COLORED JURORS.—The following ex-ract is from the charge of Judge Hall to the Colored Jurors.—The following extract is from the charge of Judge Hall to the Grand Jury of Bedferd county, at the February sessions. It is in relation to colored jurors, and what his honor addressed to the Bedford county Grand Jury on the subject is equally applicable to our own county:

For many years, extending into the past as far as my professional life, and beyond it, perhaps, as far as any of our memories, there has been no colored man summoned as a juror in any Pennsylvania Court, until within the last few years. Growing out of the late war waged by the slaveholders in rebellion against the Government of the United States, there was enacted in 1865 an amendment to the National Constitution abolishing slavery. This was the 13th amendment. Soon after, the 14th amendment was ratified, by which it was provided that no State should enact any law abridging the privileges and immunities of any citizen of the United States. This was speedily followed by the 15th amendment, providing that no man should be denied the right to vote on account of color.

Therefore, by the highest enactment of human law, alt men are equal before the law, and colored men are "gualified electors."

The State law provides, it shall be the duty of the Jury Commissioners and President Judge or Additional Law Judge, or a majority of them to select "from the qualified electors of the county at large" the designated number of "sober, nutelligent and judicious persons to serve as jurors."

The Constitution of Pennsylvania provides that all officers shall take an oath to support the Constitution of the State and to perform the duties of their office with fidelity.

In addition to this eath the jury Commissioners swear "to use their utmost endeavors and diligence in making an impartial selection of jurors."

The Jury Commissioners or Judge, therefore, who would refuse to put in the name of a qualified elector, simply because of the color of the skin, when he was otherwise qualified, would violate his oath of office. As well might he refuse to of strict obedience to the law. "Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Casar's. Then saith he unto them, render unto Casar the things that are Casar's." In a Government of the People, reverence for law is the very cornerstone of the edifice. There can be no enduring government without it. We may not like the Constitution and the laws. If we do not, we have a right to vote in favor of a change by amendment in the regularly constituted mode. But as long as any provision is the established law, no citizen is at liberty to disober it; much less an officer of the law eating under the solemn searction of an oath.

It would not only be a violation of his oath of an oath.

It would not only be a violation of his oath for a Jury Commissioner to deliberately and designedly exclude a man's name from the wheel simply because of his color, if he is otherwise qualified, but it would be a misdemeanor in office. And all parties aiding and abetting therein would be criminally responsible.

Moreover, the Attorney at law who would single a man out and persistently challenge him for sole reason of his solor would violate his oath and law.

The nevelty of having a colored man on a pannel of jurors having attracted general attention, and some newspaper comments, we have deemed it a matter of importance that you, gentlemen, and all other officers of the law, shall understand the law, and what would amount to violations of it. It is a mistake to regard this matter as one of sentiment, or inclination, or prejudice, or partisan feeling. It has advanced from that, so far at least as all officers of the law are concerned, into the demain that is governed by solemn oaths and by constituted laws.

When by all the promplers of your case," manhood, work and vote "AGAINST LICENSE," by every feeling of self interest and self protection vote "AGAINST LICENSE," by all the fearfal warnings of the past, ever looming up with the sad spectacle of rained and wrecked lives, and burdened with its weight of crime and misery, vote AGAINST LICENSE."

In conclusion, we desire to warn all voters, against the many false stories that are put in circulation to distract the attention from the true issue. No doubt there will be wild stories at every election poll, that the law has been repealed, that there will be no hotels in the county, that if no license is carried, then every person will have the right to sell liquor. Believe no such stories; they are only started to delude thoughtless people out of their votes.

S. E. HENRY, Ch. Co. Com. J. HALL MUSSER, Secretaries

John Logan, the Honest (?) Steward of the Huntingdon County Alms House!

Mr. Editor:—I see that John Logan (his signature, but the letter written by the great moralist, G. W. W.,) has seen fit to make an ungentlemanly and personal attack on me

I deny it. I returned from Clearfield in March 1872. If I was not a resident of the place why did you go to William Harvey a week or so before the delegate election last fail, and tell him that it was your intention to do all you could to have me appointed physician?—Who asked you to give your influence in that way? Did you not do it expecting him (Harvey) to vote for your delegates? It wouldn't win, would it? Did you not know it was a false promise? Or did you, for the time, forget you had keepers?
Why don't you answer the direct charges preferred against you by "tax-payer," instead of propounding a lot of silly questions to me? You do the next best thing you can, that is to get some one else to write an article and you sign your name to it denying the whole. Of course, the people will believe it. I like your way of replying to "tax-payer" by propounding questions to another party. I do not think your silly questions worth replying to, as they are only gotten up for buncembe to lead persons from Poor House affairs. Yet if you have any great desire to see my diploma, call at the office and I will try and enlighten you in regard to all the questions proposed. My army record also. McNite is recognized by the County Medical Society, is he? (A shrewd advertisement.) I don't know whether I am or not, and don't care. I never asked admission of them, consequently they never refused me. I am, however, recognized by the County Medical Society, is he? (A shrewd advertisement.) I don't know whether I am or not, and don't care. I never asked admission of them, consequently they never refused me. I am, however, recognized by the County Medical Society, is he? (A shrewd advertisement.) I don't know whether I am or not, and don't care. I never asked admission of them, consequently they never refused me. I am, however, recognized by the County Medical Society and influential a body. The people here also recognize me. If I have no qualifications for the practice of medicine, why are the Poor House Doctor's patients coming to me warm stove, John, and an extra chair for friends.

Now, John, as you are such an extraordinary honest man, why did you effer to pay the fare of Mr. Messerman and wife to McVeytown last fall if he would stay till after the delegate election? And did you not ask a Republican to vote your mixed ticket? Did not the man say that "he was a Republican?" and you in reply say that "we are all mixed up together this fall?" Did not you ask or tell certain merchants that if they would help you that you "would make it all right?" I will let "tax-payer" answer for himself, at least what pertains to him, which no doubt he will do in good time. As fer myself I try to do my own writing. If I do need any assistance it may be to spell gourd.

I thank you, John, for your advice. If I get tired of my company I will try on your "fixins," if you give "boot," but at present I will not take any of "yours" in mine. In conclusion, I presume John Logan will affix that awful signature of his te anything that the "Literati ring" will ask. Yours, &c.

obtained, I find but eight persons in this country are receiving a support as a town charge."
Columns of testimony could be produced as showing the decrease of erime and pauperism in counties and districts where there is no license.

Remember, Fellow Citizens, the great responsibilities that cluster around your vote. Vote "for license" and the open temptation continues to allure its victims. Vote "for license" and when you say the bloated, reeling drunkard, feel and say—I voted for that. When you learn of families abused, the heart and hope of the wife crushed, the children ignorant and imbruted by the father's drunkenness say and feel—I voted for that. When you see the prison and poor house filled, the taxes increased, and riot running wild, asy and feel—I voted for that. When you see the prison and poor house filled, the taxes increased, and riot running wild, asy and feel—I voted for that. When you see the prison and poor house filled, the taxes increased, and riot running wild, asy and feel—I voted for that. When you have the prison and poor house filled, the taxes increased, and roto running wild, asy and feel—I voted for that. You cannot escape that responsibility, except by voting "Acanists License," by very feeling of sell interest and self protection vote "Acanists License," by every feeling of sell interest and self protection vote "Acanists License, by all the vote "Acanists License

People rule and not factions.

As a farmer and citizen of Trough Creek from childhood, I am forced to say, the appelation "Potato region" is not coveted. We do claim to produce a superior quality of potatoes, but do not claim to be the "potato hole" of the county, on the contrary we might claim the name of the "Oscoola" of the county, having three Steam Saw Mills in operation in our midst, furnishing for the market.

EXCELSIOR.— Dr. Wengert's Family Medicines Dr. Wengert's Family Medicines are considered superior to all others before the American public for the speedy and certain cure of the diseases for which they are recommended. Invalids, try them, and be convineed of the truth of what we assert. It is but ten months since they were first offered to the public, and to-day they are sold by first-class Druggists and Merchants in Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, New Yerk, the Virginias, Ohio, Indiana, and the District of Columbia. Surely they are not humbugs or they would'nt be so highly commended by the intelligence of the most powerful states in all this fair land. They are classified so as to meet the most difficult diseases for which they are offered, not one medicine for all the diseases humanity is heir to.

The Mayic Balm

The Magic Balm cannot fail to cure Coughs and Colds if used ac-cording to directions. For all diseases arising from impurities in the blood use the THE INDIAN VEGETABLE

Restorative and Blood Purifier. THE SAMSON OIL

eed only be tried to convince any one that it will eure Cramp Celic, Bunions, etc. The Hepatica Pills are an Alternative Cathartic, and should be used in every family. They should be used in connec-tion with the
