I has often been said that the majority of people have no head above their eyes—or, in other words, care more for pictures than for reading—and therefore only the consideration of expenses has hiterito prevented the estab-lishment of a daily illustrated newspaper in the City of New York. That difficulty has been remeved, and The Daily Graphic has made its appearance with four pages of ad-miral illustrations of art and currant events, and four pages of letter press centaining the cream of the news and life pictures of the day. Of Ourse this has not been accomplished by any of the old processes of woodcuts. Recent f when God shall tread upon and crass this mass of corruption that is robbing the earth of its beauty, and filling the land with mour-ners until it shall be everlastingly and eter-ally dead and now that time has come and as God works by means, let every voter use those means and erush one of the worst curses that ever fell upon our race.
