why! It's a boy, you know. Nels Alsp always talks about some old place. He is a pleasing fellow. Hays Irvine is up in the world where we live. He is a man of many parts. Maj. Mull sticks to the Washington. He is as sociable as in days of yore. Reynolds is a nice young man—so the ladies say. He bears his honors heavily. Esop Alsp looks every inch a Frothnotary. These are the names of the names. Logansacker holds his own about as well as any young married man at the Bar. Ben Irvine is getting along cleverly—doing a good business. Success to you, Henry. Hurdoff is getting fat. He ought to take a course of lean in his next year. Benedict is as clever as ever. He wishes well to all mankind, and we live him for it. Lutz looks sorrowful. A suspension of business, for a year or so, would do him good. Nels wants to get everybody. He is always ready to take your money and your life. Kerr ain't a bit fat—he has a hungry look about him. Heavy editors weigh him down. Father Agnew reads and sings out "silence," as sonorous as usual. He is always a "Gentleman." Clay makes a good Sheriff. When he catches a fellow he had better give him. Maj. Washburn is a fixture. He never varies. He appears as young as he did twenty years ago. Alex. King's whiskers are most too bushy. Condit you cut 'em down a little? Just an inch or two. John C. Wright smiles so pleasantly as ever. There is nothing wrong with him. He is always the same. Benny Blymyre will burn his fingers with old staves. Wonder who will fix them when he suspends his hair. Squire Lightfoot has a pet boy. The "Squire" Lightfoot is as amiable as usual. Long may he wave. Will Jordan says his goods are a dandy in the market. We lost that bundle in the exchange of cars. Squire Nicodemus is always at his post, and as prompt as ever. He is one of the best business men in the town. Oster has not taken into himself a wife yet. He looks as much as a boy, and as cheap as the most married man in town. Spang, good old Spang, the wheel-horse of the Criminal Court, is getting corpulent. More exercise, friend, and your church case was a bad one, but you made it. Will Smith, Jonathan Cessa, Alex. King and John Jordan are so pleasant and agreeable to the people from the country. One of them will be the next Governor. THE TWO PRINCIPAL BUILDINGS OF THE ALMS HOUSE.

THE ALMS HOUSE. The two principal buildings of the Alms House, at the corner of Broad and Hill streets, were on Wednesday night last, destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $75,000—Insurance Light.—On Wednesday night last, about 12 o'clock the lights of the hour were disturbed by the alarm of fire. The County Clerk of the statement of the Huntington County Alms House for 1872. Nine thousand five hundred and fifty dollars were received for supporting a tax-payers list at the Alms House for 1872. Tax-payers, look at this! How do you think the County Alms House for 1872, as though an investigating committee would not be sent to investigate the receipts and disbursements of the Alms House for 1872, and to keep in touch with the poor house for a few days?
