

INDIAN PEACE POLICY.

From the time of the first settlement of this country to this date, for a period of over two hundred and fifty years, the "Indian troubles" have been constant...

During the rebellion the attention of the whole country was turned toward the successes and reverses of our armies in the Southern fields, but when these were no longer the absorbing topic...

Among all the policies suggested, tried or adopted, none have met with more popular favor nor been more successful than the Indian Peace Policy inaugurated by General Grant...

Q. Did you furnish any other names than those you have mentioned?

A. No, sir. NONE WHATSOEVER.

Q. Did you recommend him to erase any names from his list?

A. No, sir. I MADE NO SUCH RECOMMENDATION.

Q. Did you make any suggestion to him in regard to names being added or erased from his list?

A. None; except what I have already stated.

Q. You are interested in the trial of cases, as an attorney, at this time, are you not?

A. I am an attorney interested in the trial of cases at this time, and expect to continue to practice at this Court.

Q. Geo. W. Shontz, (Jury Commissioner,) sworn.

Question. State what you know as to the making up and drawing of the Jury for this Court?

[Mr. Woods objected to the witness answering. Said he had a right to answer such questions. After a parley between the counsel the subject was referred to His Honor, Judge Taylor, who said: "I think, for his own honor, he should tell all he knows about it." Witness then proceeded:

Answer. I came to town on Wednesday, about 11 o'clock; was in Mr. Woods' office. He invited Harris Richardson and myself to dine with him. While sitting in the room, we got to talking about the Jury. He furnished me some thirty or forty names from Dublin township, Huntingdon and Mt. Union boroughs.

Q. Who gave you Robert Leitner's name of Porter township?

A. Mr. Woods.

Q. Who gave you Mr. Graffius' name?

A. Mr. Woods.

Q. Did you examine the list of jurors with Mr. Woods?

A. Yes. WE EXAMINED THEM.

Q. Did he suggest any names to be erased from your list?

A. Yes; AT HIS SUGGESTION WE ERASED SOME NAMES.

Q. Did he suggest any other names to be added in place of those erased?

A. Yes. WE PUT OTHER NAMES IN THEIR PLACES.

Q. Did he, after having names added and others erased, examine the list?

A. He examined it afterwards.

Q. What was then done?

A. He said it would now do. I could go. We went down to his office. Mr. Spear was there. We talked some about the Jury and I went to the Prothonotary's office to aid in drawing the Jury.

We submit this testimony to our readers without further comment. It speaks for itself. Honest men of Huntingdon County, what do you think of it? This is one of the many ways in which the League has worked.

The Monitor wants to know whether we are in favor of the increase of the President's salary from $25,000 to $50,000 a year. We answer, pointedly, we ARE! The fact of the President of the United States heretofore receiving a smaller salary than the presidents of many of our leading railroad companies, we can only characterize as a reproach and a beggary shame. If ninety-seven years ago, when our population scarcely exceeded 3,000,000 of persons, $25,000 was believed to be a reasonable annual salary for our Chief Executive, it certainly ought to be double that amount now, when our population exceeds 40,000,000 and our wealth has increased in a much greater proportion. The man who would grumble at this just lives one hundred years too late. He belongs to the dead past. But Congressmen trying $5,000 on to the tail of the bill, for their own use, is quite another thing!

D. Over, Esq., formerly of the Gazette in this place, now of the Hollidaysburg Register, wants to be sheriff of Blair county. D. O. has been a law worker for his party ever since we first knew him—a period of twenty years or more—and has earned all the favors it can give him.—Lancaster Democrat.

All of which we most heartily endorse. Mr. Over has served the party well if ever man did. He certainly ought to be handsomely rewarded. If the custom of rewarding those who do the work has not gone entirely out of fashion. We hope he may get the nomination and be elected.

The Harrisburg papers appear to enjoy a monopoly of the business of throwing dirt and chaff at the Centennial Exhibition.

How brave the Monitor has become lately! Be quiet, friend, and you will exhibit a wise discretion.

How Woods Packed the Jury!

A Leaf from the Testimony Taken to Sustain the Motion to Quash the Panel.

The Motion Sustained by Judge Taylor.

It gives us pleasure to be able to lay before our readers the greater portion of the testimony of Messrs. Woods and Shontz, taken before His Honor, Judge Taylor, to sustain the motion to set aside the jury panel for the year 1870. Here it is in all its naked ugliness:

W. H. Woods, sworn.

Question. State what you know about the Jury Panel—how formed, drawn, &c., for this time of Court?

Answer. Mr. Shontz, one of the Jury Commissioners, and I met on Wednesday. I think about 11 o'clock. He said he did not know what his duties were. I suppose there were about a half-dozen persons present. I invited him and Harris Richardson to my house for dinner. In the room he said he had lists from nearly all parts of the county. He wanted me to give him some names from Dublin township. I did so; gave him some twenty or thirty names.

Q. You say you gave him some twenty or thirty names from Dublin township? Did you give him any other names?

A. I think I gave him James Port's name, and a few others from Huntingdon borough.

Q. Then you gave some twenty or thirty names from Dublin township and a few from Huntingdon borough; any others?

A. I think I gave a few names from Mount Union borough.

Q. Did you furnish any other names than those you have mentioned?

A. No, sir. NONE WHATSOEVER.

Q. Did you recommend him to erase any names from his list?

A. No, sir. I MADE NO SUCH RECOMMENDATION.

Q. Did you make any suggestion to him in regard to names being added or erased from his list?

A. None; except what I have already stated.

Q. You are interested in the trial of cases, as an attorney, at this time, are you not?

A. I am an attorney interested in the trial of cases at this time, and expect to continue to practice at this Court.

Q. Geo. W. Shontz, (Jury Commissioner,) sworn.

Question. State what you know as to the making up and drawing of the Jury for this Court?

[Mr. Woods objected to the witness answering. Said he had a right to answer such questions. After a parley between the counsel the subject was referred to His Honor, Judge Taylor, who said: "I think, for his own honor, he should tell all he knows about it." Witness then proceeded:

Answer. I came to town on Wednesday, about 11 o'clock; was in Mr. Woods' office. He invited Harris Richardson and myself to dine with him. While sitting in the room, we got to talking about the Jury. He furnished me some thirty or forty names from Dublin township, Huntingdon and Mt. Union boroughs.

Q. Who gave you Robert Leitner's name of Porter township?

A. Mr. Woods.

Q. Who gave you Mr. Graffius' name?

A. Mr. Woods.

Q. Did you examine the list of jurors with Mr. Woods?

A. Yes. WE EXAMINED THEM.

Q. Did he suggest any names to be erased from your list?

A. Yes; AT HIS SUGGESTION WE ERASED SOME NAMES.

Q. Did he suggest any other names to be added in place of those erased?

A. Yes. WE PUT OTHER NAMES IN THEIR PLACES.

Q. Did he, after having names added and others erased, examine the list?

A. He examined it afterwards.

Q. What was then done?

A. He said it would now do. I could go. We went down to his office. Mr. Spear was there. We talked some about the Jury and I went to the Prothonotary's office to aid in drawing the Jury.

We submit this testimony to our readers without further comment. It speaks for itself. Honest men of Huntingdon County, what do you think of it? This is one of the many ways in which the League has worked.

The Monitor wants to know whether we are in favor of the increase of the President's salary from $25,000 to $50,000 a year. We answer, pointedly, we ARE! The fact of the President of the United States heretofore receiving a smaller salary than the presidents of many of our leading railroad companies, we can only characterize as a reproach and a beggary shame. If ninety-seven years ago, when our population scarcely exceeded 3,000,000 of persons, $25,000 was believed to be a reasonable annual salary for our Chief Executive, it certainly ought to be double that amount now, when our population exceeds 40,000,000 and our wealth has increased in a much greater proportion. The man who would grumble at this just lives one hundred years too late. He belongs to the dead past. But Congressmen trying $5,000 on to the tail of the bill, for their own use, is quite another thing!

D. Over, Esq., formerly of the Gazette in this place, now of the Hollidaysburg Register, wants to be sheriff of Blair county. D. O. has been a law worker for his party ever since we first knew him—a period of twenty years or more—and has earned all the favors it can give him.—Lancaster Democrat.

All of which we most heartily endorse. Mr. Over has served the party well if ever man did. He certainly ought to be handsomely rewarded. If the custom of rewarding those who do the work has not gone entirely out of fashion. We hope he may get the nomination and be elected.

The Harrisburg papers appear to enjoy a monopoly of the business of throwing dirt and chaff at the Centennial Exhibition.

How brave the Monitor has become lately! Be quiet, friend, and you will exhibit a wise discretion.

WAR TO THE KNIFE.

Gen. Grant Bitterly Indignant Against the Motion—Their Extermination Urged as a Matter of Justice—Details and Process of the Shattered Peace Commissioners—Gen. J. C. Davis Appointed Gen. Canby's Successor—President Grant Directs the Inter-Departmental of the Indian Affairs.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The following dispatch shows the earnestness of the Government to punish the Modocs: HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES, WASHINGTON, April 12, 1873.

GEN. GILLEM, MOJAVE CAMP, VIA YREKA, CALA.—Your dispatch announcing the terrible loss to the country of Gen. Canby by the perfidy of the Modoc band of Indians, has been shown the President, who authorizes me to instruct you to make the attack as strong and persistent that their fate be commensurate with their crime. You will be fully justified in their extermination.

[Signed.] W. T. SHERMAN, General.

Reported as copy for General Schofield, SAN FRANCISCO, California—General Sherman, in a dispatch to General Schofield says:

The President now sanctions the most severe punishment of the Modocs, and I hope to hear that they have met the doom they so richly have earned by their insubordination and perfidy.

Gen. J. C. Davis now in Indiana, has been directed to immediately assume command of the troops now posted in the Modoc reservation.

No further participants of the Modoc massacre were received up to noon to-day. The Secretary of the Interior to-day repeated that he should ask for no money whatever for the Modocs. He did not think the massacre would seriously affect the peace policy, which protected friendly Indians but punished those that were hostile.

General Canby was in accord with this policy, and had been entrusted with the management of the proceedings connected with the Modoc mission, and his decision was to be final.

The following is the official statement of the purpose and powers of the Modoc reservation, being a letter under and in accordance with the instructions of the Commissioners were prepared by the Indian Bureau:

WASHINGTON, January 29, 1873. To the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs:

SIR:—Referring to the difficulties that have arisen and still continue to exist between the troops of the United States and the Modoc Indians in Oregon, I have to inform you that I have determined to send a Commission to the scene of the trouble for the purpose of examining into the same. This Commission will consist of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

WAR TO THE KNIFE.

Gen. Grant Bitterly Indignant Against the Motion—Their Extermination Urged as a Matter of Justice—Details and Process of the Shattered Peace Commissioners—Gen. J. C. Davis Appointed Gen. Canby's Successor—President Grant Directs the Inter-Departmental of the Indian Affairs.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The following dispatch shows the earnestness of the Government to punish the Modocs: HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF THE UNITED STATES, WASHINGTON, April 12, 1873.

GEN. GILLEM, MOJAVE CAMP, VIA YREKA, CALA.—Your dispatch announcing the terrible loss to the country of Gen. Canby by the perfidy of the Modoc band of Indians, has been shown the President, who authorizes me to instruct you to make the attack as strong and persistent that their fate be commensurate with their crime. You will be fully justified in their extermination.

[Signed.] W. T. SHERMAN, General.

Reported as copy for General Schofield, SAN FRANCISCO, California—General Sherman, in a dispatch to General Schofield says:

The President now sanctions the most severe punishment of the Modocs, and I hope to hear that they have met the doom they so richly have earned by their insubordination and perfidy.

Gen. J. C. Davis now in Indiana, has been directed to immediately assume command of the troops now posted in the Modoc reservation.

No further participants of the Modoc massacre were received up to noon to-day. The Secretary of the Interior to-day repeated that he should ask for no money whatever for the Modocs. He did not think the massacre would seriously affect the peace policy, which protected friendly Indians but punished those that were hostile.

General Canby was in accord with this policy, and had been entrusted with the management of the proceedings connected with the Modoc mission, and his decision was to be final.

The following is the official statement of the purpose and powers of the Modoc reservation, being a letter under and in accordance with the instructions of the Commissioners were prepared by the Indian Bureau:

WASHINGTON, January 29, 1873. To the Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs:

SIR:—Referring to the difficulties that have arisen and still continue to exist between the troops of the United States and the Modoc Indians in Oregon, I have to inform you that I have determined to send a Commission to the scene of the trouble for the purpose of examining into the same. This Commission will consist of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The objects to be gained by the Commission are these: First, To ascertain the causes which have led to the difficulties and hostilities between the troops and the Indians, and, secondly, To devise the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will therefore be directed to report to you the results of its investigation, and to recommend the means by which the Indians can be induced to give up their arms and to accept of the peace policy of the Government.

The Commission will be composed of three members, whose names will be hereafter furnished you. It will be required to proceed to the Modoc country as rapidly as possible and before entering upon any active discharge of its duties will confer with General Canby of the United States Army, and in all subsequent proceedings of the Commission it should confer freely with that officer and act under his advice as far as it may be possible to do so, and always with his co-operation.

The